DEATH CLAIMS BOY

Illness Covering a Brief Period Takes Life of A Thirteen Year Old Vale Boy

Jesse Kelly, 13 years old and the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hendrix Kelly, of Vale, died at the family home seven miles up the Malheur river, on Sunday, January 27th. The boy had suffered for some little time from kidney trouble and his death Sunday came after a sudden attack of sickness. He leaves, besides a sorrowing father and mother, several brothers and sisters, who will miss the loving hand of their oldest brother. Funeral services were held from the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon, and interment made in the Vale Cemetery.

Scouts Anniversary Week

The week beginning February 8th, is to be observed throughout the county as Boy Scout Anniversary Week. Vale troopers are planning on a fitting celebration here. Vale Troop is wide awake and up and doing and no small amount of the credit goes to their Scout Master Reverend W. J. Luscombe. They have taken their part in each patriotic event and have pushed each campaign in helping their elders as best they could. Vale fathers and mothers should look to it that Boy Scout Anniversary Week receives fitting observance in Vale and vicinity.

Girls Basket Ball Game

Saturday evening, February 2, will see the first girls' basket ball game of the season, when the Payette girl's quintet meets Vale girls on the local floor. The girls have been coached by Miss Agnes Ryder and show good form and considerable speed in their work and the coming game ought to be a snappy one from start to finish. The game is called for 8 o'clock and admission is 25 cents. Following is the line-up of the local girls: Lois King and Vina Mueller, centers; Frances Hornbeck and Fay Chester, guards; Gladys Murray and Helen Mueller, forwards, and Genevieve Bartache, utility.
