SIRENS OF THE SEA

Famous Rival of "Daughter of the Gods" Will Appear at the Rex Theatre Next Week

"The Sirens of the Sea" is the title of a beautiful and unique photoplay which has been secured by the Rex Theatre for next Thursday evening. The prices on this attraction have been placed at 20c and 35c, and following is a synopsis of the film:

"It's an enchanted island and over yonder sit Lorelei and her sirens. Destruction or not, I'm going to Lorelei," exclaims the handsome young yachtsman, Gerald Waldron, to Halley Boyce as they sail past a rock-bound island, where Sybil, an exquisitely beautiful maiden, and her girl companions, all donned in sea-weed in lieu of bathing suits, are playing ukuleles and dancing about on the beach. The girls seek hasty shelter as the young men make a landing and rush after them.

Gerald and Hartley both become enamored of the golden haired Sybil. Trouble ensues when Julia, a captivating brunette, consumed with jealousy, conspires with Hartley for the undoing of Sybil, who, to elude Hartley's desperate pursuit throws herself into the sea. Gerald rows about all night and falls asleep at dawn, dreaming of Sybil as Lorelei. A thrilling drama based on the "Lorelei" legend is then visualized on the screen with picturesque settings and magnificent water-witch scenes of dazzling splendor, the sea swarming with a huge ensemble of alluring water sprites performing sensational diving and swimming feats that have never been surpassed.

Retreat of the German

At the Battle of Arras will be shown at the Dreamland, Ontario, Oregon, Tuesday, February 12.

The Evening World says—"The second installment of the Official Government Pictures, "The retreat of the Germans at the battle of Arras," gives a close-up of modern warfare that is as gripping as it is true. The scenes showing the operation of the big guns, the tanks in action and the use of barrage fire, furnish a succession of thrills."

Ontario—The Malheur Drainage District lets a contract for the drainage of 5356.37 acres, at cost $150,000.

Nearby Neighborhood.

Wind Creates Rumpus—A strong sou'wester struck the city Wednesday and did no little damage over the city, overturning light barns and small buildings. The big drug sign over McGillivray's drug store was torn away from its anchoring at an opportune time, as no one was passing.

Pictures Fail to Arrive—It was a disappointed crowd which gathered at the Rex Wednesday night to witness the Retreat of the Germans at the Battle of Arras. The picture, through a mistake of the express company, was shipped on through, and the first installment of this popular series of films was missed Wednesday. However, they came Thursday and were enjoyed by a good crowd.

Returns From Sound—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tomlin returned this week from several weeks visit at Bellingham and Seattle. Altho they had a fine trip they are glad to be back in the land of sunshine after being drenched in the cold rains of the Sound country. Mr. and Mrs. Tomlin also visited at Portland and Tacoma while gone. M. D. Stallings, of Bellingham, Washington, who returned with Mr. Tomlin, will be associated with him in the Michigan Cattle Company at Harper. Mrs. Edith Olson, also of Bellingham, recently became interested in this company.

Scene From "Sirens of the Sea," Magnificent Scenic Production, to be shown at The Rex, Thursday Evening, February 14th, 1918, at 20c and 35c

There is more danger in this section of the country than in other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
