

WILL OUR TOWN WIN AN HONOR FLAG?

HONOR FLAG

In order to stimulate individual subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan, to create community activity and to mobilize, systemize and unify the initiative and energy of citizens and districts in the accomplishment of a national purpose, an honor flag and honor roll system has been adopted by the Treasury Department for the Third Liberty Loan.

- 1. A specially designed honor flag, officially adopted as the Third Liberty Loan flag, will be awarded to all communities upon their attainment of their assigned quota.
- 2. A small individual poster, containing a reproduction of the honor flag and a blank for the name of the subscriber, will be awarded to each subscriber for display in his home.
- 3. A large honor roll, containing at the top a reproduction of the honor flag and the slogan, "Help Our Town Win the Right to Fly This Flag," and below space for the names of all subscribers, will be posted in a conspicuous place in the community.
- 4. A large honor flag will be awarded to each state upon the attainment of its quota, the state flag to contain the names of those subordinate groups which have attained their quotas.
- 5. A national honor flag will be unfurled at Washington on which will be presented the returns from all the states.

OREGON'S SLOGAN

The prize winning phrase was won by Florence B. Hoyt of Portland. It is used in all advertising of the Third Liberty Loan in Oregon. Many of the other slogans from all over the state are used in connection with the cartoons being run by the Oregon press. Oregon writers and illustrators have all donated their best services in aid of the Third Liberty Loan.
