

Full News Service For All County Communities—Largest Circulation in Every Section Of Malheur County—Best Medium For All County And Outside Advertisers.

The Home Newspaper, Read in Every Nook of Malheur County.

ADVERTISE IN THE ENTERPRISE
The Only Paper That Circulates Throughout the Whole of Malheur County. It Has More Readers Because It Prints More Reading Matter.

YOUR CO-OPERATION

Suggestions and Support are Solicited to Help Make the "Enterprise" a True Representative of Vale and Malheur County. Send a Subscription to Friends Whom You Wish to Welcome to This Country.

VOLUME IX, NO. 21

VALE, OREGON, SATURDAY, APRIL 20, 1918

MALHEUR COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

SUBSCRIPTION $2.00 PER YEAR.

ONE CONTEST IN PRIMARIES

Three Candidates for Republican Nomination for Judge—Only Contest.

As far as local or county nominations are concerned the coming primaries on May 17th, will create little interest except in the nomination for County Judge. In no other instance on the Republican ballot and no place on the Democratic ballot will there be any contest for the nominations for the various county offices.

EXPLAINS DEATH OF CAPTAIN IN FRANCE

Former Vale Doctor on Active Service in France, Attends Funeral.

Lieut. Frank L. Williams, a former resident of Vale, attended the burial of his wife's brother, Captain Harry McHenry, who was killed in action against the German troops in France, on March 5th defending with his men, certain American positions against the enemy.

WILL SHUT OFF CITY WATER EARLY NEXT WEEK

Water Will Be Off While Cut-offs Are Placed On Pipe Line.

Saturday night about midnight the city water supply will be cut off and will remain off until early next week, while two cut-offs are installed in the line.

JAMIESON LADY IS CALLED BY DEATH

Death Comes After Brief Illness—Was Loyal Red Cross Worker.

Wesley M. Jamieson, wife of J. W. Jamieson, died Wednesday afternoon at the Vale hospital after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Jamieson with her husband has lived in Vale and Junction for the past 16 years and was well known as a kindly, loving and cheerful character.

THIRD CALL IN MONTH

Malheur County To Send Five More Men About May First

PORTLAND, Ore., (Special)—Still another special draft call, the third in a little more than one month, has been made by the War Department.

JORDAN VALLEY PROJECT SURE

45,000 Acres to Be Watered—First Call of 25,000 This Year.

Construction of the Jordan Valley irrigation project this season will be the largest ever undertaken in Malheur County. It is estimated that the project will water 45,000 acres of land.

GOVERNMENT MAY DESIGNATE 640 ACRE HOMESTEADS SOON

General Land Office Man Checks Applications—Field Man Expected.

David H. Morgan, a representative of the General Land Office and the U. S. Geological Survey at Washington, D. C., has been in Vale the past week, checking over applications and lists of the 640 acre homestead act, as applied in this district.

MORE MEN CALLED BY DRAFT BOARD

18 Ordered to Camp Lewis Coming Week—5 Leave Following Week.

Malheur County's quota under the second call of the new draft is 18, and those selected by the local board for service will leave for Camp Lewis April 25. Chairman Ben J. Brown, has ordered them to appear at the office of the board at the court house in Vale at nine o'clock of that day.

WANTS APPLICANTS FOR MILITARY POLICE

All Men 18 to 45 Eligible—2 Year Enlistment—Good Pay.

Headquarters, Oregon Military Police, Portland, Oregon, April 16, 1918. Malheur Enterprise, Vale, Oregon. Enclosed find copy of a circular which explains the various features of our organization.

CHINESE LAUNDRY AFIRE

Small Damage Done By Fire Which Burned Roof—Volunteers Prompt.

About 6:30 Thursday evening fire was discovered on the roof of the laundry operated by Quong Lee in the building opposite the Enterprise Office on the property of John Boswell.

DEATH OF MR. TARTT

Walter Benjamin Tartt of Prairie Du Chen Wisconsin died in Vale last Friday afternoon.

Under direction of Mrs. L. M. Thompson, who has been in Vale the past few days, a Mothers' Club was organized last Saturday afternoon at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce.

SMITH, TREASURER AND MRS. C. G. BURROUGHS

Smith, treasurer and Mrs. C. G. Burroughs, publicity, committees were appointed to arrange the time and place of meeting and plans for programs were discussed.

SUPPLIES ARRIVE

Essential two huge boxes of supplies, one of general supplies and one of food arrived at the Red Cross work room last in time to relieve a shortage of materials which has allowed up work for several days.

COUNTY SELLS $365,850 LIBERTY BONDS

Liberty Bonds Bought in Every District—County Percentage 136.

The following report was given out by the county clerk J. B. Hockaday at the county office on Wednesday night.

UNITED PRESS SERVICE

The Malheur Enterprise has contracted with the United Press Association for a Daily Telegraph News Service. The United Press is the largest and most authoritative news service in the country.

UNITED PRESS SERVICE

The Daily News Bulletin will be posted about 4 p. m. each afternoon in the Post Office News Stand and at the Post Office. Mr. Hunt and Mr. Lewis are cooperating with the Enterprise in making it possible for the people of Vale to get the news news 10 to 15 hours ahead of the general daily papers.

LATEST WAR NEWS

(United Press Service) PORTLAND—William Doffin, a former resident of Vale, Oregon, was killed in action against the German troops in France, on March 5th.

WANTS APPLICANTS FOR MILITARY POLICE

All Men 18 to 45 Eligible—2 Year Enlistment—Good Pay.

Headquarters, Oregon Military Police, Portland, Oregon, April 16, 1918. Malheur Enterprise, Vale, Oregon. Enclosed find copy of a circular which explains the various features of our organization.

CHINESE LAUNDRY AFIRE

Small Damage Done By Fire Which Burned Roof—Volunteers Prompt.

About 6:30 Thursday evening fire was discovered on the roof of the laundry operated by Quong Lee in the building opposite the Enterprise Office on the property of John Boswell.

DEATH OF MR. TARTT

Walter Benjamin Tartt of Prairie Du Chen Wisconsin died in Vale last Friday afternoon.

Under direction of Mrs. L. M. Thompson, who has been in Vale the past few days, a Mothers' Club was organized last Saturday afternoon at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce.

SMITH, TREASURER AND MRS. C. G. BURROUGHS

Smith, treasurer and Mrs. C. G. Burroughs, publicity, committees were appointed to arrange the time and place of meeting and plans for programs were discussed.

SUPPLIES ARRIVE

Essential two huge boxes of supplies, one of general supplies and one of food arrived at the Red Cross work room last in time to relieve a shortage of materials which has allowed up work for several days.

COUNTY SELLS $365,850 LIBERTY BONDS

Liberty Bonds Bought in Every District—County Percentage 136.

The following report was given out by the county clerk J. B. Hockaday at the county office on Wednesday night.

GOVERNMENT MAY DESIGNATE 640 ACRE HOMESTEADS SOON

General Land Office Man Checks Applications—Field Man Expected.

David H. Morgan, a representative of the General Land Office and the U. S. Geological Survey at Washington, D. C., has been in Vale the past week, checking over applications and lists of the 640 acre homestead act, as applied in this district.

MORE MEN CALLED BY DRAFT BOARD

18 Ordered to Camp Lewis Coming Week—5 Leave Following Week.

Malheur County's quota under the second call of the new draft is 18, and those selected by the local board for service will leave for Camp Lewis April 25. Chairman Ben J. Brown, has ordered them to appear at the office of the board at the court house in Vale at nine o'clock of that day.

WANTS APPLICANTS FOR MILITARY POLICE

All Men 18 to 45 Eligible—2 Year Enlistment—Good Pay.

Headquarters, Oregon Military Police, Portland, Oregon, April 16, 1918. Malheur Enterprise, Vale, Oregon. Enclosed find copy of a circular which explains the various features of our organization.

CHINESE LAUNDRY AFIRE

Small Damage Done By Fire Which Burned Roof—Volunteers Prompt.

About 6:30 Thursday evening fire was discovered on the roof of the laundry operated by Quong Lee in the building opposite the Enterprise Office on the property of John Boswell.

DEATH OF MR. TARTT

Walter Benjamin Tartt of Prairie Du Chen Wisconsin died in Vale last Friday afternoon.

Under direction of Mrs. L. M. Thompson, who has been in Vale the past few days, a Mothers' Club was organized last Saturday afternoon at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce.

SMITH, TREASURER AND MRS. C. G. BURROUGHS

Smith, treasurer and Mrs. C. G. Burroughs, publicity, committees were appointed to arrange the time and place of meeting and plans for programs were discussed.

SUPPLIES ARRIVE

Essential two huge boxes of supplies, one of general supplies and one of food arrived at the Red Cross work room last in time to relieve a shortage of materials which has allowed up work for several days.

COUNTY SELLS $365,850 LIBERTY BONDS

Liberty Bonds Bought in Every District—County Percentage 136.

The following report was given out by the county clerk J. B. Hockaday at the county office on Wednesday night.

UNITED PRESS SERVICE

The Malheur Enterprise has contracted with the United Press Association for a Daily Telegraph News Service. The United Press is the largest and most authoritative news service in the country.

UNITED PRESS SERVICE

The Daily News Bulletin will be posted about 4 p. m. each afternoon in the Post Office News Stand and at the Post Office. Mr. Hunt and Mr. Lewis are cooperating with the Enterprise in making it possible for the people of Vale to get the news news 10 to 15 hours ahead of the general daily papers.

LATEST WAR NEWS

(United Press Service) PORTLAND—William Doffin, a former resident of Vale, Oregon, was killed in action against the German troops in France, on March 5th.

WANTS APPLICANTS FOR MILITARY POLICE

All Men 18 to 45 Eligible—2 Year Enlistment—Good Pay.

Headquarters, Oregon Military Police, Portland, Oregon, April 16, 1918. Malheur Enterprise, Vale, Oregon. Enclosed find copy of a circular which explains the various features of our organization.

CHINESE LAUNDRY AFIRE

Small Damage Done By Fire Which Burned Roof—Volunteers Prompt.

About 6:30 Thursday evening fire was discovered on the roof of the laundry operated by Quong Lee in the building opposite the Enterprise Office on the property of John Boswell.

DEATH OF MR. TARTT

Walter Benjamin Tartt of Prairie Du Chen Wisconsin died in Vale last Friday afternoon.

Under direction of Mrs. L. M. Thompson, who has been in Vale the past few days, a Mothers' Club was organized last Saturday afternoon at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce.

SMITH, TREASURER AND MRS. C. G. BURROUGHS

Smith, treasurer and Mrs. C. G. Burroughs, publicity, committees were appointed to arrange the time and place of meeting and plans for programs were discussed.

SUPPLIES ARRIVE

Essential two huge boxes of supplies, one of general supplies and one of food arrived at the Red Cross work room last in time to relieve a shortage of materials which has allowed up work for several days.

COUNTY SELLS $365,850 LIBERTY BONDS

Liberty Bonds Bought in Every District—County Percentage 136.

The following report was given out by the county clerk J. B. Hockaday at the county office on Wednesday night.

GOVERNMENT MAY DESIGNATE 640 ACRE HOMESTEADS SOON

General Land Office Man Checks Applications—Field Man Expected.

David H. Morgan, a representative of the General Land Office and the U. S. Geological Survey at Washington, D. C., has been in Vale the past week, checking over applications and lists of the 640 acre homestead act, as applied in this district.

MORE MEN CALLED BY DRAFT BOARD

18 Ordered to Camp Lewis Coming Week—5 Leave Following Week.

Malheur County's quota under the second call of the new draft is 18, and those selected by the local board for service will leave for Camp Lewis April 25. Chairman Ben J. Brown, has ordered them to appear at the office of the board at the court house in Vale at nine o'clock of that day.

WANTS APPLICANTS FOR MILITARY POLICE

All Men 18 to 45 Eligible—2 Year Enlistment—Good Pay.

Headquarters, Oregon Military Police, Portland, Oregon, April 16, 1918. Malheur Enterprise, Vale, Oregon. Enclosed find copy of a circular which explains the various features of our organization.

CHINESE LAUNDRY AFIRE

Small Damage Done By Fire Which Burned Roof—Volunteers Prompt.

About 6:30 Thursday evening fire was discovered on the roof of the laundry operated by Quong Lee in the building opposite the Enterprise Office on the property of John Boswell.

DEATH OF MR. TARTT

Walter Benjamin Tartt of Prairie Du Chen Wisconsin died in Vale last Friday afternoon.

Under direction of Mrs. L. M. Thompson, who has been in Vale the past few days, a Mothers' Club was organized last Saturday afternoon at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce.

SMITH, TREASURER AND MRS. C. G. BURROUGHS

Smith, treasurer and Mrs. C. G. Burroughs, publicity, committees were appointed to arrange the time and place of meeting and plans for programs were discussed.

SUPPLIES ARRIVE

Essential two huge boxes of supplies, one of general supplies and one of food arrived at the Red Cross work room last in time to relieve a shortage of materials which has allowed up work for several days.

COUNTY SELLS $365,850 LIBERTY BONDS

Liberty Bonds Bought in Every District—County Percentage 136.

The following report was given out by the county clerk J. B. Hockaday at the county office on Wednesday night.

GOVERNMENT MAY DESIGNATE 640 ACRE HOMESTEADS SOON

General Land Office Man Checks Applications—Field Man Expected.

David H. Morgan, a representative of the General Land Office and the U. S. Geological Survey at Washington, D. C., has been in Vale the past week, checking over applications and lists of the 640 acre homestead act, as applied in this district.

MORE MEN CALLED BY DRAFT BOARD

18 Ordered to Camp Lewis Coming Week—5 Leave Following Week.

Malheur County's quota under the second call of the new draft is 18, and those selected by the local board for service will leave for Camp Lewis April 25. Chairman Ben J. Brown, has ordered them to appear at the office of the board at the court house in Vale at nine o'clock of that day.

WANTS APPLICANTS FOR MILITARY POLICE

All Men 18 to 45 Eligible—2 Year Enlistment—Good Pay.

Headquarters, Oregon Military Police, Portland, Oregon, April 16, 1918. Malheur Enterprise, Vale, Oregon. Enclosed find copy of a circular which explains the various features of our organization.

CHINESE LAUNDRY AFIRE

Small Damage Done By Fire Which Burned Roof—Volunteers Prompt.

About 6:30 Thursday evening fire was discovered on the roof of the laundry operated by Quong Lee in the building opposite the Enterprise Office on the property of John Boswell.

DEATH OF MR. TARTT

Walter Benjamin Tartt of Prairie Du Chen Wisconsin died in Vale last Friday afternoon.

Under direction of Mrs. L. M. Thompson, who has been in Vale the past few days, a Mothers' Club was organized last Saturday afternoon at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce.

SMITH, TREASURER AND MRS. C. G. BURROUGHS

Smith, treasurer and Mrs. C. G. Burroughs, publicity, committees were appointed to arrange the time and place of meeting and plans for programs were discussed.

SUPPLIES ARRIVE

Essential two huge boxes of supplies, one of general supplies and one of food arrived at the Red Cross work room last in time to relieve a shortage of materials which has allowed up work for several days.

COUNTY SELLS $365,850 LIBERTY BONDS

Liberty Bonds Bought in Every District—County Percentage 136.

The following report was given out by the county clerk J. B. Hockaday at the county office on Wednesday night.

BIG BOND FOR ACCUSED MEN

Sheep Larceny Case Set For May First—Cases Set For Trial

What promises to be the most interesting and perhaps hardest fought case of the coming court session has been set for May first. The Grand Jury returned indictments against C. H. Brown, Fred Pratt, G. A. Wheat, and Orrie Cole charged with larceny of a band of sheep from the N. B. N. Company. The defendants were arranged before Judge Biggs Tuesday and separate trials asked for Pratt and Cole. The trial of Brown and Wheat was set for May first.

COURT CALENDAR, REGULAR APRIL TERM

T. H. Beverly vs. P. O. Dimean; Attorneys, Winter, Wilson & Johnson for Plaintiff, Hurley & Hurley, W. A. Stone for Defendant, set for April 22, for recovery on note. State of Oregon vs. Steve Dombey; Attorneys, R. W. Swagler for Plaintiff, Wheeler & Lytle for Defendant, set for April 22, for Theft of Wire.

ITALIAN USES KNIFE

Stabbing Affair Near Nyssa Results In Arrest On Serious Charge.

An Italian by the name of Paul Lombardi is held in the county jail in lieu of $500 bail as a result of using a knife to settle a dispute with an American near Nyssa last Monday night. It is alleged that during a discussion over some patriotic matter the Italian drew a knife and stabbed the other party. He was later apprehended by the bridge guards on the bridge below Ontario, who had been warned to keep a look out, by Sheriff Brown.

CHINESE LAUNDRY AFIRE

Small Damage Done By Fire Which Burned Roof—Volunteers Prompt.

About 6:30 Thursday evening fire was discovered on the roof of the laundry operated by Quong Lee in the building opposite the Enterprise Office on the property of John Boswell.

DEATH OF MR. TARTT

Walter Benjamin Tartt of Prairie Du Chen Wisconsin died in Vale last Friday afternoon.

Under direction of Mrs. L. M. Thompson, who has been in Vale the past few days, a Mothers' Club was organized last Saturday afternoon at a meeting held in the Chamber of Commerce.

SMITH, TREASURER AND MRS. C. G. BURROUGHS

Smith, treasurer and Mrs. C. G. Burroughs, publicity, committees were appointed to arrange the time and place of meeting and plans for programs were discussed.

SUPPLIES ARRIVE

Essential two huge boxes of supplies, one of general supplies and one of food arrived at the Red Cross work room last in time to relieve a shortage of materials which has allowed up work for several days.

COUNTY SELLS $365,850 LIBERTY BONDS

Liberty Bonds Bought in Every District—County Percentage 136.

The following report was given out by the county clerk J. B. Hockaday at the county office on Wednesday night.

HON. CHARLES M. CRANDALL, Who Has Announced His Candidacy For The Republican Nomination For Representative From Malheur and Harney Counties.

Table showing Liberty Bonds sold in various districts: Grant 7, Harney 3, Malheur 3, Multnomah 80, Union 6, State Total 251.