FIGHLING WITH THRIFT

"The German women are fighting desperately with the sword of thrift says a food Administration bulletin, "Shall we refuse to take this sword and fight with it also? Extravagence costs blood, the blood of heroes. Thrift saves lives, the lives of heroes. "Extravagance does not always mean the spending of money needlessly. It of corn when it is ready to cut. means also eating food needlessly, especially wheat, sugar, fats and meat, which are the foods Uncle Sam needs for his soldiers.

"It is doubtful whether the ordinmillions of people behind the lines, pany seems to have put one over or left destitute and absolutely on Uncle Henry Ford. A large shipment of Sam to feed them.

"A soldier needs more food than the ordinary civilian because his life is see a band of new Ford on the commore strenous. Morover, his whole diet must be made practically from wheat, meats, fats, sugar, condensed milk and coffee, for excepting a few varieties of canned vegetables, these are the only foods that it is possible to ship to him from a distance. Furthermore, Uncle Sam must lay up a vast reserve stores of these foods to meet emergencies, such as food lost during a battle, food sunk by submarines, food spoiled in transportation, or bad corps next year.

"Just how well fed the American soldiers are and just how well Uncle Sam is able to meet one all of these possible emergencies depends on how thriftily American men and women save wheat, meat, sugar and fats."
