GREED THE DOWNFALL OF MANY.

Greed has been the downfall of many an individual as well as nations How easily our assurance of victory today could have been different, had Germany treated Russia as a "Big brother" instead of as a slave.

Germany with her greedy commercial instinct could not abide her time and reap the rich harvests that might have been her priviledge. Just across her border were 170,000,000 of peoples defenseless and helpless, internally torn to pieces just waiting for some strong leader to take them in. Germany thought she had them. She did have them crushed from a military standpoint even then had she mothered them, loved them, granted them mercy and extended a helping hand so that just and autonomous government should have raisen, a might Russia would have looked upon Germany as her saviour and as the result millions of soldiers might have been secured to fill her depleted armies. No, autocracy never voluntarily conceedes democracy, consequently the Christian spirit "Am I my brother's keeper" was foreign to her idea.

Japan saw the opportunity first. She knew what it would mean to have the friendship of so great a nation, but while Japan would have willingly been her friend, Russia was distrustful, and had it not been for the friendly offices of a nation in whom Russia could place her trust it is fearful to con template what would have been her fate, as well as the fate of all the allies.

America whose international dealings have always been based upon the golden rule was the one nation acceptable. America who had introduced Christianity into Japan, who in the China Boxer war neither asked or accepted indemnities, who after defeating Spain paid her $20,000,000 fr the Philippines, after having taken possession of them. When America extended the right hand of fellowship to Russia she knew it was the true grip of

It pays to be honest, there is no question but what America for years to some will be exporting millions of dollars annually of the very things that Russia will require in the upbuilding of her nation. It is true that both England and Japan are standing by our sides in protecting her, from both internal and external foes, will reap their rewards also, but it will all be done on the square. What an opportunity Germany had, she not only lost the opportunity of having 170,000,000 friends which for generations to come will be her enemies, but it would be difficult to gain say that in this once act of brutal treatment of Russia she has lost her all.

The war is not over. Do not deceive yourself. We are dealing with one of the most crafty, cunning and cheming powers the world has ever produced. This has been over played, Germany is no diplomat. She is military and when her armies begin to crumble she will go to pieces. This much may be accomplished, at least this is what the military power of Germany today is trying to accomplish. It knows that it has no chance for victory but when her armies on all sides are being crushed and pushed back, this i no time to talk of peace with the expectation of securing any concession, but it hopes to be able to stimulate the moral of the home people seemingly making a feasible peace offering, knowing that the enemy cannot and will not accept it, but with this showing, the Kaiser can make a final rally to hold the western front. He may and it looks like he is now withdrawing his lines back to the Rhine and then he will call upon every man woman an

He hopes to be able to prolong the war on this front to such an extent that the allies will finally permit a peace to be negotiated that will retain the house of Holenzollern. He may be able to continue the war many months, this is possible but he will never dictate his terms of peace.

child to help the Fatherland from being crushed.

The fact that Germany for years was one of the workls principal potash producers, she thought this would be no small factor in arranging some of the complicated commercial conditions that is often considered in peace negotiations. During the war the United States has had to supply this sudden loss from inportation by developing local supplies. The National Nitrate Company which is now developing the nitrate and potash deposits adjoining Vale has every indication of being a very large concern.

Pris Pris Pris Pris

Smoked out at last, heretofore Austria has had to do all the humiliating work in issuing peace propositions and then when rejected, the German government denied all knowledge of such overtures. It is different now, and he will find out how difficult it will be for a liar to do business with

Take plenty of time to make out your ballot. It is only a few weeks until election day. Do not over look the opportunity to vote, to give the county court authority to provide the required $20,000 in order to secure the $80,000 that is is now available from state and national treasuries.

Ma Ma Ma Ma

It is remarkable how the entire press, which in this case undoubtedly represents the people as a unit, unaminously scorned the Kaiser's proposition for an armistic. The Kaiser must make an unconditional surrender.

The number of individual bond buyers increases with each issue. All of which go to show that we as a people are rapidly awakening to the necessity of doing our bit.

Germany lost her submarine bases in Belgium last week, but if judged by her inactivity, she must have lost most of her submarines several weeks prior thereto.
