

THE VISION

WE HAVE ALL READ THE STORY OF MICHAEL ANGELO, WHO IN PASSING A ROUGH BLOCK OF GRANITE BY THE ROADSIDE COULD SEE NOTHING BUT THE OUTLINE OF AN ANGEL IMPRISONED THEREIN. HIS ARTISTIC VISION COULD PENETRATE THROUGH THE ROUGH OUTER SURFACES AND BEHOLD THE ROUNDED OUTLINE OF A COMPLETED MASTERPIECE. IT REQUIRED MONTHS OF PATIENT TOIL ON HIS PART HOWEVER TO CHIP AWAY THE IMPERFECTIONS AND REVEAL TO THE ORDINARY EYE THE BEAUTIFUL PRISONER WHICH HIS ART ALONE COULD RELEASE.

AND SO IT IS WITH HOMES

TO THE UNTHINKING A PILE OF LUMBER OR A LUMBER YARD, ONLY MEANS A CONGLOMERATE MASS OF MORE OR LESS NECESSARY UGLINESS. TO THE LUMBERMAN WITH A SOUL, TO THE ARCHITECT WITH A VISION, OR THE BUILDER WITH AN INBORN PRIDE OF ACHIEVEMENT, TO ALL OF THESE THIS UNSIGHTLY PILE OF TO-DAY MERELY CONCEALS THE BEAUTIFUL COMPLETED HOME OF TOMORROW.

LET US PREPARE FOR YOU THAT HOME OF YOUR VISION.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Interesting News Items From Enterprise of Five Years Ago.

(From Enterprise of August 22, 1919)

A crowd of jolly Ontario Boosters for the Malheur county fair arrived in Vale Thursday and were met at the depot by Mayor Davis and a large delegation of Vale citizens. They were presented with a golden key of the town and spent the afternoon in the Rex theatre, discussing the Pioneers re-union and the Better Babies contest and the Malheur county fair. Both towns extended cordial invitations to attend their coming attractions.

Brogan Returns

D. M. Brogan, who made Willow creek around Brogan and Jamieson bloom with apple and peach blossoms, and incidentally added much to the increased wealth of Vale and Malheur county, arrived in Vale Wednesday with a party of capitalists from the East.

A small shed and a stack of hay were burned at the McKinney residence in the eastern suburbs of the city Wednesday. The fire department made a quick rush to the scene, and it was quickly extinguished.

Oil Well Progressing

The Alaska oil well is now down 900 feet. The ground is rather difficult and their progress is not as rapid as they hoped, but they continue sinking every day. The geological conditions of the county are well known, and have been exploited by so many capable experts that they are certain that development will assure increased population.

Horrified by War

The legalized murder goes on in Europe, while civilization shudders in an extra war edition, a German paper announces that 39 British war vessels were sunk by their U-boats the past week.

More Homesteads

Another large tract of Malheur county land has been thrown open for homestead settlement. Intending settlers are asked to make careful inquiry as to the status of their land at the local land office before making settlement thereon.

A Summer Home For You

The district Forester has just approved the survey of twenty summer home site lots on the east shore of Lake of the Woods, Crater National Forest. This is the second survey of summer home lots to be approved on this lake. The popularity of Lake of the Woods as a recreational place has grown to such an extent that thirty-seven lots previously surveyed are now nearly all occupied under permit, and the new survey has been made to provide sites for future applicants.

This lake is about three and one-half miles long and one mile wide, with a fine gravel beach along the east shore, where all of the lots thus far surveyed are located. Fine views of Mount McLoughlin may be had from any of these lots. Permission to use these lots for erection of summer homes may be secured from the Forest Supervisor, Medford, Oregon, at five dollars each per year. The lake is accessible by automobile from Ashland and Klamath Falls by way of the Dead Indian road.

Besides to summer home sites which may be used under permit, several popular camp grounds are provided for in the surveys. Here tourists may establish temporary camps and enjoy the playground facilities without charge. The lake affords excellent opportunities for bathing, fishing and boating. Boats may be rented at a nominal cost per day.

Vegetables Give Health

Fresh vegetables, served freely, spell vigor and freedom from sickness for those who eat them. They keep the blood as it should be and the whole body in good condition. The whole family will ask for a second helping if the vegetables are cooked so they are refreshing and palatable.

Vegetables just out of the garden taste best when simply cooked—steamed, boiled, or baked and served with a little salt, butter, milk or cream. Often a heavily seasoned sauce covers up the more desirable vegetable flavor.

Overcooking of vegetables impairs their flavor. Very delicate flavors are destroyed, while vegetables with very strong flavors, such as cabbage or onions, become disagreeably strong if cooked too long. Overcooking also destroys the attractive color of some vegetables.

Cook summer vegetables as soon after they are gathered as possible, in order to preserve the flavor. If they must be kept over, keep in the ice box or some other cool place.

Let wilted vegetables soak in cold water to freshen them. If vegetables must stand after paring, cover with cold water to prevent wilting and discoloration.

Before cooking, put head vegetables and greens in cold water for one hour with a tablespoon of vinegar to remove insects, then wash very carefully.

Drain all boiled vegetables as soon as tender—they become soggy if allowed to stand undrained after cooking. The water drained off may be saved for soup stock.

To Save Is to Have

Suppose you save 25 cents a day. That does not mean much to the average man. You won't miss it.

Yet that 25 cents a day in ten years grows to nearly a thousand dollars. And the interest, which we pay you for saving your money, brings the total to well over eleven hundred dollars.

Think of what you can do with this.

Realize Your Dreams

Just a few years of small but steady savings will bring you many of the things you are longing for. Perhaps you want a car. Perhaps you want to buy the farm next to you. Perhaps you want to start a son in business, or to go traveling, or to educate yourself or your children.

Saving will do all these. And best of all, you will have formed the saving habit and will never be one of the nine men out of every ten who pass their last years penniless—in the poor-house or dependent on others.
