METHODIST LAWN FETE Children's Affair Held By Local Church on Court House Lawn. Attracts Large Attendance

The Summer Committee of the Social Circle of the Methodist Church, helped by the younger girls of the church, gave a delightful lawn social Friday August 13th. The special features of the evening consisted of games for the children who were ably assisted by Ella Beterly, leader for the older boys; Mrs. Kester, leader for the primary division, and Hazel Daily looking after the second division. Music for the evening was furnished by a Victrola, loaned to the committee by the Vale Drug Store. A choice program of music was rendered and the older children, as well as those who have yet to grow up, thoroughly enjoyed the evening. During the evening ice cream and cake were served at the tables, interspersed over the court house lawn, other delicacies were served, including popcorn and punch.

The gathering was largely attended and the committee are very well pleased with the results. The money raised applies to the Social Circle.

SCHOOL OPENS SEPTEMBER 6 At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the School District No. 15, embracing the grades and High School of the city of Vale, it was decided to open the Fall Term on Monday, September 6th.

Robert Hart has at that time a full corps of Teachers and are using every means within our power to make the Vale School equal to any in Eastern Oregon.

In order to have a successful school we need the cooperation of the parents. Your confidence in the school is reflected in your children's attitude toward the school. We request that you do not criticize the school in the presence of your children and pupils. Any suggestion for the betterment of the school will be carefully considered by the Superintendent.

There will be eight teachers who will require housing, and any one who has a place for one or more teachers will communicate with the Clerk at your earliest opportunity, we will appreciate it very much. Assuming you have no place, we expect to have the best school in the County and asking your support we are Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF DIRECTORS, Albert W. Reed, Clerk.
