OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

The dates for the annual Redmond potato show have been announced as October 14, 15 and 16.

A sale of Holstein cattle held in Marshfield brought excellent prices. Nineteen head sold for $18,000.

The Alsea farm bureau is planning to have a complete community fair during the week of September 20.

Cato Sells, commissioner of Indian affairs, with headquarters at Washington, inspected the Indian school at Chemawa.

Petitions are being circulated to have placed on the ballot in November the question of Sunday picture shows for Corvallis.

So serious has the housing problem become in Albany that the chamber of commerce will call a meeting to consider the situation.

Henry W. Kramer was electrocuted when he came in contact with an electric wire at the corner of Fifth and Blaine streets in Newberg.

More than 100 delegates from all over Oregon assembled at the Baptist church in Corvallis to attend the Oregon Baptist state convention.

The Oregon annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church opens in McMinnville on September 29, Bishop W. O. Shepard presiding.

The fall fishing season on the Columbia river opened at noon Friday and the indications are that only a small amount of fish will be packed.

Robbers staged a hold-up in the Oregon Electric Railway station at the foot of Jefferson street, in Portland, obtaining $91.87 from W. J. Walton, agent.

R. B. Goodin, secretary of the state board of control, left Thursday for New York City where he will pass several days making an investigation of the flat markets.

An appropriation aggregating at least $50,000 will be sought by the state fair board at the next session of the legislature with which to erect a new building on the fair grounds.

It brings quick results. Try a Want Ad in the Malheur Enterprise.

MILLMEN APPEAL TO RAILROADS

Portland, Or.—An important conference on lumber freight rates was held here Monday when lumbermen from many sections of the northwest and traffic and freight officials of the several railroad lines met.

New freight rates will cripple the northwestern lumber industry, according to the lumbermen who are here for the emergency meeting at which they hope to evolve some mutually satisfactory plan for relieving the conditions that these rates present.

Among the prominent railroad men here to take part in the meeting were H. M. Adams of Omaha, vice president of the Union Pacific in charge of traffic; L. R. Capron of St. Paul and A. Tilling of Seattle, assistant general freight agents for the Northern Pacific; M. J. Costello of Seattle, assistant traffic manager for the Great Northern; J. G. Woodworth, St. Paul, vice president of the Northern Pacific; and G. W. Luce, San Francisco, traffic manager of the Southern Pacific.

445,000 DIE OF INFLUENZA

68 Per Cent of Deaths in 1918 Epidemic Among Negroes.

Washington—It is estimated, according to a bulletin issued by the census bureau, that 445,000 deaths from the epidemic of influenza occurred in the United States in the last four months of 1918.

It has been found by the census bureau that the negro population suffered greatly from influenza. It is pointed out by experts that 68 per cent of the total deaths due to this disease and pneumonia were among the colored people.

California Population Shows Increase. Washington—The 1920 population of California was announced by the census bureau as 3,426,536, an increase of 1,049,987, or 44.1 per cent in the last ten years. California, which ranked as twelfth state ten years ago, will now rank in tenth place or above. The numerical increase of the state is the largest in its history.

Negotiations are reported to be pending at Klamath Falls for the merging of three banks. The combination would be the largest bank in the state outside of Portland.

The Sherman county farm bureau will unload at Moro an 8000 gallon car of gasoline. The supply will be sold at 30 cents per gallon, as against the local price of 42 cents.

Initiative petitions are being circulated in Deschutes county, asking for a vote in November on the question of a permanent county seat. Both Bend and Redmond want to be the county seat.

Will Give Box Social—Honey Crop Is Good This Year—Many New Homes Being Erected Here

A number of residences are now in course of construction here. Earl Gooding is erecting a four room house on his lots near the school building. Harper Stock is adding one room to his home and building a porch. Mrs. Tom Ware has purchased a lot and will move her residence from Westfall. The Estia Morton residence has been delayed awaiting a shipment of lumber. The garage on the back of the lot has been fitted up for a residence to be used until the house is completed.

J. N. Turner and W. C. Baker this week purchased the corner lot adjoining the Fairman property. Mr. Turner will move his home to this lot and Mr. Baker will build a small house.

Reverend G. H. Feese of Boise held services at the school house September 19. He came here to supply the services of District Superintendent Ewing of Boise who now has charge of this section.

Mrs. W. H. Ellis left Monday for her new home at Long Creek. The parsonage here has been rented to Sylvester Farrel for the winter.

Jim Roberts one of the old timers of this section has purchased an 80 acre tract of land near Vale and is moving his family to their new home west of the Roberts family will be greatly missed by their many friends here.

John Turner has taken the contract for the hauling of a carload of hay from the Pacific Livestock Company, to be delivered at Crowley for the use of their saddle horses while gathering their cattle in that section.

Alber Hucker has sublet the mail contract between Westfall and Harper to Guy Claypool and is moving his family to Harper.

The statement in the Harper items last week to the effect that the first number of the Ellison-White Company to be put on here would occur October 1st should be corrected to read October 21st.

Mrs. Louis Hucker who has spent the past four weeks with relatives in Payette returned home Friday. A meeting of the citizens of this section and Westfall will be called at Westfall October 9th for the purpose of listening to the report of the surveyor who was employed to run the lines of the Westfall Valley Irrigation District and to further the work or organizing the district.

Mrs. J. D. Fairman has been one of the victims of "Summer Flu" this week. Among the visitors to the Fair at Ontario last week from this place were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hart, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Fairman and Reuben Sills.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin of Clover Creek visited home folks Saturday and Sunday. W. H. Cripe the big bee man of this section, has been busy for several weeks preparing his honey for shipment.

The honey this year is of unusual quality and the yield has been fair. Donald McLeon came in from the Blue Mountains Saturday. He has an order in for cars for shipment of a large consignment of sheep to the Chicago markets.

Billy Welsh has purchased the
