WOOD ENTERS RACE

JUDGE DALTON BIGGS and P. J. GALLAGHER SEEK REELECTION

> By A. Going Rumor, Enterprise Political Ferret.

Now that Wells W. Wood of Ontar lo has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge of this district, which includes Malheur, Harney, and Gran Counties, the republicans of the dis-trict are assured of an entry against the encumbent, Daiton Biggs, also of Ontario, and of the Democratic wood comes from Grant County and practiced there for several years before moving to Malheur, so that he should have a following in the north part of the district as well as in the home county. We also hear that W. H. Brooke of Ontario is threatening to break cover and enter the race for the Republican color If he should, there should be a livel battle for the Mulheur County major ity as well as that of the whole

There seems to be no one or the democratic horizon to run the primary heat against Judge Bigg so far, but there are a number strong attorneys of that fait; in the district and there is yet time

No one has made a formal an nonneement in the commissioner stakes but it is rumored that the encumbent, Frank Vines, will, be it the race again for the reconlicant nomination, but no opposition threat
