of execution in foreclosure duly and regularly issued by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Malheur, dated the 10th day of May, 1922, in that certain case in said Circuit Court, wherein H. P. McCord is plaintiff and Samuel V. Hess, Priscilla Hess, his wife, Western Bond and Mortgage Company, a Corporation, and Henry Eldridge are defendants, and wherein said plaintiff recovered said judgment and decree against the said defendants Samuel V. Hess and Priscilla Hess, in the sum of Four Thousand Dollars with interest thereon from July 6th, 1920, at the rate of eight per cent per annum, and in the further sum of Four Hundred Dollars as attorney's fees, and the further sum of Twelve and 95-100 Dollars costs and disbursements, which said judgment and decree provides that the said sums of money constitute a valid lien against the homestead described premises superior to any claim of the above named defendants or any of them upon said property, and further provides that the said premises be sold to satisfy said judgment, costs and accruing costs, which said judgment and decree was duly and regularly given, made and entered on the 26th day of April, 1922.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to said execution, I will, on the 12th day of June, 1922, at the front door of the Malheur County Court House at Vale, in Malheur County, Oregon, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand paid, the following described real property, situated in Malheur County, Oregon, and described as follows:

The Northeast quarter and the Northwest quarter of Section Twenty-two in Township Eighteen, South of Range Forty-five, East of Willamette Meridian, except a deeded strip sixty feet wide across the North half of the North Half of said Section Twenty-two, and containing 7.28 acres or less, leaving the area to be sold 312.72 acres more or less, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the said judgment and decree, together with the costs which have or may accrue under and by virtue of said execution.

Dated at Vale, Malheur County, Oregon, this 13th day of May, 1922.

H. LEE NOE, Sheriff of Malheur County, Oregon.
