Social Events of Week

Lawn Party.

The pretty country home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Vines was the center of social attraction on Saturday evening when forty guests were delightfully entertained with a lawn party.

The lawn and porch were gayly illuminated with pretty Japanese lanterns.

Throughout the evening the guests enjoyed dancing. At midnight a delicious luncheon was served. The lawn party is reported one of the most enjoyable social functions of the month.

Lawn Social.

Tuesday Rev. and Mrs. J. A. McIlton entertained friends and members of the Christian church at their home with a lawn social. About fifty guests were present. Pretty Japanese lanterns were used for decoration and lighting. At the close of a pleasant evening spent playing various games dainty refreshments were served by members of the church.

Surprise Party.

The Freshman class of the school year just passed gave Miss Beth Ager the surprise of her life Friday night as a farewell party before her departure for Portland and Corvallis. A merry evening passed in playing games indoors and on the lawn.

P. E. O.

Chapter K of the P. E. O. Sisterhood met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Young. Bouquets of California poppies and blue bachelor buttons created a charming effect. The vice-president, Mrs. Lytle, read a program for year beginning in October, which was adopted.

After adjournment, the hostess served refreshments and the guests lingered for the usual social hour.

Honor Mr. and Mrs. Speith.

The pretty home of Dr. and Mrs. The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Steelhammer was the scene of social interest Wednesday evening. Mrs. Steelhammer and Mrs. Lumpee entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Speith, who are leaving for Boise today.

The living and dining rooms were lovely with baskets and vases of yellow roses. There were two tables of bridge, Mrs. Lloyd Riches and Jas. A. Smith winning high honors. One of the greatest pieces of constructive legislation of the Republican Congress was the consolidation of the various agencies dealing with the ex-service man under the one head of the Veterans Bureau. This assures expedition as well as fair and adequate treatment of our disabled ex-service men.

In addition to this consolidation and reorganization additional millions were appropriated for the use of the Bureau. American ex-service men of the World War have been better treated at the hands of the Republican Congress than the ex-service men of any previous war in American history and better treated than the ex-service men of any other nation engaged in the World War. And the end is not yet. As an aid to the agricultural sections and as an antidote to the unemployment situation, the Congress passed a $75,000,000 appropriation bill for the construction and maintenance of improved highways, which sum will be doubled when the provisions of the bill are complied with by States putting up an equal sum of money.

Among the numerous constructive and relief measures the Maternity Bill was enacted in response to the demand agencies controlled by the Democrats had received a minimum of benefit from the funds. A large part of this was due to lack of co-ordination and cooperation of the various bureaus. One of the greatest pieces of constructive legislation of the Republican Congress was the consolidation of the various agencies dealing with the ex-service man under the one head of the Veterans Bureau. This assures expedition as well as fair and adequate treatment of our disabled ex-service men.

Mrs. B. Schlupe arrived in Vale Tuesday from her home at Harper expecting to spend a short time in the county seat.

In addition to this consolidation and reorganization additional millions were appropriated for the use of the Bureau. And the end is not yet. As an aid to the agricultural sections and as an antidote to the unemof the womanhood of the country. This great piece of humanitarian legislation is the first of an ambitious program of progressive legislation espoused by women in their new sphere of political activity.

The Republican Congress enacted a new taxation measure. This new measure reduces during the current year the public tax bill in the sum of $318,000,000. It increases the exemptions allowed the man of moderate income; it repeals the "nuisance" taxes; all of the transportation taxes, which were a heavy burden upon agricultural and industrial shippers; it repealed the excess profits tax and reduced and revised the surtax.

In this connection it is interesting to set down the actual reduction of public expenditures which have taken place since the Republican Party came into control of the United States Congress. The operating cost of the United States Government in the year 1919 was $19,000,000,000. That year the Republican Congress began to function. It used a blue pencil upon the appropriations asked by the Democratic administration chiefs. The operating costs of the Government in 1920 were only $7,500,000,000. The Republican Congress continued to economize, and the cost of running the Government in 1921 was reduced to $6,500,000,000. Much of this was the residue of the Democratic administration. By close co-operation between the executive departments and the Congress in 1921, the expenditures of the Government for the current year are to be not in excess of $4,000,000,000, and economies which have been put into effect give promise of cutting this to $2,500,000,000. In connection with this, Congress has enacted the foreign-debt funding law, which authorizes a commission to take immediate steps to place our loans to foreign countries in a collectible shape, so that we may begin to receive the interest and principal due us and thereby still further reduce our domestic taxation.

In summing up, it may be stated that the Republican Party in March, 1921, found the nation with her relations with many foreign countries strained to almost the breaking point, her fundamental principles under discussion, her historic significance in question, her population swelled with the profits of war and wild extravagance, her industries inflated by over-expansion from war demands, and
