Every Woman Loves to Paint
when she knows how—let us tell you.

PAINTING is really fascinating, and you probably will not want to stop as long as you live. (Of course, as you might imagine, this is true only of women.) But why not get introduced to the fascinating art of painting by the one who can teach you to paint

Miss Edith F. Allen, Free Art Teacher and Supervisor of the Free Art Department in Malheur County.

Miss Allen is the director of the new Free Art Department, organized by the Malheur County Board of Supervisors. She is a graduate of the Art Department of the University of Oregon, and for the last four years she has taught free art in Malheur County. She is especially fitted for such work.

Miss Allen has had considerable experience in painting and has taught in several art schools. She is a member of the Oregon Art Association and a member of the Oregon Artists' Guild. She has had several exhibits of her work in the past year and has received many awards for her paintings.

She is well known in Malheur County and has a large number of pupils who come to her classes. She is a very popular teacher and has a real love for art.

Public School Vote 314 x Yes

The purpose of the compulsory public school attendance bill is to secure the attendance of all children of school age, to the end that American public schools may be strengthened in their educational work. This bill provides no religious instruction, and has no religious bias. It has no religious purpose.

This bill will provide a means to ensure that all children shall be taught while they are still young, and that their minds shall be prepared for the work of the future. It will provide a means to ensure that all children shall be taught to read and write, and that they shall be taught to think for themselves. It will provide a means to ensure that all children shall be taught to work, and that they shall be taught to be independent.

To make an all-American nation we must have all-American schools. This bill provides for all-American schools. It is a bill for all-American schools.

One Flag—One School—One Language

One of the greatest blessings of American citizenship is the freedom of choice in education. The people of America have the right to choose the kind of school and the kind of education that will best suit their needs.
