Water is Troubling Railroad in Gorge

Chinook winds which have swept the Cascades for the last two days, caused a heavy volume of water to run out of the mountains during the past 24 hours, with the result that the S. P. & S. and O-W. R. & N. lines in the Columbia river gorge were experiencing water troubles on Monday. Between Portland and Pasco watr was reported on the North Bank line in several places this morning but no trouble was anticipated, as faintenance crews were engaged in keeping tunnls and drain pips open.

Seattle,— Transforming a happy family Christmas party into a shambles, E. Newrider invaded the home of his old friend D. C. Engel, here, this morning and shot three of Engel's children to death. He then turned the weapon upon himself and blew out his brains. The dead are Anna Engel, 17; Hans Engel, 14, and Lily Engel, 3. The elder Engel, his wife a son and daugther escaped. No reason was ascribed for the act. The only explanation was that Newrider had suddenly lost his mind.

As Newrider entered the house unannounced and started firing, Anna Engel, the 17-year-old daughter, made a heroic but futile effort to stay the madman.

"Drop those guns, I'm not afraid of you," she told him, throwing herself between her father and Newrider Her head and body were literally riddled with bullets.

The wanton killing was witnessed by the girl's father and mother, two brothers and a sister who immediately broke for cover, it being impossible to do anthing with the maniac.

Newrder pursued them with fiendish determination. Beside the Christmas tree little 3 year old Lily sat in a rocking chair cooing over a new dolly that Santa had brought her and unaware of the tragedy. Newrider shot her through the head as she sat there.

Little Hans was the only other member left in the house. Terrified he had crawled under his bed and was trying to hide when Newrider found and shot him.

Officers who investigated the tragedy found 14 bullet holes in the house. Newrider had three revolvers with him.

Four motorcycle patrolmen and four detectives were rushed to the scene. Coroner Carson and a deputy took charge of the four bodies.

We wish to express our very hearty appreciations of the many expressions of good will that has been shown us since coming to Vale, by the good people of the community, and especially for the many nice presents and greetings of good cheer extended us this Christmas week. Your many expressions of confidence and good will have put us under very great obligations to you which we can only hope to repay through grateful service. We are praying God's richest blessing's upon ou all and that He will give us strength and wisdom to be a blessing to you during the coming days. From the depths of grateful hearts we thank you.

Very sincerely,
A. B. Weaver and family.
