Wonderful Blood Remedy That Works in the Tissues
The Very Latest Theory About How and Why the Blood is Disordered.

S. S. S. Means Pure Blood Which Insures Long Life and Health.
The great experts in Chemistry and Physiology now declare what has all along been contended by the Swift Laboratory that the germs of blood disorders find lodgment in the interstices of the tissues.
And herein is where S. S. S. goes to work rapidly, effectively and with wonderfully noticeable results.
This famous blood purifier contains medicinal components just as vital and essential to healthy blood as the nutritive elements of wheat, roast beef, and fats and the sugars that make up our daily ration.
As a matter of fact there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment.
That is why it regenerates the blood supply; why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming eczema, rash, pimples, and all skin afflictions.
And in regenerating the tissues S. S. S. has a rapid and positive antiodic effect upon all those irritating influences that cause rheumatism, sore throat, weak eyes, loss of weight, thin pale cheeks, and that weariness of muscle and nerve that is generally experienced, by all sufferers with poisoned blood.
Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store, and in a few days you will not only feel bright, and energetic, but you will be the picture of new life.
S. S. S. is prepared only in the laboratory of the Swift Specific Co., 201 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Who maintain a very efficient Medical Department, where all who have any blood disorder of a stubborn nature may write freely for advice.
S. S. S. is sold everywhere by all drug stores.

VISIT TO ANT VILLAGE WITH "SANDMAN"

The Sandman and Twins Call to Visit the Apple Factory.

"Mother Dearly," said Johnnie one night after he and Jessie had crawled up in the big chair before the fireplace, "what makes those apples green when they are ripe and other apples green when they are ripe?" Mother Dearly hugged her little Twins close to her side and smiled into the fire, and just then there came a little pop in the fireplace and there in a cloud of black soot stood the Sandman, laughing and bobbing his head at the children.
"Seems to me I heard something said about apples as I came down the chimney," said the Sandman.
"Yes," said Jessie, "Johnnie was just asking Mother Dearly why it is that some red apples are green and some green apples are red."
"Didn't either," said Johnnie. "I asked her why green apples are green and red too."
"Don't quarrel about that, because we can easily go and find out all about it," said the Sandman. So he pulled out of his pocket the very same two long pointed caps with bells on their ends that the Twins had worn before, and they clapped them on their heads and there they were, no bigger than the Sandman. The Sandman took each one by the hand, just as he had done before, but this time they did not skip up the chimney in the smoke. The library window was open and through it came a long level sunbeam from the big red sun going to sleep over behind the orchard.
The sunbeam looked just like a wonderful road all made out of gold and the first thing they knew they were up on that golden road and there was the cutest little golden automobile they had ever dreamed of. It was no bigger than half an orange but it was plenty big enough for the Sandman and the Twins, so they hopped in and the Sandman cranked up the engine and away they went like the wind.
The Sandman steered the golden automobile straight along the golden sunbeam road and before long the road had to make a little turn to go around the trunk of a big old apple tree.
"This is the apple factory," said the Sandman, and they all climbed out of the automobile and stretched their legs. They were way up high in the branches because, you know, the sunbeam road runs right through the air and hardly ever touches the ground.
"There is no time to lose if we are to see all of the factory and get back to Mother Dearly before sleepy time," called the Sandman, as he slid down one of the branches toward the big trunk. The Twins slid down after him and I expect they wore holes in their stockings doing it. Down at the place where the branch joined the trunk of the tree there was a little bell knob and the Sandman gave this a great pull. In a moment the Twins heard a tiny little creaking noise, just like a door swinging in the wind, and there stood a little man much smaller than the Sandman, all dressed in a pretty suit of green, and all wet with apple juice.
"Hallo Sandy, how are ye," he called, and opened the door wide.
"I'm pretty well, Jackie," said the Sandman. "I thought that I would bring Johnnie and Jessie over and take them through the factory."
"All right, come on in," squeaked Jackie. Of course the inside of the apple tree was very dark and you and I could not have seen anything after the door was shut, but the Twins could see as well as if it had been out of doors because of their magic caps.
They found the inside of the tree all bellow and there was a tiny little wooden ladder running clear from the
