Henry P. Works, beloved son of Mrs. H. F. Works, passed away at his home 4148 93st. March 5 1914. He leaves to mourn his loss, his mother and two brothers Capt. Edgar H. Works of Portland and H. G. Works, of Chico Cal. besides a host of friends. Funeral was held at his home Sat. P. M. at 2 o'clock interment at Multnomah Cemetery.

The Webfoot Athletic Club was given a benefit show at the Princess theatre Tuesday evening. Besides the regular run of films special music was rendered by a quartette of Arleta girls composed of Misses Dodge, Rowland and Hayes, and Baker and Rennie gave selections of the violin and guitar.

Chas. Goddard Ruttingh of 65th street, Arleta, "the pioneer tinner" of Arleta, died Monday in the hospital of a series of complications. He was over 60 years of age. He leaves a wife, a son and four grand children in Chicago. They will probably attend the funeral. Ruttingh was a native of Sweden. He and two sisters came to this country. He was successful in business and at one time owned a coast wise steamboat line and with his sisters formerly owned much valuable property in Portland, including the Pennager block. Mr. Ruttingh's downfall was due to intemperate habits.
