CHERRYVILLE

The first of April this year looks like May the 1st.

Old-timers say this is the earliest spring they can remember.

Stock of all kinds are out on the range and forget, or don't care, to come home as there is plenty of feed in every direction.

Everybody was out to Gordon's sale, near Sandy, last Saturday. Everthing sold high, especially cows, which were higher than the proverbial cow that jumped over the moon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhodes moved out last Saturday from their ranch three miles south of here and will make their home in Boring for a time. At least, in order to be near a physician for their little daughter Alice, who is afflicted with tuberculosis of the spine.

Mr. Geo. Couper went to Gresham last week where he bought a fine young draft mare suitable for road or ranch work. A good stout, willing animal will do the work on a small ranch and raise a colt besides.

Prof. James, school supervisor, was in this neighborhood last week and visited our school, of which he speaks well.

The city papers contain glowing accounts of Helen Keller, the wonderful and gitted mute. She is worthy of all praise, not only for her great mental ability developed under great difficulty, but her warm loving heart. The city papers however neglect to add that she is a socialist and she says "It is inconceivable that in a world so full of beauty and abundance that there should be so much poverty and suffering," and further says if she was a laborer "She would put her hands in her pockets and keep them there until they paid her a living wage."

A demonstrator for the Ford automobile was in Sandy last week and said while Henry Ford paid the best wages of any manufacturer in the world, any employee who abused his bounty and spent his extra wages in riotous living was at once set back to the old standard until he learned to make better use of his prosperity. Lots of people can't stand prosperity. A good many of us think we are somebody and a little run of good luck confirms that idea in a hurry and we begin to fly high.

As the day for the primaries begin to draw nigh considerable speculation is made as to the probable candidates. In this vicinity Brownell has quite a few supporters among Republicans, for Governor at this writing, and Manning seems to have most friends among the Democrats. U'Ren will get a goodly number of votes this fall. In such a mix-up it is hard to tell who will come out on top. Chamberlin for U. S. Senator will get a majority here, at this writing, while Hawley the Republican candidate for congress will be badly scratched.

CORBETT

E. D. Chamberlain made a shipment of rhubarb to The Dalles Monday and went to that place Wednesday to sell his entire crop.

Mr. John Roher and A. D. Merston went to St. Martin's Hot Springs Wednesday.

Fred C. Reed was at Warrendale Thursday.

Mr. Maybee and daughters were in Portland Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell of Troutdale spent a few hours with their son-in-law and grand children Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Myrta Reed and daughter Laura were in Portland Friday and Saturday.

After a period of two months Frank Reed returned from a Portland hospital Saturday.

Eugenia Park

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Snider and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Montgomery royally entertained their many friends at the home of Mr. Montgomery on 8th avenue on March 17th in honor of St. Patrick's Day. Refreshments and entertainment were in keeping with the day. All present received pretty souvenirs from the hosts.

Several new residences have been erected in Eugenia Park. Mr. Frank Stenle is building a modern bungalow, 26x34 in dimensions, on his property on 9th avenue.

Friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Dick Cantrell of 10th avenue will be sorry to hear that she had a slight attack of paralysis Tuesday evening. Best wishes are for her early recovery.

The Herald and its patrons wish to extend their heart-felt sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Nordburg and family of 82nd street in their recent bereavement and loss of a loving son and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kessler of 9th avenue have sold their property and moved on their acreage near Nampa, Oregon.

Mrs. Bloomquist of 10th avenue is gradually improving, which news will be gladly received by her many friends and acquaintances.

Mr. Henry Richmond of 10th avenue had the misfortune to have his left hand badly sprained last week, causing him to lose the use of it for some time.

Arleta W. C. T. U. Notes

Definite arrangements for hearings of Sheppard-Hobson resolution for national prohibition have been made. In the House the hearing will be held the morning of April 15. In the Senate the hearing is scheduled for April 16. It is to be hoped that friends of Prohibition will send letters to our Senators and Representatives on behalf of the measure. The liquor interests are leaving no stone unturned or letters unwritten that will urge our representatives in Washington to decide in their favor. Let us work as well as pray.

On April 28 there will be held in the Arleta W. C. T. U. a silver medal essay contest on the subject, "Benefits of State Wide Prohibition on the Laboring Man." Watch for the hour and place next week.

Meeting this week was well attended. The subject discussed was Medical Temperance.

Crime of Indifference

Indifference to public good is inexcusable and it is high time that public conscience awoke and right all wrong doing in public affairs. If taxes are too high, and graft and crime unbearable; if pauperism is increasing and poverty is not abating, don't lay these evils at the door of the mayor, chief of police, or the sheriff. Don't lay them at the door of the governor and his militant host of admirers. Don't lay it at the door of the press that is fair and which opens her columns to all moral propaganda and the abolition of the saloon.

Don't lay all this sin at the door of the legislator, for he is elected to do the will of the morally indifferent people who never ask a question about his moral habits.

Don't lay the sin of public oppression at the door of the W. C. T. U., Anti-saloon League and totetlers, for they are doing more than their share because you don't do anything.

Don't lay all this sin and crime, high taxes at the door of the preachers and the Evangelical churches for they have always opposed graft, oppressive, speaking evil of magistrates and have stood for law and order. But you say where are we to lay this charge? My answer is, lay it at the door of all who are indifferent to public good. Those have no political conscience.

W. Boyd Moore.

The regular monthly concert at the Methodist church last Sunday evening was well attended and highly appreciated. It consisted of choruses, quartettes, duets, solos, and instrumental selections which were much enjoyed.

A fire in the rear of the Arleta school house Monday afternoon might have done some damage had not the pupils of the school and Prof. Newbill proven such expert firemen. They had the fire out before the Kern Park boys arrived. In the excitement the professor got his hand severely hurt.

The Princess theatre will give the Webb Foot athletics a benefit show next Wednesday evening, April 8th. There will be two big attractions besides the regular show.

F. Larson and E. E. Fulton visited the Lents lodge of Oddfellows on Tuesday evening as a committee of invitation to a joint service on anniversary day.

Mrs. T. K. Ramsey, near Firland station, got up on a nail keg to put up a clothes line last Thursday morning. The keg turned over with her and she fell breaking her arm near the wrist. Dr. Lockwood reduced the fracture.

Fire broke out last night at 11 o'clock in Mrs. Agnes Gorton's millinery store on the corner of Foster road and 66th street. The supposition is it caught by an electric iron. Firemen responded and put it out but most of the goods were destroyed. It was partially covered by insurance.

At 8:56 Friday morning the chimney caught fire at 6142 1/2 Foster road, property owned by J. F. Lund and occupied by stores on the ground floor, and the second floor occupied as offices. No damage was done. Firemen of Engine Co. 31 were there to watch it. They let it burn out itself.

The people give credit to Capt. R. Canuto and Lieutenant K. D. Laisner of Engine Co 31 for their prompt work in saving the adjoining property on 4th avenue the night of March 27th. A lamp exploded in the house at 109 4th avenue Lents, and started three houses on fire before they got to the blaze but it was soon put out after engine 31 arrived under the care of Capt. Canuto.
