Not So Lonesome.

The new summer boarder gazed over the picturesque New Hampshire landscape, then slowly fading out of sight, and noted the absence of houses.

"It's beautiful! Grand!" said he to the boss farmer, who was standing close by. "But, aren't you lonesome—so far from the village and no neighbors?"

"Lonesome!" echoed the farmer, in genuine astonishment. "Why, on a clear day we can see Mount Washington!"—Everybody's Magazine.

Had More Hide Than Money.

"There was one time when Captain 'Bill' MacDonald, United States Marshal for northern Texas, who was Mr. Wilson's bodyguard during the latter's campaign for the presidency, and who, it is related, would 'charge hell with a bucket of water,' was almost bluffed by a fellow Texan," said H. A. Dewitt of Austin, at the Raleigh. "Captain 'Bill,' the story goes, had been playing a gentleman's game, and among the players was one who at the end of the season owed considerable money. MacDonald made several requests for the money, but it was not forthcoming, whereupon he suggested that he would take it out of the doctor's hide.

"The courageous MacDonald, however, was not prepared for the answer. "Go to it," replied the man who owed the money. "I have more hide than money, and I am more willing to part with the hide than the money I have."

"It is said that Captain 'Bill' did not collect the debt out of the fellow's hide,"—Washington Post.

Forethought.

Mrs. Whann, the weeping widow of a well-known man, requested that the words "My sorrow is greater than I can bear" be placed upon the marble slab of her dear departed.

A few months later the lady returned and asked how much it would cost her to have the inscription effaced, and another substituted.

"No need of that, marm," replied the man, soothingly; "you see, I left just enough room to add 'alone.'"—Harper's Magazine.

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Sold Again.

For 10 long but blissful years they had walked along the path of love; but as yet the lovesick youth had never mentioned about their getting married. Courtship is very charming; but when there does not seem to be altar rails at the end of it girls naturally begin to lose interest in the game.

Anyhow, Jane thought it time that the marriage day was fixed, so she threw out a gentle hint to her lover by way of encouraging him. Encouragement, she thought, was all the dear fellow wanted.

"Nathaniel," she whispered coyly, "they're saying we're going to be married soon."

"Are they, though," answered the stolid swain. "What a jolly sell it'll be for them when they find out we ain't."—London Tit-Bits.

Difference of Opinion.

"There is only a slight difference of opinion between myself and that political economist," remarked Mr. Dustin Stax blandly.

"And what is that?"

"He thinks my business should be managed for the benefit of the public, while my idea is that the public should be managed for the benefit of my business."—Washington Star.

For a Warm Bed.

There are lots of people who say they can't sleep with their windows open wide at night because, no matter how many blankets are on the bed, they become chilled from the air during the night.

This is very simply and easily remedied. The chilling comes from beneath the bed. The mattress and the linen or cotton sheet retain little heat and are easily penetrated by the air from the window.

Try spreading a woolen blanket underneath the bottom sheet. The blanket beneath will keep the body's heat from escaping downward, as the blankets on top keep it from escaping above. You will be surprised to see how snug and warm the bed becomes.

Frozen Fig Pudding.

This is a delicious frozen fig dessert. To make it, melt four tablespoonfuls of sugar in a saucepan and cook it until it is a thick caramel, like molasses, but do not burn. Then add a cup of water and boil until all the sugar is dissolved.

Add two cups of milk, a cup and three-quarters of granulated sugar and the yolks of eight eggs. Strain the caramel into it and add a pound of dried figs, cut in pieces not larger than raisins. Freeze until thick and then pack in a mold. Put in salt and chopped ice for two and a half hours.

Tomato Omelette.

Make an ordinary omelette and before serving pour this mixture into it: Take two or three tomatoes and cut them into pieces; slice an onion very thin, melt a tablespoonful of butter into a saucepan and place the onion in it. Cook them, but do not allow to color; add pepper, salt and the pieces of tomato. Stir all together for ten minutes; take out the mixture, pass it through a sieve and return to the pan; thoroughly reheat and serve.

Soap in a Bag.

Soap is generally wasted in washing dishes, but the soap bag will eliminate all waste. An old salt or sugar bag will make a satisfactory soap bag. Into it put all old scraps or odd bits of soap. Wash the dishes with this bag as you would with a regular dishcloth.

How to Fry Mush.

When frying mush it improves the crispness of the mush very much to dip it in the white of an egg before putting it in the hot pan.

GIVE YOUR MACHINE SUNSHINE

Will Prevent it "Running Hard" and Also Add Much Time to its Length of Usefulness.

I am a visiting dressmaker, said a woman recently, and in this capacity go from house to house. In my time I have worked, of course, at sewing machines without number. My verdict is that not one in a hundred women knows what causes the machine to "run hard" or how to remedy it.

The first idea of most women in whose homes I find entry is to oil the machines with kerosene, and—well, this treatment does ease them for a few hours.

But the applying of kerosene is by no means a happy thought, for machine oil and kerosene in combination make a paste, which soon results in a friction that is harmful for the complicated parts of the machinery.

My advice to the unknowing is that she should move her machine on a sunny day to a window and open it. The sun's rays can't be too warm. Then let her fill her oil can with clean machine oil and place it in a pan of water on the stove until it beats to boiling point. This arrangement is both safe and easy. Now the already warmed machine should be treated with hot oil. Every point, from the bobbin winder to the "foot," should be carefully oiled.

After the superfluous oil has been wiped off the machine will keep in good condition for six months.

ALL AROUND THE HOUSE

Some of the best cooks bake only the crust of tarts and fruit pies, putting in the filling of cooked fruit when they are cold.

Paste the owners' initials over each towel used on a large family towel rack.

A tongue for boiling is best fresh from the pickle.

Tomatoes with the skin removed and hollowed out, then filled with minced fish or chicken and a little mayonnaise, make a delicious relish.

A good luncheon dish is made of the macaroni and stewed tomatoes left from the night before. Heat them over again together and serve, or pour into a baking dish, cover with bread-crumbs, and bake till brown.

A bad scorch may respond to a mixture of fuller's earth, powdered soap, and vinegar formed into a paste and spread over the scorch. After drying, the plaster should be brushed away and repeated, if necessary.

For savory baked potatoes, wash and scrub the potatoes thoroughly clean, then wipe dry. Bake one hour in a steady oven. Break open and dress with salt, pepper and cream. Serve in the jackets in a fringed napkin.

When making a cake always mix the spices and baking powder with the flour before it is sifted.

Wiser Than They Seemed.

Boys, like things, are not always what they seem. A school inspector having been told that a certain class was very dull, decided to test them himself. Asking the lads to give him a number, and one of them calling out "Seventy-two," he wrote on the blackboard "27." No remark coming from the class he asked for another number, and was given "forty-eight." This he wrote on the board "84," and turned to observe the signs of intelligence. None were apparent.

"Certainly a very dull lot," he thought, and once more asked one of them to give him a number.

Gets Right Twist On Rheumatism

Makes Short Work of Cleaning Out Your Entire System—Aches and Pains Go Fast.

In S. S. S. You Get a Twist on Rheumatism That Settles It.

Many a rheumatic sufferer has been to the drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. and been handed something claimed to be "Just as good." Truly, to ask for bread and be given a stone is still in practice. If you are troubled with rheumatism in any form be sure to use S. S. S. and note its wonderful influence.

S. S. S. has the peculiar action of soaking through the linestines directly into the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every emunctory becomes in effect a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S. S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the one end of casting out every irritating, every pain-inflicting atom of poison; it dislodges by friction all accumulations in the joints, causes acid accretions to dissolve, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains.

And best of all this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach. If you have drugged yourself until your stomach is nearly paralyzed, you will be astonished to find that S. S. S. gives no sensation but goes right to work. This is because it is a pure vegetable infusion, is taken naturally into your blood just as pure air is inhaled naturally into your lungs.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and ask for S. S. S.

You may depend upon it that the store that sells you what you ask for is a good place to trade. Write to the Swift Specific Co., 204 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their Book on Rheumatism.
