Edward Smith has returned from an extended visit in California.

W. A. Hall is spending a few weeks at Union, Oregon, his old home.

George Disbrow and son visited at the Hogues on Monday of this week.

A. Johanson is building a new house at 7th Ave. near the M. E. Church.

Frank Wiley of Second Ave. supports a fine new Buick Automobile these days.

Mr. Swenson of Alaska street was operated upon last Thursday and is reported recovering.

Stanford Moore left Saturday morning for Willamina to take charge of the Willamina Methodist church.

Mrs. Richard Hohfeld, one of the Herald readers, will make an extended trip through the East and South.

Mr. William Fague and family, have moved from Fifth avenue to Woodmere station.

Mrs. James Bush, nee Cynthia Thomas, is spending the week visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Thomas.

Mr. Huxley, near the Junction, is recovering from a severe illness which has confined him to his home for several weeks.

Mr. Cleland, having sold his blacksmithing business, will locate on a farm some place in the state, Lents thereby losing a valuable citizen.

The "Helping Hand" class of the Methodist Sunday School will have a candy sale at the Grays Crossing Drug store Saturday afternoon of this week.

The "Tillawanda Camp-fire Girls" of Lents had their pictures in Sundays Journal. This is a new organization the object of which is to furnish outdoor exercise for girls.

E. J. S. McAllister and E. E. Weidmeyer, notorious in the Criminal Court annals for immoral practices, are said to be making their homes in Saginaw Heights.

Mr. T. J. Kreuder's little daughter met with a painful accident this week. In some manner two of her fingers were caught in the knives of the lawn mower and the ends nearly severed. Dr. Hess attended the little girl.

Miss Alice Foster, one of our Lent's girls was married to Mr. Loyd Hulbert of Albany. They were married April 2. We extend congratulations to the young couple. They will reside on a farm near Albany.

The entertainment of the Woodmere school was a success in every way. The children showed careful training on the part of the teachers who have labored so faithfully to make the school a success in every way.

The regular meeting of the Lents P. T. C. will be held Tuesday, April 14, instead of Friday. A good speaker will be secured and all are requested to be present as matters of importance will be discussed. Remember the date Tuesday, April 14, at 2.30 P.M.

A son was born to Mrs. Carkin at the residence of her father, Dr. Fawcett, on Friday, April 3. Mrs. Carkin is spending the winter here with her father, and will shortly leave for her home at Prince George where her husband is in the dry goods business.

Mr. Hyde, father-in-law of Mr. Campbell, our respected agent at the Junction, lies in a very precarious condition. He suffered a stroke of apoplexy and little hopes are entertained for his recovery.

W. F. R. Smith and E. R. Colgan of Oregon City and Portland, have bought the Cleland blacksmith shop at Third avenue and Foster road and will continue to operate it. Both men are experienced blacksmiths.

Mr. Geo. Burns, while riding down Buckley Ave. last evening on his motorcycle at the rate of 55 miles per hour, fell from the machine. Mr. Frank Burns from Montavilla, who was on behind was seriously injured. Geo. Burns was not hurt much. The cause of the accident was that in going so fast the tire expanded from the heat and blew out the air plug.

R. SMITH has taken the Shoe Repairing Dpt., of Nygaards store. In future let a Shoemaker do your repairing.
