GILBERT
 The Bazar given by the Ladies Aid of Bennett Chapel in Calkins hall on Friday, April 17, was a fine success.
 A company of friends from Lents M. E. church visited Bennett chapel last Sunday and gave a cantata entitled Resurrection Hope, in place of the usual 3 p. m. service. It was well rendered. If this was one of the more "blessed to give than receive" the friends must have gone home from here bubbling over with good will. Our sincere thanks and appreciation. Come again.
 Every person, all nature and the birds in general seem to be doing a double hustle. Is it any wonder we welcome the spring?
 The Ramapo Musical and Literary Club held its usual meeting at the residence of Mr. C. E. Bateman, the evening of the 21st. Songs, reading recitations, harmony, and cheer, was the program.
 The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rhoads of Sycamore and left them a fine baby boy. Say you should see "Pete" smile.

NOTES OF THE W. C. T. U.

The first rose of the season in this community unclosed its petals and opened its heart to the sunshine in the prohibition rose garden of Mrs. L. F. Additon. It was a bridesmaid. The next meeting of Mt. Scott Union will be at the home of Mrs. Scheuerman, 3rd Ave., South, near the car line. Mrs. Ward Swope, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Mary Mallet, County Superintendent, will take part in the program. Mrs. Additon will conduct the bible study, "The Sociology of Christ."
 Everybody's Magazine has made an appropriation of $2500 to be distributed among competing writers on the topic, "What do you know about the Rum question," and "What do you think is the best way to settle it?" For the best article on these two phases of the topic an award of five hundred dollars will be given, the balance of the sum being divided up into lesser sums for the next best. April 30th is the last date for mailing your story. This offer indicates how thoroughly prohibition has become a topic of nation wide interest. If you desire the present condition of drunkenness to continue and can give better reasons for its continuance than any person gives for its discontinuance the money will be yours. That a magazine has the courage to boldly launch into a prohibition discussion indicates the general awakening of interest, in the temperance question.

The Medical record has taken up the race question in defense of the southern negro which it seeks to defend from the frightful menace of the cocaine habit. The remedy for the menace, according to this publication, is drunkenness in as much as they find cocaine among the negroes in states which prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor. It is fortunate for the common people that all medical persons are not slaves to the drink fetish. It must be interesting, in the southern states, to find medical men, in their zeal for John Barley come flying to the succor of the negro.
 It will be pleasant to remember that the last act of Mrs. T. M. Gates, after snipping her goods for her new home, was to sit as judge at the declamation contest at the Lents School. She has been a faithful worker in the S. T. S. department of Mt. Scott Union, and dearly loves to work with and for children; By a happy chance this opportunity was afforded by keeping her in the harness up to the very last moment of her stay in Lents. May good fortune go with Mr. and Mrs. Gates to their new home.

Mrs. Esther Fankhauser, superintendent of Evangelistic work returned from California where she spent the winter with her mother in time to attend the "get together" rally at the Evangelical church last week.

On Thursday of last week the third and last contest for the year was held in the assembly room of the Lents school. On this occasion the silver medal was won by Leroy Cunningham. He recited "What it Costs," a prose recitation of facts regarding the liquor traffic. There were six contestants, all boys of the eight and ninth grades.
 The first silver medal was awarded to Winnifred Smith, on December 19th, the second to Ellen Anderson Jan. 30th. Principal Hershner and his assistant teachers have faithfully worked for the success of these contests.
 The prohibition rally meeting at the Evangelical church this week has been very helpful.

Packages of vegetable seeds sent under the frank of Congressman Lafferty to citizens who live in apartment houses and hotels indicate that that wise and indefatigable statesman is making desperate efforts to gain and hold the buchoe vpte. Heretofore, our brilliant and busy Congressman! has shown a studied indifference toward the unfortunates who have to spend their miserable lives cooped in the rooms of our hotels and apartment houses. But it appears that he has had a decided change of heart; and pitying their unhappy state has ordered sent to them at government expense the vegetable seeds whose germination and fruition will give brightness and cheer to their dingy abodes. Congressman! Lafferty shows as fine a sense of the fitness of things by distributing free vegetable seeds among the pastoral residents of our hotels as we do in sending him to Congress.—Spectator.

 Mr. John Brown, of 10th Ave. has returned from Raymond Wash. where he has been the past few weeks.
 Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gibbons of 10th Ave. were over Sunday visitors with parents at Alberta.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Steine, drove through to Kalama Wash., last Sunday, to visit her parents. They were compelled to leave their auto at St. Helens on their return, on account of bad roads.

Prosperous County Grange.
 Jefferson county—a small grange state in itself—reports a total membership of 7,856 in the thirty-three granges of the county. This is a fine showing. This membership entitled the county to twenty-one delegates at the session of the state grange at Poughkeepsie. Pamela grange leads all in membership with 513 on its rolls. At the annual meeting the work of State Master Vary, who hails from Watertown, was highly commended, and his election as overseer of the national grange was looked upon with pleasure. The grange commended the work of the county farm bureau, of which F. E. Robertson is the capable manager, and recommended the appointment of a committee to co-operate with the county agents in arranging for a corn show for next year. C. M. Pierce, W. P. Jones and R. H. Ganter were appointed a committee to "devise a plan of providing more uniformity in fixing the rate of taxation for school purposes and to report to the next quarterly meeting of the grange."

Arleta schools put in a busy day Wednesday. In the morning the entire school attended a free concert by the Symphony Orchestra, at the Heilig. In the afternoon they listened to lectures on chicken growing. It was "Chicken Day." The school has recently hatched an incubator of eggs, and chicken pie will be the bill of fare in June.

Tremont is looking for an itinerant barber. From all indications W. E. Gubser, the present tonsorial artist lather slinger, human phonograph, etc., has decided to take unto himself a wife. He is old enough, and the neighborhood is deeply interested in his probable matrimonial attainments. Even the small boys, backed up by some of the wiser heads, are lining up to give him worthy reception. One of the local business men has donated the use of a vacant store-room and it is being stored with rice, old shoes, tin cans, cannon crackers, cow bells, dish rags and a few other festival accessories. The idea is to give Mr. Barber the time of his life on his wedding day. It's coming to him. He has bought his house and lot and the contract is let for the wedding evening music.

A Little Girl's Prayer

 Asked to pray for warm weather so that her grandma's rheumatism might pass away, a little girl knelt and said: "Oh, Lord, please make it hot for grandma."
