Miss Ethel Paul, was ill the latter part of last week, but had recovered so as to resume her duties at the Herald office on Monday.

F. R. Peterson and E. L. Rayburn did some good good work Tuesday when they persuaded the County Commissioners to oil up Foster Road and Main St.

Miss Ruth Reynolds got her picture in the Oregonian Sunday for being the crack cake baker of the 11 year old class of the Lents schools, in the recent contest.

Wm Anderson returned Thursday morning from Eugene. He has been attending the State meeting of the M. W. A. He reports Eugene as doing fine and says "the boys" had a splendid time.

Mrs. R. W. Smith, of Hollywood served a dainty luncheon Monday in honor of Mrs. Sears, who leaves in a few days for her home in N. Y. Covers were laid for six, and the afternoon was spent in conversation and music.

Mrs. Lininger of North Main, visited Saturday and Sunday with her daughter Mrs. Warren of Camas. Mrs. Warren lost her husband a few days ago having been burned badly by electricity, which caused his death. Mrs. Warren is a sister of Mrs. Eaton of this place.

Joe. Mauck was a visitor in Lents Sunday May 3rd. Joe was very much disappointed in not being able to give away a few bobs to the boys. He was very much pleased with the way the Lents Giants put the "pill" over the fence.

Died, at her residence 6423, Foster Rd. April 30th, 1914, Anna Mana, wife of H. J. Darling, aged 55 yrs. 11 mo. 27 days. The Alford Undertaking Co. had charge of the funeral arrangement which was held at the Christian Church, Kern Park, Saturday afternoon. Interment in Multnomah Cemetery.

So great has been the demand for seed corn in Oregon this spring that the available supply has been exhausted and the O. W. R. & N. Co. has been obliged to pick up odd lots wherever they could find them in order to supply the great number of farmers applying for seed. Farmer Smith states that other sections of the Northwest are afflicted with the corn growing fever and that indications point to a record-breaking crop this year.

The members and friends of the Lents M. E. Church, celebrated the seventh anniversary of the church and the Fifth anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. W. Boyd Moore last Thursday evening. The speakers were: J. C. McGrew, S. R. Toon, W. O. Miller, W. J. Faith, J. R. Wilkinson, Nellie Woodworth, Emma McGrew and Mrs. C. A. Daniels followed by an address by the pastor. Rev. J. Stanford Moore read scripture lesson and R. A. Brown led in prayer. The music was rendered by the choir and the male chorus. A large attendance filled the house to its doors greeted the pastor and charter members of the church. Refreshments were served at the close of the program. The church has had prosperity and a decided growth from the first. The Sabbath School, Epworth League and

Card Of Thanks

I wish to thank the many good people of Lents who assisted during the brief illness of my wife, and the members of the Rebekah and Oddfellow and other Lodges of town that so kindly took part in the funeral exercises. We also wish to thank those who assisted with the music, and who contributed so freely with floral decorations. Such evident assurance of sympathy, and so many tokens of regard for those departed, endear the people of Lents and Arleta to us so deeply that their kindness can never be forgotten. Wm. E. Goggins.
