THERE are still some persons who would pledge you to "vote her straight." There are others who believe there is a higher duty than the duty to party. That duty is the duty to state. If that be true an unworthy nominee should stand between no man's conscience and his duty to the state. The failure of a party to name the best available candidate absolves its constituency from any obligation that will interfere with the greatest public good.

The growing popularity of T. M. Hurlburt as nominee for sheriff has been a wonder. At first it seemed doubtful if he could get the support. Now it will be a wonder if he should fail.

Lents was the first point in East Portland to propose a civic center, night schools, and other advanced educational ideas. In spite of this there seems to be a tendency to oppose this locality to the advantage of other sections. If Lents patrons of the public schools want what is coming to them they must go after it more vigorously.

NOTES OF THE W. C. T. U.

"Americans are dying while you are talking" announced Senator Reed of Missouri, as in the midst of the Senate discussion of the President's course in Mexico a telegram was received telling of the bloodshed in Vera Cruz. Then the honorable Senators stopped talking and proceeded to question the President's action with their votes. So it is with the flow of talk of the German-American alliance opposed to national prohibition. "Personal Liberty," they cry, they implore, they demand, mouth-ing out a constant flow of "personal liberty" utterances. Jack London tells us the children of the nation are being swept to destruction by the great current of this flow of "Personal Liberty." While the people are talking the children are sinking. "Save my boy and your boy from such experiences as have been mine," says London, sending up his voice from the depths of his alcohol chained misery. "American freedom demands that the "personal liberty" that destroys manhood and makes staggering drunkards of four-year-old boys should be taught that there is just as much liberty of personal choice in making conditions such that all men can live sober, industrious lives as there is in keeping conditions such that all youths are compelled to drink in order to maintain their "personal liberty." This has been called the age of the child. Let us protect the child from that which destroys. Vote Oregon dry and the nation dry.

Our honored co-laborer, Mrs. L. F. Additon, has been called upon to lay away the mortal form of him to whom, in the nature of things, she look'd forward to sustain her in the flickering light of advanced age, should she be permitted to live to an old age. Bravely she journeyed to California to touch the loved form of her only child for the last time. Bravely she has returned to the common tasks of the routine of life. Her boy has "passed the firmament of memory," but her work is here, and greatly do we need her counsel and the clear thinking her comprehensive mind accustoms us to expect. The sympathy and love of the community she has always.

On Tuesday of this week a profitable meeting was held at the Friend's church. Mrs. Dalgler, and Mrs. Lizzie Roper came out from the city to present the work among sailors and soldiers.

The next meeting of the Union will be at the home of Mrs. Elva Scheuerman, on Tuesday, May 26.

There the Farmhand Balked.

Sam had worked on the farm for nine years, and until his master took to poultry farming he was quite satisfied with life.

But this poultry business was a bit too much. He had to take the eggs as they were laid and write the date on them with an indelible pencil. And worse than that, he had also to write on the eggs the breed of the hen that laid them.

So one day he marched up to the farmer.

"I'm about fed up," said he, "and I'm going to leave!"

The farmer was astounded.

"Surely, Sam," said he, "you're not going to leave me after all these years?"

"Yes, but I am," retorted Sam. "I've done every kind of rotten job on this here farm, but I'd rather starve than go on being secretary to your old hens!"—London Answers.

PETITION

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah.
In the Matter of the Adoption of Margaret Delorus Van Stone.
Come now William B. Jolly and Harriet E. Jolly, husband and wife, of Multnomah County, Oregon, and show to the Court that said Margaret Delorus Van Stone is a minor child of the age of eleven years, residing in said County; that she is now, and for seven years last past been in the care and custody of the petitioner William B. Jolly; that she was committed to the custody of the said William B. Jolly by this Court sitting as a Juvenile Court on the 2nd day of February, 1907; that both of the parents of said child have wilfully deserted and neglected to provide care or maintenance for the child for more than nine years past and immediately preceding the filing of this petition; that when last heard from, the father of said child, J. L. Van Stone, was residing at Wingham, Ontario, in the Dominion of Canada, and Margaret Van Stone, the mother, was residing at Boise, in the State of Idaho; that neither of said parents can be found within the State of Oregon.
That Petitioners are of sufficient ability to bring up the child and furnish suitable nurture and education for her.
Wherefore, Petitioners pray for leave to adopt the said child, and that her name be changed to Margaret Delorus Jolly.
Witness my hand and seal this 11th day of May, A. D. 1914.
A. L. Veazie Notary Public for Oregon.
