SUNBONNET GIRLS TO INVADE LENTS

The local ladies of the G. A. R. are preparing for a new charity. They have secured the services of a very efficient troupe known as the "Sunbonnet Girls," who are touring the coast and who have been persuaded to dispense charity at Lents, Saturday the 6th of June. The "girls" are entirely harmless as a look at their advance advertisements will show, but like all attractive young women have to be chaperoned with great care. Several of the Circle mothers have assumed the responsibility of looking after their safety and social entertainment. This will be a rare chance for the miscellaneous assortment of bachelors who decorate the social affairs of Lents, and if some of them do not "meet their fate" it will be due to their own negligence, as the "girls" are willing. Everyone is going to see them.

VIOLA KLINE, VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Viola Kline, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kline of Eight avenue, Lents, died at their home May 27, 1914. The cause of her death was Bronchial-Pneumonia. She was their only daughter, her twin sister dying when quite small. Viola, or "Sister" as she was usually called, told her father when she first took sick, that she was going to live just three months, then she was going to Heaven to be with her little sister. If she had lived six hours longer it would have been just three months to the day.

She was a very dear little girl and will be greatly missed by her parents and little brother, to which we all extend our heartfelt sympathy.

But "Sister" is gone. No more that voice will greet our coming feet. She's gone to dwell in a happier home Where Saints in Heaven meet. Then let's weep no more, for her Troubles here on earth are o'er, For she has gained the Heavenly Shore To be with God forever more.

R. W. GILL BECOMES MARKET MASTER

The selection of R. W. Gill for Market master of the new Yamhill Market should meet with general approval. Mr. Gill is a farmer. He stands well with farmers and city acquaintances and will be found a conservative man for the job. His many friends throughout the county will appreciate this recognition of his worth.

H. S. Fargo an Orator of note has been assigned as chairman by the school committee to address the teachers and pupils of the public schools of Lents on Friday of this week. Parents and friends invited.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT FRIENDS CHURCH

On Sunday, May 31st the Sunday School of the Lents Friends Church will celebrate Children's Day. This should really fall upon the second Sunday in June, but owing to the Oregon Yearly Meeting of Friends being in session from the 10 to the 16th of June it has been found necessary to hold Children's Day two weeks earlier. Sunday School will convene as usual at 9:45 A. M. and the program, consisting of songs, recitations, exercises and special pieces by the children, will commence at 10 A. M. There will be no preaching service, as the Children's exercises will take up that hour as well as the Sunday school period.

Friends Church on Main street, half block south of the Street car line, at 10:00 A. M. Sunday May 31.

SONS OF VETERANS CHANGE DATE

The local camp of the Sons of Veterans have changed the date of their meeting to the evenings of the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

The camp will join in the decoration exercises on Saturday, the 30th. All those participating will meet at Oddfellows Hall at nine o'clock and all those who wish to join in the march will be supplied with rifles.

Senior Vice Division Commander, W. W. McDowell has issued the following stirring call and all are urged to give it attention:

"Every son and grandson of a Veteran should be loyal to their parent on this sacred day and there is no better way to show it than to march with them on Decoration Day, for none of us know how soon our fathers will be called to join the Great Army who have joined their comrades on the other side of Jordan for their last roll call. We owe this and more to those brave boys who left home, mother, sweetheart and liberty to fight for our country and make it possible for the grand old flag to still float over the 'Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave.'"

SILVER WEDDING IS CELEBRATED

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boatwright, together with about thirty-five friends celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding, at their home on Gilbert road, Monday evening, May 17th. The house was decorated with beautiful flowers, roses everywhere. The bride was gowned in white and wore a veil. Her bouquet was white and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. C. A. Daniels played "The Wedding March," by Mendelssohn, and the bridal couple marched through several rooms and finally took their places under an arch of flowers, where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Myra Smith of the Friend's Church. Little Virginia Daniels was flower girl and preceded the couple by dropping rose petals in their path. She also carried the ring in the heart of a magnificent white rose. After the ceremony was performed a congratulatory hour was spent and then refreshments were served. The host and hostess were presented with many beautiful and useful silver pieces. A most delightful evening was spent and many were the kind wishes extended to Mr. and Mrs. Boatwright for a long and happy life.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE FOR SCHOOLS

Mr. Himes, assistant Secretary of the Oregon Historical Society, will lecture on Oregon history at the Lents School Thursday evening. Mr. Himes has been a resident of Oregon since childhood and is familiar with every detail of Oregon History. He is a most interesting speaker. The lecture will be illustrated by over one hundred slides. The price of admission is 5 and 10 cents, and the proceeds are to be used for Garden Contest premiums and Camp fire Gleanings. Every body come and help pack the auditorium.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Y. P. A. was held at the home of Miss Sara Deaton, Friday evening. The young folks gathered with enthusiasm and filled the home to overflowing. After a short business session the meeting was thrown open to a genuine good time. There were about fifty people present and everyone enjoyed them very most heartily.

GRAYS CROSSING FAMILY IN DISTRESS

The past winter and spring have been especially severe on many poor people living in the Mt. Scott section, due to the scarcity of work. This is particularly true where families were large or where sickness invaded the homes. One of the most serious of these cases has come to notice near Grays Crossing. A family composed of nine children; father and mother, have been dependent on the work of a sixteen year old boy for several months, the boy working for a dollar a day. The boy has given his entire wages to the family and is now sadly in want of clothing. The father has been sick. The entire family is deeply in need and assistance will be welcome. They are not making a direct public appeal, but friends are looking after their interests. Clothing or food will be welcome. A call to Table 52 will bring necessary information.

PUBLIC LIBRARY MAKES APPEAL

This Library has one of the largest collections of Oregon material in the Northwest. It includes most of the important explorations, histories, files of Oregon documents and laws, all the Portland directories except 1863, many U. S. Documents bearing on the state, and many Oregon imprints. The Library is anxious to fill out its collections and asks the co-operation of residents of the city and state who may have stored old books or files of old papers and magazines in their attics. Most of the material wanted has little or no money value and is only important for such a collection as this. Following is a list of works most desired: 1. Transactions of organizations such as churches, fraternal orders 2. Old state and city documents 3. Old Oregon periodicals and papers 4. Books and pamphlets printed in Oregon, especially anti-slavery copies 5. 1863 Portland directory 6. Reports of corporations, etc. 7. Diaries and journals of pioneers.

DECORATION DAY WARMS PATRIOTS

Saturday, May 30, Annual Event: Old Soldiers to Hold Occasion Sacred.

The members of the local G. A. R. and Circle, Sons of Veterans, and their friends will join Saturday forenoon in the annual decorative ceremonies. Members of these organizations will meet at the Oddfellows Hall, Lents, at 9 a. m., and forming column will march to Johnson Creek where some ceremonies will be held. After this they will return to the hall and have exercises.

The members of the local post are very loyal to their members and more than the usual feeling of fraternity prevails. The Herald has found this interest so great that it was deemed of interest to secure sketches of as many of the members as possible. Some of them are published this week. Others will follow in the next issue. These sketches are brief, and merely tell of war time experiences of "the boys," but they disclose many points of historical connection that should prove of interest to every reader of the Herald.

John Huntington enlisted December 9, 1861. He left the State, March 20, 1862. He was at St. Louis till April 1. Was in the battle of Shiloh April 6 and 7; siege of Corinth; battle of Inka, September 19; Corinth, October 4 and 5; expedition to Holy Springs. Returned to Memphis, left there March 20, 1863 for Vicksburg. Was in the siege of Vicksburg and the battles leading up to it. He did patrol duty in Vicksburg for several months. Was in the Meridian expedition to the interior of Mississippi, also the Moore expedition into Louisiana. Re-enlisted and came home in March 1864. Returned to Cairo, Ill., in the last of April. Shipped to Clifton, Tenn. Marched from Clifton via Huntsville, Ala., and Rome, Georgia, to Altoona. Was in the battles of Big Shanty, Kennesaw Mt., Nico Jack Creek, Decatur, Leggett Hill, and the battle of Atlanta. Taken prisoner that day. Was in Andersonville. Exchanged September 25 1864. Was on the march to the sea. Saw Savannah, Beaufort, Pocotalage, Fayetteville, Columbia, Cheran, Goldsboro, and Raleigh, N. C. Marched to Richmond and Washington. Shipped to Louisville, Ky. Discharged July 19, 1865. Arrived at Osage, Iowa, where he enlisted, August 1, 1865, having served three years and eight months.

The roster of his regiment shows an interesting record. There was a total enrollment of 1441; the killed numbered 101; wounded numbered 311; died of disease, 220; discharged for wounds and other causes, 224; captured, 271; transferred, 29; buried in national cemeteries, 141.

Lawrence Rosel was born in Lancaster, England, September 9, 1844. He came to the United States in 1856. Enlisted on the 28th day of April, 1861, and went in to camp at Freeport, Ill., May 11, 1861, and was assigned Co. F, 15 Illinois Volunteer Infantry and mustered in to United States for three years, May 24, 1861. In June he went to St. Charles, Mo., and to Mexico, Mo. In August to St. Louis, Mo., then to Springfield to reinforce Lyons at Wilson Creek. In September he was at Tipton, Mo., with Muligan at Lexington, Mo., then to Fort Donaldson, Tenn., February 16th, and from there to Pittsburg Landing, and on the 5th and 6th of April in the battle of Shilo, where he received two wounds in the right corner of the left eye, and was supposed to have been killed as he lay unconscious for sometime at the battle of Inka, Tenn. On the 20th of December, 1862, he was taken prisoner. Paroled March 11, 1863, and re-entered service. He was engaged in the Vicksburg campaign and went with Banks to Red River in '64. In the taking of Fort DeRusseau on Red river in a hand to hand skirmish at Rodney Church he lost a finger. He was in at least twenty-five skirmishes and small battles. Was discharged March 22, 1865 at Vicksburg, Miss. Went to New Orleans and as second mate in gulf steamer took part in the taking of Fort Moulton and Spanish Fort. He was the first union man to step ashore at the surrender of Mobile, Alabama, in April 1865. Was wounded six times, one that was thought to be fatal.

Rudolf S. Hummel was born on the 25th day of December, 1837, in Switzerland. He came to America in the spring of 1851, settling at Black River Falls, Wisconsin in 1856. In 1861, September, the 6th, he enlisted as a private in Co. G, 10th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry for three years. He was wounded at the battle of Perryville, Kentucky, October 8, 1862 and was discharged February 19, 1864 for total disability. In 1864, September 2, he enlisted in Co. G., 5th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry for one year, and served till Lee surrendered, then got another discharge as sergeant of that Company for disability the 23 of May, 1865 at Richmond, Va.

He was a charter member of John A. Eaton Post, No. 213, Department of Wis., G. A. R. and in 1905 came to Portland. In 1906 or 7, joined George Wright Post No. 1, and later Reuben Wilson Post, No. 38, Dept. of Ore. He is also a member of Shiloh Circle No. 17 L. G. A. R.

Comrade Hummel lives at Lents. He is one of the happiest of the "old boys" and is always welcomed by the members of the Post.

Joseph Brown enlisted February 6, 1864 in Co. I, of Michigan. Joined the army of Tennessee about May, 1864, and was in the battles of Resaca, Buzzard's Roost, Kennesaw, Niccojack Creek, Atlanta and also in the one at Lovejoy Station. After the capture of Atlanta, followed Hood north and was in the battle of Nashville and Franklin. Was discharged at Nashville and returned home in September 1865.

James P. Anderson enlisted in Co. E, 4th Kentucky Infantry (mounted) as a recruit in March 1864. He went immediately to the front. Was in the Atlanta Campaign with the cavalry under General McCook. After the battle in front of Atlanta on the 22d of July when General Mepperson was killed, he went on the Stoneman raid. Was taken prisoner at Newman, Georgia, and went to Andersonville, was a prisoner seven months. Was paroled the last day of February, 1865, and rejoined the regiment at Macon City, Georgia. He was discharged in August, 1865. He saw lots of service before the enlistment as a home guard. Was in his first fight at Mt. Sterling, Ky., 1862, where he was born and raised. Joined the chase of John Morgan when he was raiding in Kentucky.

Since the war he lived in Indiana six years, Nebraska, seventeen years, Oklahoma, twenty-two years and at Lents four years. He is a member of Reuben Wilson Post and takes an active interest in its work.

W. J. Darnell was born in Illinois in 1838. He enlisted in Co. K, 106 Illinois Volunteer Infantry, August 14, 1862, and went South the last of September, first to Columbus, Kentucky, then to Jackson and Boliver, Tennessee. He was in the same brigade as the sixty-first, Illinois and Twelfth Michigan. The first duty was guard duty on the Ohio and Memphis railroad, till Forest's raid, and he helped to chase him going to Humboldt, Trenton, Disenburg and back to Boliver. In May 1863, he went to Vicksburg, Miss. June 6th they moved up the Yazoo to Satarsha, and met Johnson in a two days' fight, falling back to Haines Bluff, thence out to Black River, and back to Vicksburg. On July 30 they went to Helena, Ark., then to Little Rock. In the spring of '64 his regiment went to Benton, Salina, Camden, and back to Little Rock, thence down White River to Clarendon. June 23 they started on quarter rations for a two day's trip but were required to extend it to seven days, with hard marching in mud and water, and heat, resulting in permanent disability, and returning to Little Rock. From there they went to Pine Bluff, Ark., where he was mustered out, July 12, 1865.

Since the war he has lived on a farm, most of the time in Eastern Kansas, coming to Lents a year ago.

C. C. Wiley was born at Monroe, Mass. Oct. 8, 1840. He enlisted, May 1861, and was promoted corporal Oct. 1862. He was with his regiment continuously, except two days on sick leave until wounded in the thigh at Spottsylvania, May 10, 1864. He saw all the battles in the Peninsular Campaign, being in McClellan's division of the Army, and was at Antietam and Gettysburg; Wilderness, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, and Fredricksburg.

He was in the hospital at Wash. D. C. (Continued on Page Four)
