The Lents Hardware has one of the most interesting window displays ever seen in Portland. Army relics are always attractive and so unusual a show in Lents develop double interest.

"Chester's" shop continues to expand. Now it has out grown its shell and a consequence the whole west side had to be moved out affording about four feet more space.

The ladies of the G. A. R., Sons of Veterans and their Auxiliary wish to thank the Pastor of the Baptist Church for the kind words spoken to them, and the musical selections rendered at memorial services last Sunday. By order of Mrs. Lilah Maffat and Mrs. Lorena Gossett, Pres.

The young people of all the Lents churches were urged to get together in the Oregon Dry Campaign. The rally at the Evangelical church was well attended. "The Out to Win movement" got a real boost. Rev. Poling, who was the youngest candidate for Governor of Ohio, gave the address of the evening.

Mt. Scott People were duped about two years ago by an advertising faker named McIver—he of the house with advertisements all over it. The report is now that McIver has passed to his reward—shoveling sulphur at a particularly hot spot in the realm of his Satanic majesty. Mt. Scott victims congratulate him on the successful termination of a career begun so successfully in our midst.

The Pupils of the Batjan School, under the auspices of the Parent Teachers Circle, will present the Operetta of Golden Hair and the Three Bears on June the 5th at 8 o'clock. The Operetta will be staged on the porch of E. W. Clark's residence 1 1/2 miles South of Lents. There will be seats on the lawn for all who come. The three Bears, Woodland Fairies with Bard and Forest Queen will delight not only the children but adults as well.

Several changes have been developed at the wireless station at Lents the past week. Due to a change in the station at Frisco, whereby the station there is exclusively used for Honolulu during practically the entire day except from 5 to 8 a. m., the work at the Lents station is much reduced. Stone and Hines will stay in the Portland branch of the business, Black will go to Los Angeles, and Barstow will remain in charge here. The Frisco station will erect other towers and then the regular service with Lents will be resumed.

Carlisle Cox was badly hurt Wednesday evening by being struck in the face by a rock thrown by a mischievous boy. It required several stitches to close the wound. The Playground authorities say that such instances as this will rule the offender off the ground hereafter.

Rev. Peter Conklin and family left today for their new home in Tacoma, where he will be engaged as minister. This closes a three years pastorate in Lents and the family has found many friends who will regret their leaving. Rev. T. R. Hornschuch of Tacoma changes pulpits with Rev. Conklin. He will be ready for duty here next Sunday.

Francis Marion Lightfoot 82 years 4 months one day old, passed away May 26th. at the home of his son on Anderson St. He was a native of Indiana, coming to Oregon last July. He had been in poor health for some time, due to arterial trouble. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon at Kenworthy's and the interment was at Mt. Scott Park Cemetery. Rev. Burres of the first Christian Church of Portland delivered the funeral address. He leaves five children two sons and three daughters to mourn his loss.

A Piano Opportunity

We find ourselves in a position where we are forced to raise a large sum of money in a short time. In order to accomplish this we have greatly reduced the price of every piano and player-piano in our store.

You can get a dandy little Weber for $150, another for $125 and another for $65. If you are interested in a piano that anyone can play you can find them here at prices from $335 and up.

Terms to suit your convenience.

J. L. Robinson and wife visited their son at Friend, Oregon, last week.

Rumors are still prevalent that the Milwaukee railroad is investing in ground east of Lents.

Walter Lund is filling up a Reo machine for a camping tour through Oregon and California.

"Doc", McKinley has traded a house and lot at Kern Park for twenty acres on the United Railway near Burlington.

Surveyors have been looking over the proposed new road from the Junction to Powell Valley, running thru Mentone.

John Huntington has been invited by the principal of the Shaver School, Albina, to address the school on good citizenship, on Friday May 29th.

Irish Brothers have fine prospects of obtaining the contract on the new Odd-fellow's building to be erected at Friend, Oregon.

Manville and Kingsly McKinley left last week for their 320 acre homestead, 35 miles south of Burns. They will start on a raw claim, put up a shack and proceed to clear a sage brush ranch for farming. Ralph Howe went with them.

E. L. Rayburn and W. L. Barney went to Dufur last week and while there bought 150 acres of timberland.

E. L. says he will sell the timber for cord-wood.

The union meeting of the young people's societies of the Lents churches, Sunday evening was considered a decided success. The church was full and overflowing and it is sure that this meeting will mean a great deal to Oregon as regards the Liquor question. It cannot help bringing about favorable results. We certainly feel proud to think we were able to secure such a noted as well as able speaker, and feel still more proud to think he is related to people formerly of Lents.

A Pet Stock Show

A pet stock show, two entertainments, moving pictures, and a children's market will be the closing features of the Arleta School. The stock show will be held June 19th and 20th during the afternoons and the entertainments on the evenings of the same dates.

Tea will be served at the lunch room and home made candy will be offered for sale on the grounds.

The entertainments will be given chiefly by the children. The evening gymnasium classes will contribute several numbers.

Ribbon prizes will be offered for the best dog muzzled, cat, chicken, rabbit, guinea pig, pony, pigeon, dressed doll and the like.

All fresh vegetables in season will be offered in the children's market on the afternoon of June 20th.

Within the past few days the logs which will be used as pillars around the Oregon Building at San Francisco next year have been shipped. Of the total number of 48 logs to be sent, seven carloads were shipped from Protland, three carloads from Central Oregon and one car from Southern Oregon, while 12 logs will be sent by steamer from Coos Bay. The logs have been collected from various sections of the state and were donated by lumber manufacturers. The average weight of the logs is 28,000 lbs., and there is only one derrick in this city which can handle them, that belongs to the O. W. R. & N. Co. on the Albina Dock. The Oregon building at the exposition is to be of Grecian architecture on the plan of the Parthenon at Athens. The 48 log pillars surrounding it will be 5 feet in diameter and 45 feet high. They will be dedicated to the 48 states of the Union and each will bear the emblem of a state.
