Allen-Nordberg.

In the presence of about fifty relatives and a few friends, Miss Mildred Allen, daughter of Ira Allen of Main and Gilbert Streets, and Mr. Karl Nordberg of Lents, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, Rev. Bowersox, of Portland, aged grandfather of the bride, officiating. Miss Carol Hogue acted as bridesmaid. Harold Allen was to have acted as bridesgroom, but owing sudden illness was prevented acting. Miss Marion Bennett, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march and sang a selection. After the ceremony, refreshments were served. Many useful presents were received. The evening was spent socially and at a late hour the bride and groom were conducted to their new home at Clayton Ave. and Grays Road, which was fully furnished and ready for occupancy. They will take an outing in August, in lieu of a honeymoon trip, spending a month at the beach. The many friends of the young people wish them long and prosperous married lives.

A Piano Opportunity

We find ourselves in a position where we are forced to raise a large sum of money in a short time. In order to accomplish this we have greatly reduced the price of every piano and player-piano in our store.

You can get a dandy little Weber for $150, another for $125 and another for $65. If you are interested in a piano that anyone can play you can find them here at prices from $335 and up.

Terms to suit your convenience. Soule Bros., Piano Co., 388 Morrison Street.
