Lents Sta., Portland, Oregon

Mr. Milkes of Minneapolis, brother-in-law of Otto Katzky, has been making Lents a visit the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Botkford of New York, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Allen.

Laura Hammer returned to her home June 18th. She was one out of the 125 graduates of University of Oregon this month.

Mrs. R. W. Smith and daughter Majorie of Holly Street left for Meskill, Washington, Wednesday to spend the Fourth with Mr. Smith.

Dorothy Fox and her mother have gone to Prineville Oregon. They will be missed very much by their circle of friends they have formed.

The regular meeting of Shilo Circle No. 19 will not be held on Saturday evening due to its being the Fourth. The next meeting will be held July 18th.

Lents Summer School opened up Monday with 158 in attendance. Only four summer schools in the city beat this. Lents is getting to be some intellectual centre.

Thaxter Daniels of the Woodmere school left Tuesday for Tacoma and there joins the navy boys at Bremerton and will take the vacation trip to Honolulu with them.

Miss Buelah Dickson, a niece of Prof. W. A. Dickson of the Woodmere school, has been chosen teacher of the Buckley school. We predict a successful term for Miss Buelah as the Dickson's are all successful teachers.

Hon. W. S. U'Ren a candidate for Governor, will deliver an address Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Grand Hall, under the auspices of the Lents Central Campaign Committee.

Quite a delegation of friends attended the yearly meeting held June 11 to 15th; Effie Tamplin, J. A. Dunbar and wife, Phebe Hammer, Hulda Ramsy, Ben Brumwell, Rev., John Riley and wife, Maggie Car, Bertha Barker.

C. E. Kennedy and wife left Tuesday morning for Union Oregon, for a two weeks stay with "home folks." Charlie says he hopes to catch something every day he is gone. They say ticks are pretty numerous over in that country.

Wm. Goggins is preparing to put in a big stock of shoes about the first of August. He has contracted for the store room recently occupied by Rayburn & Sons. It will be remodelled for his use.

Grace A. Davis returned with her mother to her home in Woodmere after a successful year of teaching at Little Falls, Washington. Her sister, Daisy E. Davis, reached home from Chicago week before last. She had there finished a year of study in the Baptist Missionary Training School.

The Sunday School of the Lents Baptist Church held its picnic Tuesday at the Lents Play-ground. There was plenty to eat, and an abundance of ice cream and lemonade, all of which was enjoyed by the children. Games and the Park Victrola added to the pleasure of the occasion.

AUTO FOR HIRE—Day or night. Rates reasonable, special rates to Outing parties. Phone, Local 2921—Tabor 1141. Tom Cowing, 110 Johnson Ave. Lents.

Persons expecting to enter the July 4th races should notify Kenworthy.

Miss Lona Crandall of Eight avenue has returned from a two week's visit in Scott Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Herman and Mrs. Janie Herman of Fourth avenue will pass the Fourth in Molalla.

Miss Jessie Hill, who has been spending the past six weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Bryant, has gone to Crook County to visit her sister.

Prof. Crary and wife and little son of Astoria, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Allen left Tuesday for the East. Prof. Crary will teach the coming year in Johnson City, Tenn.

Among the quiet weddings of last week we note the name of Miss Julie Coiteaux and Rudolph F. Balke, who were married at the Sunnyside Congregational parsonage last Wednesday afternoon. Miss Coiteaux formerly lived in Lents.

Miss Rosine Coisler of Chester, Ill., visited a few days with friends last week. She has come to spend the summer in the delightful climate of Oregon. She expects to return to the position that she has held for the past five years.

The parties that took a child's Teddy cart from Woodmere school, June 22, will please return the same to Mrs. Houghton's store on Rayburn avenue, and save further trouble.

Class Banquet
A notable event of Wednesday evening was a class banquet at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Faith on Clemons street, for the members of the Ruthalian Sunday School class of the M. E. Church, of which both Mr. and Mrs. Faith are the teachers.

Red white and blue was the color scheme in the decorations of the dining room which looked most attractive as the guests, to the number of twenty-five, were seated to an elaborate supper.

The evening was passed in various amusements, in several contest games and a pleasing program by different members which made the occasion one of the most delightful events in the history of the class.
