Card of Thanks

Words are inadequate with which to express the heartfelt thanks to the hosts of friends and neighbors who gave me so much of their love and sympathy in my sad time of bereavement. The acts of kindness, the demonstration of affection and regard for my dear departed one, the beautiful floral tributes, the tender loving ministrations, all touched my heart deeply, the isolation from all kindred seemed less hard to bear, the ties of fraternal and christian fellowship seemed blessed indeed. I thank you one and all.
Lucia Additon.

"You speak as from experience?"

"I do. In early correspondence with my wife I signed myself, 'Your obedient servant.'"
