Lents Parent-Teacher Association will meet in the Lents school assembly hall Friday, Oct. 16. A very interesting program is promised including a talk on mouth sanitation by W. Claude Adams of Portland. Also Mrs. Addison will talk on the important issues relative to the coming election. Excellent music by Miss Bertha Houser. All parents are urged to be present.

Parents and teachers are warned to give their charges careful advice about being on the lookout for vehicles passing through the streets. It is the habit this fall for children, boys particularly, to stop in the street and on the sidewalks to play. This is not only annoying to others who are thus obstructed in their rights on the side walks and in the streets, but it is extremely dangerous for the children. Within the past ten days a boy narrowly missed being run down near the school house. Little short of a miracle saved him. As usual it may be presumed, some serious accident must occur before proper attention is given to this matter.

KELSO

The Prohibition meeting at Kelso last Sunday was well attended and an entire success. No one seemed to mind the rain as free barn room was provided for the horses. A bountiful dinner was enjoyed at the noon hour and the afternoon was taken up with speeches and songs. The chief speaker of the day was Rev. A. J. Ware of Oregon City, chairman of the County Prohibition Committee, who gave a rousing talk.

Mr. Warner, principal of the Sandy High School, talked interestingly on prohibition from the teacher's standpoint.

Mr. Ernest Hutchinson, who lives on a ranch near Pendleton, came to visit his little son who has been in the care of Mrs. Gilbert Jonsrud since the death of the child's mother last spring.

Mrs. Barnum and son Lee, spent Sunday in Portland.

Six new pupils entered school Monday making a total enrollment of fifty-two.

A self-government club has been organized in the schools, all the officers consisting of pupils. There are police officers to keep order on the grounds and in the ranks, monitors to keep the rooms neat and attractive and others to see that the yard is kept clean. New officers will be elected every four weeks. Much interest is taken by the pupils.

Two stranded motorists had to share a bed which was—and on this the landlord laid great stress—a feather bed.

They turned in, and one of the pair was soon fast asleep; the other was not. He could not manage to dodge the lumps and heard hour after hour strike on the church clock, until 3 A. M., when he also struck.

He did this by violently shaking his snoring friend.

"What's the matter?" growled the other. It ain't time to get up yet!

"No, it isn't!" retorted his friend, continuing to shake him, "but its my turn to sleep on the feather."

And now the railroads are going to raise freight rates "on account of the war." If we were anything else than a printer we might come out of this war scare a millionaire.—Harden, Ames, L., Times.
