THERE are some strange fallacies going the rounds these days. One of these is that there is more liquor drunk under a prohibitory law than under a license system. The anxiety to advertise this condition on the part of the liquor interests seems to be the most ridiculous joke ever offered the public. If there is more liquor used under prohibition than under a license system, why do not all the brewery proprietors in the country boost for a prohibitory law? They are the fellows who are going to get the benefit of such a law if their contention is true, then why should they oppose it?

The other is, and even the labor associations are promoting this idea, that a prohibitory law will prejudice the interests of the laboring classes. There are probably two thousand saloon keepers and bartenders in the city or Portland. There are at least one hundred customers to every bartender. The liquor business is essentially the cause of the majority of these people being dependent upon day wages for their living. Due to the system of treating and boozing promoted by the saloons, they are relieved of their wages each week and they are forced to eke out a bare existence, their families are half starved, their home comforts are reduced to a few articles of cheap furniture, some shabby clothing, some innutritious food, cheerless and hopeless. Suppose the condition when these men must spend their money for food instead of drinks, for decent home comforts instead of for treats, and you will easily imagine better homes, growing wealth, bank accounts, and a swelling civic wealth. With growing bank accounts the funds for private or corporate improvement will be available, more wealth will be released for the employment of labor and wages will improve, the commonwealth's prosperity will be evidenced in increased tax receipts or else lower rates of taxation. Everybody will be benefitted, and no one will need to go hungry because the circulating medium of the state will not be directed into channels that impoverish its citizenship.

Mr. D. C. Lewis of St. Johns paid Lents a visit Wednesday, and incidentally called on the editor of the Herald to solicit a little free advertising. We are willing to give it. Mr. Lewis has been one of the most ardent office chasers of the year. He began early, he continues late, and he has been on the job all the time. He has been a good mixer, made more political meetings than any other man in the field, stood in with a more diverse constituency than any other candidate, and if reports are true, attempted to trade support more liberally than any other. As a "log roller" he ought to be a success. Early in the primary campaign he gave the Herald a 50 cent subscription, suggesting thereby that he thought that was our price. He pled lack of funds, yet he has spent about seven months in active campaigning. Just how he, "a poor man," can balance his account with the petty $120.00 coming to a legislator is explainable only on the supposition that there must be a mighty good reason why he is needed in the legislature. Mr. Lewis has been a claim agent for one of the leading railroads of the Northwest. We make no further comments, not knowing the true inwardness of all this self-sacrificing interest in civic events.

"Vote her straight" is again the slogan of a considerable element, particularly of one political organization this fall. The Herald has always been an independent publication and will continue to be so as long as it is under the present management. It maintains, has maintained and will maintain, that the fellow who whoops it up for a "vote 'er straight" is a demagogue, and has something to "put over" on unsuspecting people. The alignment in the present political campaign is highly unsatisfactory. No one party has all the good material, and some of them have considerable bad. It is vastly more important to elect a good man than to elect a good partisan to office. This is particularly true this year in the choice of representatives in this county. The Progressives, the Democrats and the Prohibitionists have some excellent material for the legislature. The Republicans likewise have some good stock, but they also have some very unsatisfactory material. The ticket was the choice of a bunch of old time fixers and was nominated in a private assembly, by persons promoting ends that must eventually be disclosed. They put up a ticket that will meet opposition in the legislature, due to the manner of its selection, and it is bound to result badly for the party.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remediation. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

"WET" LEAGUE IN FIGHT OVER COIN

Only Two "Taxpayers and Wage Earners"

BREWERS PUT UP FUNDS

KNOWING THAT OREGON
DRY MEANS BETTER BUSI-NESS FOR ALL LINES
SAVE ONLY SALOONS.

BY ORTON E. GOODWIN,
Publicity Department, Committee of One Hundred.

The great campaign to make Oregon "wet" has failed.

The exposure by Dr. Cora Talbott, secretary of the "Taxpayers' and Wage Earners' League," that the organization consisted of two persons, Mrs. Duniway and Dr. Talbott, and was financed by the brewers and distillers to make Oregon "wet," threw the fat into the fire.

The brewers and distillers know that all kinds of business save theirs is better in a dry town.

They know this has been proved by figures and facts from Salem, Oregon City, Roseburg, Albany, Newberg, Ashland, Corvallis, Pendleton and many other towns.

Organization Spreads Untruths.
So they organized the "Taxpayers' and Wage Earners' League" to spread misinformation about Oregon dry.

They know bank deposits in dry towns have increased in number and amount. They know bad debts are almost unknown in all dry towns. They know collections are better. They know arrests from drunkenness are almost unknown. They know every dry town in Oregon is prosperous.

So, they became desperate. "Taxpayers' League is 'Joke'." Then they organized the joke "Taxpayers' and Wage Earners' League." Dr. Talbott was secretary. She became disgusted when she learned money was being collected by the brewers and distilleries by the use of her name, and she resigned.

Then Mrs. Duniway advertised lavishly, announcing that the money the "league" was using was provided by the brewers.

The campaign of misinformation carried on by employees of the league, who are also employees of the breweries and distilleries, is now known all over Oregon.

Brewers Spending Your Money.
Every man, woman and child has to spend $20 a year with the saloons.

If you do not drink, some one else has to pay YOUR share.

So, it is YOUR money the Oregon brewers and Eastern distilleries have been using to persuade YOU Oregon wet will do YOU good. It is believed they expect to spend over $200,000 of YOUR money.

They know Oregon dry will put them out of business and help every other kind of business in the state.

Although the breweries and distilleries know Oregon dry is for better business, prosperity and more work, they are fighting it.

No Saloons; Better Business.
We have had bad times with the saloon, haven't we? Why not try no saloon? It can't make things worse and is certain to make things better.

The reason is:
Money spent on the saloon cannot be spent for groceries. Money spent in the saloons—much of it—goes East. Money spent for dry goods and groceries stays in the towns and makes better business.

The members of the Committee of One Hundred are all Oregonians. Most of them are business men. They ask you to vote Oregon dry, because they know, as the brewers also know, that Oregon dry means better business, lower taxes, more work and a return to prosperity.

For the experience of all Oregon dry towns has proved this to be the case.

The Present Dental Law is Bad.

BECAUSE:

It doesn't protect the public health, but does protect the Dental Trust against competition.

It grants such absolute arbitrary power to the State Dental Examining Board, every member of which is a member of the Trust, that this board can grant licenses to practice dentistry in this state to men who have never graduated from a dental college of any kind and have no dental education, thus lowering the standard of dentistry and endangering public health.

By control of the Dental Board, the Dental Trust (Oregon State Dental Society) has a complete monopoly of dentistry in this state and can say how many dentists there shall be in Oregon. This has resulted in Oregon having the lowest standards in dentistry and the highest prices for dentistry.

At the present time one member of the State Board never graduated in dentistry and has no diploma of any kind of a dental college. Certainly such a man cannot keep up the standards of dentistry and guard the public health. At one time four out of five members of the State Board never graduated in dentistry and had no diplomas.

Dentistry Bill 340 Should be Adopted

BECAUSE:

It repeals only the bad features of the present law and retains the good.

It will destroy monopoly, and strike at the root of arbitrary power by depriving the Dental Board of the right to say how many dentists there shall be in Oregon.

It unscrambles this vicious trust by permitting any one who is a graduate of a reputable dental college or who has a license to practice dentistry in any other state to come to Oregon and practice. It particularly specifies that those dentists who graduated under a 2-year course when all dental colleges had a 2-year course, previous to 1892, can come to this state and practice. This permits dentists who have been in practice for 20 to 25 years to come here, as well as fresh graduates out of colleges having the present 3-year course. The Dental Board will still be in existence under this bill, and empowered to revoke licenses of dentists for just cause. The bill is a step forward in dental reform.
