SEVERAL times in the past history of our country during war times between foreign states agents of those countries came into the United States and endeavored to develop prejudices favorable to their several states. Such attempts have always been regarded unfavorably. There is no reason to treat such an intrusion different at this time. Just now Portland is being lectured by an individual who denominates himself Prof. Eugene Kuhnerman, and alleges that he is a German and that he is competent to tell us why we should not sympathize with Belgium or the allies. If this country extends the hand of hospitality to Prof. Kuhemman, is there any reason why we should not also extend the same hand to representatives of the allies. If we listen to all these we will be pretty busy. If we listen to only a portion we will become more or less prejudiced. We are enjoined by the president to remain neutral. It looks like this gentleman's endeavor was to break down our neutrality and annex our affections if not our support. On the whole it looks like the gentleman was an intruder and would be in better business were he on the banks of the Yser or the hills of Poland.

THE newest thing in Edison improvements is the tele-scribe. This is an improvement that Mr. Edison has had in mind since 1878, a year after the phonograph was invented and is a combination of the phonograph and telephone. With this new device an agreement by telephone is recorded and considered at leisure and answered in the same way. It will be especially advantageous in the settlement of difficult or obscure investigations or misunderstandings. It will record all the conversation incident to the making of a contract and reveal to more deliberate consideration the hidden meaning and motive of all concerned in a way never before possible.

It will be an active ally of the dictigraph, recording a distant conversation even in the absence of the one on guard, and thus proving the law's best detective. This apparatus and a pair of automatic handcuffs, which will no doubt be the next improvement, ought to settle the tendency to plot criminal offenses.

"School and Home Gardening for Elementary Schools in Oregon" is the title of a late Bulletin from the extension department of the Agricultural College. It is finely illustrated with cuts of many school gardens and one or two private ones. It contains a lot of information about garden work. How to place fertilizer, prepare the soil and cultivate are all taken up, and planting instructions are given so that any one can secure good results if they follow directions carefully. Then there is an article on "Control of Garden Pests." The bulletin covers a demand for a brief practical work to put in the hands of either young or old and it is especially valuable to the child as covering a deficiency often felt. With such instruction in hand a boy must feel there is something more than guess work to farm work, that brains count in growing vegetables. It can be had for the asking.

This is another week of big shows. The Stock Show has held sway all week and will continue to the end and it has been "some show." An unusual array of fine stock is on exhibit and attendance is fine. But the big stock is not attracting all the attention. Up in the Pittock building the humble rooster is attracting even more attention. A poultry show second to none is on and the attendance is fine. This is the place to go if you are intending to engage in poultry growing.

Then Lents will open another domestic animal show Friday morning and that will be the most interesting of all, from the standpoint of the small boy and the small boy's ma. Better save some time to see it. It was good last year. It ought to be better this year. It is really surprising what a lot of fine stock there is right here at home.

The usual hubbub about doing the Christmas shopping early is being worked again this year. Don't forget that this scheme has a double advantage for the big shop down town. If you shop early you will buy now and then again before the last hour before Santa is due. All in all you stand to buy twice as much as you would if you waited till the last day or so. Then there is no doubt that the service you will get at the stores will be better if you begin to shop before the real rush.

Mr. Allen Eaton of Eugene, candidate for the speakership of the State Legislature complains that not a single Portland paper will publish his statements in reference to the speakership, nor anything else regarding his candidacy. He says that representations regarding Selling's majority are untrue, that no one has a majority pledged yet and that he is going to be in it until the vote is cast. Mr. Eaton is probably right and it is barely possible that Multnomah bluff will not carry the day this time.

A Song of Christmas

By JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY

CHANT me a rime of Christmas,
Sing me a jovial song,
And, though it is filled with
laughter,
Let it be pure and strong.

Sing of the hearts brimmed over
With the story of the day,
Of the echo of childish voices
That will not die away.

Of the blare of the tasseled bugle
And the timeless clatter and beat
Of the drum that throbs to muster
Squadrons of scampering feet.

But, oh, let your voice fall fainter
Till, silent with a minor tone,
You temper your song with the beauty
Of the pity Christ hath shown.

And sing one verse for the voiceless
And yet, ere the song be done,
A verse for the ears that hear not
And a verse for the sightless one.

For, though it be time for singing
A merry Christmas glee,
Let a low, sweet voice of pathos
Run through the melody.

Christmas in Bethlehem,
Christmas in the Holy Land is an interesting experience. Indeed, it is one never to be forgotten, and every Christmas thousands of persons from all over the world make a journey to Palestine in order to witness the various ceremonies held there during the festive season. Every one almost puts up at Jerusalem and on Christmas morning makes his way to Bethlehem, which lies almost due south, about six miles as the crow flies, over a range of hills. No highway the world over presents such a motley crowd as may be seen streaming along this thoroughfare early on Christmas morning.

Get Good Impression of Your Town by Reading Home Newspaper

PATRONIZE YOUR HOME NEWSPAPER!

"Knowledge is power," the bard tells us. No one can hope to become a USEFUL CITIZEN and an INFLUENTIAL MEMBER of a community without first familiarizing himself with the things that are going on about town. To be a BOOSTER one must KNOW THINGS.

ALL GOOD CITIZENS ARE FAMILIAR WITH THE DETAILS OF THE TOWN AND COUNTY GOVERNMENT. THEY ARE AWARE OF CONCERTED EFFORTS BEING MADE BY THE BOARD OF TRADE TO SECURE NEW ENTERPRISES, TO INDUCE FOREIGN CAPITAL TO INVEST IN THE CITY AND TO START SMALL MANUFACTURING PLANTS—THOSE THAT EMPLOY SKILLED LABOR, PAY GOOD WAGES AND BRING USEFUL CITIZENS TO TOWN.

All GOOD CITIZENS must be aware of the erection of new homes. They must know of all real estate transactions—the buyer, the seller and the price. They must be able to show the stranger the value of real estate in his home town. To be a useful citizen one must take part in all efforts to create a GOOD IMPRESSION of the town in the outside world. One must lend a helping hand to movements which will better the town from an industrial, civic, social and educational standpoint.

THERE IS BUT ONE WAY TO GAIN THE NECESSARY INFORMATION TO BECOME A USEFUL CITIZEN. THAT IS BY READING THE NEWSPAPER. IT IS THE DUTY OF EACH NEWSPAPER TO WORK FOR THE BETTERMENT OF THE COMMUNITY AS A WHOLE. THIS DUTY IS LARGELY PERFORMED BY THE DISTRIBUTION OF USEFUL INFORMATION TO THE CITIZENS.

From the home paper one learns of new enterprises, of capital invested, of land sales, of the arrival of new citizens, of the enlargement of this or that corporation, of improvements made by the town council or by the county authorities and of all things tending to make this a BETTER PLACE TO LIVE IN.

CAN YOU AFFORD TO BE WITHOUT THE HOME PAPER, WHICH COSTS BUT A FEW CENTS A WEEK?

The New Year.

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky,
The flying cloud, the frosty light,
The year is dying in the night;
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.
Ring out the old; ring in the new.
Ring, happy bells, across the snow.
The year is going, let him go,
Ring out the false; ring in the true.
Ring out the grief that saps the mind
For those that here we see no more,
Ring out the feud of rich and poor;
Ring in redress to all mankind.

Ring out the want, the care, the sin,
The fatness of the years, the age,
Ring out, ring out, my mournful rimes,
But ring the fuller minstrel in.

Ring out false pride in place and blood,
The civic slander and the spite;
Ring in the love of truth and right;
Ring in the common love of good.

Ring out old shapes of foul disease;
Ring out the narrowing lust of gold;
Ring out the thousand wars of old;
Ring in the thousand years of peace.

Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kinder hand;
Ring out the darkness of the land;
Ring in the Christ that is to be.
—Alfred Tennyson.

and will be known as the Crusade Anniversary.

The national convention just held in Atlanta, Georgia, was most enthusiastic over the "white" states added at the November election by the adoption of the prohibition amendments by Oregon and other states. Anna A. Gordon was elected National President; Mrs. Ella A. Boole of Brooklyn N. Y., vice-president-at-large; Mrs. Frances P. Parks, Evanston, Ill., corresponding secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth P. Hutchinson, Evanston, Ill., Treasurer.

At county headquarters Monday it was decided to move to a store building on Park and Morrison streets. It is believed this will make a fine headquarters room as it is on the ground floor and very accessible. The assignments for the different departments for the year in Multnomah county were made at this meeting as follows: Anti-narcotics, Mrs. Stella Wilson, of Arieta; Christian Citizenship, Mrs. Mary Mallet, Central Union; Circulation Department, Mrs. Annie King, Albina Union; Co-operation with Missionary Societies, Mrs. Ward Swope; Health, Hereditary and Medical Temperance, Mrs. G. Johnson, Rose City Park; Legislation and Law Enforcement, Miss Frances Gotshall; Literature, Miss Sarah Lyman; Medal Contest and S. T.
