And if you want a "spare," let us fit you out with a Goodrich Safety Tread.

Quite a number of Lents people have found employment in the city and logging camps this week and the indications are favorable for others.

Cap M. S. Hazen was ushered into the police service Wednesday. Good luck to Cap. Hope he won't have any trouble making good.

J. L. Allen and Thomas Allen, brother and father of Mrs. F. B. Golden of Cottage Grove, have brought property near the Golden home and Thomas Allen will make his home here.

Charlie Eatchel and wife have left their Lents home and will take apartments down town. Keeping up a home was a little too strenuous for Charlie since he became crippled up.

New walks are being laid by the county this week, near the school house at Lents by the county officials. This improvement is due to the efforts of the Parent-Teacher Association.

The Chicken Man at the Panama Furniture Co., has another good bird that is interesting. This one is an American Eagle ground in a Newport agate. The head and wings are very distinct.

The attention of our readers is called to the handsome adv. of that wide-awake Grocery House, of Ben A. Bellamy, in this issue. Judicious advertising has done much towards building up his immense business.

The clean-up movement has struck Mt. Scott in great gobs. About two car loads of tin cans, baling wire, rags, paper, and sundry other unpleasant things have been collected. Going over some of the ground after them it looks as though there would be a chance to collect as much more.

F. R. Foster and wife returned from seeing California on last Friday. He reports a very fine experience. While in the state he visited both San Diego and San Francisco, and saw both fairs. He reports them both very fine and says there are single features at Frisco well worth the expense of the trip.

A. V. Folkman of Eighty-second street and Thirty-sixth avenue was the last victim of harness thieves on last Friday evening. They broke into his locked barn and stole a double set of good harness from his racks, the loss being exceedingly inconvenient just now at the beginning of the busy season.

Working Up a Sable Pelt.
"A fur dealer told me I wouldn't know a sable if I saw one," said a man who had been inquiring about pelts. "I thought, of course, they'd be soft, fluffy little fellows, but he says they have a hide as flat as a rat's." He says that when the skins are taken from the animals they are so hard that they are placed in a tub and a barefooted man steps in them. The tub is tilted so that at each step the man takes the skins slide down the slope and are kept moving. The man treads for hours and hours before any pile appears. When it begins to rise the skins are oiled and the treading begins again. This is continued until the skins are as supple as chamails and the pile has become so high that the fur has that soft depth and beautiful rich gloss for which it is prized."

The Bright Side.
"What is you sorrowful about?" Brother Williams asked. "De harricane ain't blowed yo' roof tree down yet; de land is still here, an' yo' two foots is on it; yo' ain't too deaf ter hear de dinner bell, an' dar's plenty on de table. De only trouble is yo' is too ongrateful ter thank de Lawd for what yo' got an' ax a blessin' over it!" —Atlanta Constitution.

Set No Bounds.
We need not be afraid that we shall go too far in serving others. There is no danger that any of us will ever go far in the walk of active love. There is no likelihood that any of us will become too bountiful, too kind, too helpful to his neighbor.—J. C. Hare.

Let 'Er Shoot!
"Allow me to introduce Mr. McKaual, inventor of the letter chute."
"Glad to know you. But why do you inventors spend all your genius inventing war engines?" —New York Mail.

Described.
"What do they mean by the horns of a dilemma?"
"Two autos. I suppose, honking at you at once." —Kansas City Journal.

Whatever we give to the wretched we lend to fortune.—Seneca.
