CORBETT

On Saturday, March 20th, the new Union high school building will be dedicated. A program has been arranged the speakers being: Mr. Armstrong, county superintendent, Miss Isom, from the Portland library and also a representative of Mr. Churchill, superintendent of Public Instruction. The pupils of the high school will give a play and each one of the grade schools in the high school district will be represented on the program. The music for the occasion will be furnished by Mrs. Tollison and Miss McDaniel, the former giving the vocal selections and the latter, violin numbers. Under the direction of Miss Coulter there will be a Domestic Science exhibit given for the purpose of stimulating interest in this line of work. The school at present does not give this course. Prizes will be given as follows: To the women of the District and girls of high school age, (not in school): The best loaf of bread, one sack of flour; the best layer cake, eight bars assorted soap. To the girls of the high school: The best loaf of bread, two dollars saving deposit at Gresham bank; the best layer cake, granite kettle; the best loaf cake, 75c cash; best display of fancy work and plain sewing, 75c. To the girls of grade school: For best layer cake, bar pin.

J. Ward Evans was in Portland Friday. Mrs. Roy Emily visited at Washougal the first of the week. Mrs. Tollison has been suffering with a felon on her thumb for the past ten days. Miss Helen Coulter spent the week-end in Portland. E. D. Chamberlain shipped potatoes to The Dailies Monday. Mrs. Majestic and children left via Great Northern for Milwaukee, Saturday. Mr. Stebenger spent Sunday in Portland. School opened up in the new school building Monday and there was a pleased lot of children in attendance. We hope that everything good said of what might be expected from a new building will be fully realized, and that the pupils may make great advances in their studies. All hail the new building.

Mr. W. B. True, a respected citizen of Springdale, died in a Portland hospital Wednesday and the funeral was held at Holman's funeral parlors at 2 p. m. Sunday, March 7, interment in Lone Fir cemetery.

Mrs. Wm. Rogers sold the high school an Everett piano, which was moved into the building Friday.

CHERRYVILLE

Spring is surely here. Old-timers say the season is a month ahead of ordinary years.

The Post Office here in now a Government Employment Agency in common with all post offices. The Government is extending its activities and enlarging its operations all for the benefit of the general welfare.

The entertainment given at the school house last Saturday night for the benefit of the Moore Brothers, who lost their home and contents a short time ago, drew a large house, their being standing room only. Besides the admission charged there was a kitchen shower consisting of household articles.

John T. Freil has a gander that has developed a wonderful notion for the company of human bipeds instead of animal bipeds. He wants to be petted and fondled and follows the little Jap around who is clearing land here. He says "the honorable goose makes foolish with him when he is digging the honorable stumps."

The following were read before the Literary Society at Cherryville:

There is a man in our town and he is wondrous wise.

He hardly ever tells the truth and seldom ever lies.

He says the town of Cherryville is getting on the map.

And for any one who doubts him he doesn't care a rap.

Why look at the factory that's going up right now.

That'll make or mend most anything.

a fish hook or a plow. ■ So bring along your peavies, your grubbing hoes or rakes, He'll charge you but a trifling price for anything he makes.

And then in time other factories will rise And send a cloud of smoke clear up to the skies.

Praise Father, Son, and all the Standard Oil Host.

But praise Old John by far the most.

Praise him from whom oil blessings flow;

Praise him oil creatures here below.

Praise him for his kerosene!

Praise him for his gasoline!

And praise him for his vaseline.

Also his sticky, gummy paraffine,

Not forgetting his rotten benzine.

Confound his old bald-headed bean,

What makes him so rotten mean?

I wish he wasn't so dog-goned keen.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview is very much disturbed just now over the question of water bonds.

A lively debate is going on over the probable cost of a water system and the way the town will pay out. It is estimated that it will cost about $4.50 per month per family to put in a water system and meet expenses and retire the bonds. In Portland a dollar a month per family is considered high.

The regular monthly meeting of Fairview Grange was held last Saturday.

March 9th will be the date of the next council meeting. Several important matters will be decided on that date.

A. Kron-nberg has been seriously ill for some time and will try St. Martin's springs for a while.

Most of the people around Fairview are seriously opposed to the proposed $1,000,000 road bond issue which the county will be asked to vote soon, because there is too much money going into the Columbia scenic highway, while local roads are in such a bad condition.

Ernest Wahl will farm the B. P. Reynolds place the coming year.

Jas. McGuire of McGuire's Island in the Columbia, near Fairview, died last Friday of pneumonia, in a Portland hospital. He leaves a wife, a son, and five daughters.

The Parkrose petition for an extension of route one mail service has been refused.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mrs. Leslie Berke visited with relatives at Gillis last Monday.

Lewis Rodlin and G. N. Sager made a business trip to Kelso Monday.

Will Richey and family spent Sunday visiting with his brother, O. M. Richey of near Boring.

Alfred Johnson was out from the city Tuesday looking after his farm at this place.

Mrs. James Hillyard of Gillies visited with her niece, Mrs. Leslie Berke, one day this week.

James DeShields of Tremont station was a Valley visitor one day recently.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kesterson visited last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison at Gresham.

Mrs. Lewis Rodlin spent the day with Mrs. J. P. Stadley Monday.

P. L. Bliss and G. N. Sager represented Pleasant Valley Grange at the Masters and Lecturers Association meeting held with Fairview Grange last Saturday. Mrs. Bliss was also a visitor.

George Christensen has got the basement to his new bungalow completed.

Fred Matthias is putting the finishing touches to his land clearing job.

The Ladies Aid met at the Library last Thursday afternoon.

The fine weather has got the farmers busy plowing and seeding.

Thirty-six lawyers want the new office of public defender created at Portland and other cities are to follow suit.

No Use to Try to Wear Out Your Cold It Will Wear You Out Instead

Thousands keep on suffering Coughs and Colds through neglect and delay. Why make yourself an easy prey to serious ailments and epidemics as the result of a neglected Cold? Coughs and Colds sap your strength and vitality unless checked in the early stages. Dr. King's New Discovery is what you need—the first dose helps. Your head clears up, you breathe freely and you feel so much better. Buy a bottle today and start taking at once.

A Chinese Superstition. It is a superstition of the Chinese that a sneeze on New Year's eve indicates misfortune for the coming year, and to overcome this he is obliged to go to three families of different surnames and beg from each of them a little cake shaped like a tortoise, which must be eaten before midnight.

Labor. Those favored few who by their rank or their riches are exempted from all exertion have no reason to be thankful for the privilege. It was the observation of this necessity that led the ancients to say that the gods sold us everything but gave us nothing.—Charles Colton
