Plug Those Holes

MANY a tire lies on the scrap heap today because some little cut was neglected which later filled up with gravel and moisture and eventually caused a blowout.

The injuries caused by sharp rocks, broken glass, etc., are really serious matters. You ought to examine your tires occasionally and fill up those little holes.

We have just the thing for the job—Plastic. It's a preparation especially for the purpose and it does the work effectually and permanently.

It'll pay you to add a can to your tool kit. It will also pay you to buy your tires and accessories of us.

Mrs. Francis Askey has returned to Lents and is prepared to do practical nursing.

E. P. Smith and family visited friends in Oregon City Sunday.

Even in hard times, the man who advertises is the one who gets the business.

Harold Paul of Seventh avenue has been seriously ill with pneumonia the past week, but is reported improved.

Don't overlook the fact that your local paper is the best medium through which the business man can increase his business.

A. W. Powers of Woodmere is making a remarkable recovery from his illness. He is not able to be about yet but he sits up some and looks fine.

Mr. U. G. Pearson, the "Chalk Talker," who is to be at the M. E. Church Sunday night, comes highly recommended. Don't fail to hear him.

Four Multnomah county granges will send delegates to the Oregon State Grange which will meet at Tillamook in May. The granges are: Evening Star, Gresham, Woodlawn and Fairview.

S. F. Pitts has sold his 20 acres of land a mile west of Sycamore store, to a couple of gentlemen, J. S. Calvert and A. H. Chase from Idaho. They will develop fruit farms out of them. This tract is a part of the original Yott farm.

Mrs. D. M. Simonson is visiting for a couple of weeks with her mother, Mrs. W. H. McDowell. They attended an opera party Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. McDougal.

A real surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Augustine by about twenty-five of their neighbors, who had learned of their intention to move to Columbia County for the summer, came in on them Tuesday night with well filled lunch baskets. A general good time was enjoyed by all, and a pressing invitation was given to come again when they return.

It seems that there is some hitch in the jitney business up on the hill. The installation of the service appears to have been delayed from time to time. It is to be hoped that all hindering causes will be removed, and this much needed system will be established.

W. J. Humphrey of Maplewood, Washington County, visited friends in Lents Wednesday and called on the Herald, incidentally. Mr. Humphrey is a veteran typo of the early days. He worked on the first issues of the Oregonian ever printed and served it for twenty-five years. In his time fifteen hours was no unusual day's work. He still thinks he would like to try his hand at the case and would likely prove a useful man around the office.

The W. F. M. S. of the M. E. Church met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Wallace. The subject for the meeting was, "Child Life in Heathen Lands." Miss Inez Richardson gave an interesting paper on the subject, which was followed by a general discussion. The newly elected officers are: Mrs. W. Boyd Moore, Pres.; Mrs. Inez Richardson, Vice Pres.; Mrs. Frank Wallace, Cor. Sec.; Mrs. Nellie Woodworth, Rec. Sec.; Mrs. Srders, Treas.

The following member of Miss Shinn's class of Lents school sang for the Story Hour Club in Library Hall of Portland library. Those who participated in the song were: Mabel Smith, Edith Hollenbeck, Mary Helen Cowing, Olive Ash, Russell Sells, William Murray, Jesse Smith and Norman Berneir. This class will present the same song at Grange Saturday.

There are still a few officials left who do nothing but labor to raise taxes and burden industry.

HEALTH PROMOTES HAPPINESS

Without health, genuine joy is impossible; without good digestion and regular bowel movement you cannot have health. Why neglect keeping bowels open and risk being sick and ailing? You don't have to. Take one small Dr. King's New Life Pill at night, in the morning you will have a full, free bowel movement and feel much better. Helps your appetite and digestion. Try one tonight.
