The next regular meeting of the Mt. Scott W. C. T. U. will be at the home of Mrs. Donaldson, First and Marie streets. The members are requested to be there at 1:30 o'clock as there is business of importance to be considered before the meeting opens. By order of acting president.

The Isis Theatre, the first really respectable moving picture house in this part of the city has closed its doors, temporarily, but will probably be closed after the first of April as it has been leased to new persons. It is not definitely known what use it will be put to under its new lessees. It will not likely be used for theatre purposes for a while at least.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lents Baptist Church held its annual meeting on the evening of March 16. The officers of last year were reelected, Mrs. M. K. Merritt being chosen president, Mrs. J. M. Nelson, vice president, and Mrs. Ella Moore, secretary-treasurer. The society reports spending for all purposes $113.80. After the business of the evening a musical and literary program was enjoyed by those present. There were about 70 who had come out. The evening closed with refreshments to all.

Come and hear the children; it will do you good.

Contracts have been left for the new Union high school at Gresham to cost $17,990. J. H. Tillman & Co., of Portland secured the contract.

Jesse F. Taylor
J. F. Taylor, as he was generally known around Portland, went to his long rest Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Taylor had been ill for several months. He had been a sufferer from a complication of diseases, either of which was enough to kill him. But it was not until within the past week that he was told by his doctor that he could not recover. He immediately began to arrange for the parting.

Mr. Taylor was well known about Lents where he has lived for the past seven years. His cheerful disposition endeared him to all his acquaintances and he was honored by every one who knew him.

The funeral will be held Friday at two o'clock at Kenworthy's, Rev. W. Boyd Moore officiating and the burial will be held at Multnomah cemetery. Friends are invited to the funeral. He leaves a wife and several relatives, brothers and cousins, to cherish his memory and sustain the loss.

Daily Mails
Mails at the Lents postoffice arrive and depart daily, except Sunday, as follows:

Mrs. Lightfoot
Mrs. Mary Ann Lightfoot of Anderson street, Lents, died early Thursday morning. Mrs. Lightfoot has been very ill for several weeks and her death was not unexpected. She suffered from a number of troubles incident to one of her age, she being 77 years old. She leaves a son and daughter in Lents and other relatives elsewhere. The funeral will be held Saturday, March 30, at two o'clock in the afternoon at Kenworthy's and the interment will be at Mt. Scott Cemetery.

HEALTH PROMOTES HAPPINESS
Without health, genuine joy is impossible; without good digestion and regular bowel movement you cannot have health. Why neglect keeping bowels open and risk being sick and ailing? You don't have to. Take one small Dr. King's New Life Pill at night, in the morning you will have a full, free bowel movement and feel much better. Helps your appetite and digestion. Try one tonight.

Tree Bargains
We now have in our sheds a quantity of trees, etc., in surplus, first class; to clean up, we offer less than half price. PRICES—apples, 5c; pears, 8c; prunes, 9c; plums, 10c; peach, 7; choice grafted walnuts at Bargain; like reductions on other stocks not listed herein. Prices will hold good as long as this surplus lasts. Order now. Carlton Nursery Co., Carlton, Oregon.

YOUR LUMBER BILL
here need not bother you. For our prices are as moderate as any and as our lumber is so sound it lasts for years, you'll not have another bill to pay for a long time. What is your present need? We carry everything from heavy sill beams to shingles.
