Columbia Grange

Columbia Grange met in monthly session the first Saturday of April. The meeting was unusually interesting. The morning session was devoted to business affairs of the grange, and the Lecturer, Mrs. Della Hinkle, gave a report of Pomona Grange which she recently attended at Gresham.

The guests present at dinner and during the lecture hour were, Roadmaster J. B. Yeon of Portland, Sidney Smyth, owner of the mines near Rooster Rock, Chas. Bramhall, our enterprising road supervisor, Mr. A. Barr of Brower, Mr. Harder of Evening Star Grange and several young people of this vicinity. Six applications for membership were presented, the names to be balloted at the next regular meeting.

At one-thirty the Lecturer took charge of the meeting and the following program was rendered: Reading, by Della Hinkle; Song By grange, No. 22 in Grange Melodies; Recitation, "The Optimist vs the Pessimist," by Clara E. Smith; Reading "Easter" Mrs. Geo. Kniersem; Song, by three girls from Mountain school. Roadmaster J. B. Yeon gave an excellent talk explaining the road bond issue. Everyone present listened attentively and seemed in favor of raising the $1,250,000 to hard surface the truck roads of the county and the Columbia highway.

The Silverton Appeal says: "We need institutions to employ laborers we already have a great deal more than we need laborers."

The Circle will give a ten cent tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Deaton on Main street, just beyond Marie street, south, on the afternoon and evening of the 13th of April. All are cordially invited. Come and have a good social time and see how nice the Circle will entertain you.

If you want a good time,
Then bring along your time,
And come any old time,
For the Circle will be there.

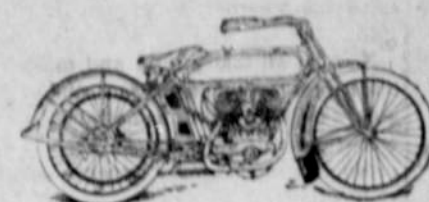

Come join us in this affair,
Everything will be on the square.
So come from anywhere,
For the Circle will be there.

If you want anything neat,
If you want anything to eat,
Something real nice and sweet,
Why the Circle will be there.

—Schnider.
