The Ladies Aid of the Annabel Presbyterian Church gave the play, "Old Maid's Convention" at the Princess theatre, Wednesday evening. It was fine and should have been better advertised so that a greater number might have had the pleasure of seeing it.

The Ladies' Society of the Arleta Baptist Church will hold an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Morris, 5404 37th Ave. S. E., June 16. The ladies sew in the morning and serve picnic lunch and at 3 p. m. the Missionary Society will be called to order.

The Ladies' Aid or the Choir or the Sunday School of the Laurelwood Methodist Church are always doing something and this time it was an old-fashioned candy-pulling contest. The Parent-Teacher Circle of the Hoffman school will give a Silver Tea, Friday afternoon. There will be a fine program by the school and refreshments will be served. S. gave their program Sunday morning, June 13, while the Laurelwood Methodist and Congregational Sunday Schools have interesting programs of similar character for the morning of June 20.

His Quaint Suggestion.

A Frenchman who appears to have been of a thrifty turn of mind conceived the idea in 1878 that too much valuable time was being wasted in cleaning sardines when preparing them for the market. He found a way of preparing them without cleaning them, and on this he took out letters patent. Apparently he had some slight misgiving as to whether the public would be perfectly suited with his invention and so in his claim he makes this parenthetical entry:

"Fish put up by this process may be slightly unpleasant to the customer at first, but he soon gets used to it."

The Query Discourteous.
"So glad to see you again, dear. And I've got such a lot of news for you. Did you know I was interested in business now?" said the first sweet young thing.

"Whose?" asked the second, and then the conversation lagged perceptibly.—Philadelphia Ledger.
