

CORBETT

Mrs. J. Leland and daughter, Mrs. Lewis Reed, visited friends in Portland several days recently.

Mr. Geo. G. Smith of Winterset, Iowa, who has been the guests of relatives at Ferndale Place the past three weeks started on his return trip home Friday.

Mr. Adrian Owen was a recent visitor of his sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Chamberlain.

Mrs. Chauncy Clark and baby visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Letsinger last week.

Miss Laura Reed was shopping in Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. Effie D. Sprague of Lake County is the guest of Mrs. Clara Smith.

Miss Bess Ewing of Cincinnati, Ohio, was a recent visitor of Miss Helen Coulter, at the home of Mrs. Clara Smith.

Mrs. Roy, who was taken from the home of R. M. Dodson to a Portland hospital several days ago, died Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Tollifson is enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nesbit, and brother, who came in their touring car from Olympia, Wash., the last of the week.

The funeral of Mrs. Geneva J. Saylor, who passed away Sunday, June 13, after a lingering illness, was held from the Christian church, Tuesday p. m., Rev. Reeder speaking words of comfort to the bereaved relatives. A large congregation of friends and old neighbors gathered at the church to pay their last respects and the many floral offerings told more plainly than words could express the high esteem in which the deceased was held. The remains were laid to rest in Mountain View cemetery beside her husband who died in April, 1906.

Geneva J. Saylor was born March 1, 1865, at Auburn, Baker County, Oregon. She was married to Orlando P. Saylor, in 1891, with whom she lived happily until his death. She was the second daughter of A. F. Johnson of Hurlbert, Oregon, who died in 1906, and granddaughter of the late Rev. Neil Johnson a pioneer of 1851.

Lewis Reed and wife made a flying trip to Washougal Saturday. They reported both weather and water fine.

Miss Helen Coulter, assistant principal of the Corbett Union high school, has started for her home in Oxford, O., to spend her vacation with friends and relatives.

The first year of our high school came to a close Saturday.

There was a social dance at the Grange Hall Saturday evening. The weather was fine. Every one seemed to enjoy themselves.

Riding on the Columbia Highway was not one unalloyed delight on Saturday, according to all reports.

Automobiles are all right some times, but many of our automobilists have had to revert to the good old-fashioned horse.

Mr. Knight is to give a housewarming dance in his new store building Saturday evening, July 3. Every one is cordially invited.

The C. E. is to give a playette in the west basement of the high school building Saturday evening. Ice cream and cake will be on sale afterwards. Admission 20 cents. Ice cream to the limit of your pocketbook or constitution.

Mr. Knight's new store is rapidly nearing completion. The report is that the ice cream parlor will be in commission July 4, and it will not be long before the entire building will be open to the general public. He has also purchased a Studebaker truck for general use in connection with his mercantile operations.

Miss Ruby Rasmussen is home for the summer. She has been attending the Normal at Monmouth the past two years.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the many kind friends for their help and sympathy bestowed during the illness and death of our beloved father. Also for the beautiful flowers, the songs, and the comforting words of the minister.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hogue.

C. H. Holway was the recipient of a surprise on last Thursday evening, the occasion being his birthday. About thirty of his neighbors came in and helped to make things merry for him. While somewhat surprised at the affair he was highly pleased, and all the company report a delightful time.

On Saturday, Miss Blanche Hershner, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hershner of Woodmere, became the bride of Percy Henderson of Madras. Miss Hershner has been one of the teachers in our city schools, having taught in the Woodmere school for the last two years. Her popularity was shown on Friday when the teachers of that school gave a banquet and shower in her honor. She received many useful and dainty gifts. Mr. Henderson operates a 3650 acre farm near Madras and is quite prominent in that section. He is a member of the Board of Education of that city. They will make their future home in Madras. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

Domestic Bliss.
Madame—I don't know where our son gets all his faults from. I'm sure he doesn't get them from me. Monsieur—No, you're right there; you haven't lost any of yours.
