GILBERT

The Sunday School picnic of Bennett Chapel M. E. Church was a success from every point. No one hurt, not even their feelings; there were no jars only what was on the cars; every one had lots to eat. Bull Run as a picnic resort is free from anything to break the rest and enjoyment sought. We understand all expenses were met in full, the car was filled, even crowded, but every one seemed to enjoy even being crowded. The young people made a splendid turnout. All their play and fun (which was all day long) was clean, rollicking fun. Not one coarse or vulgar word or act to be seen or heard. It was beautiful.

The Epworth League gave a surprise to Miss Audrey Dozier Thursday last. It did them all good.

Mrs. H. S. Anderson has returned from Los Angeles where she has been for her health. We are glad to note the marked improvement. She brought back with her her mother, Mrs. Henthorn, and her younger sister.

Foster road is surely up side down from Lenox avenue east, but it will be all right by and by.

Wonder of Stonehenge.

Everyone has heard of Stonehenge, a prehistoric monument in England which is almost as much of a puzzle as the sphinx in Egypt or the mounds erected by the mound builders in America. Stonehenge is about ten miles north of Salisbury. The name comes from two Saxon words meaning "hanging stones."

The earlier Celtic name was Cor Gawr, or giants' temple. There are in many localities in the northwest of Europe prehistoric remains in the form of huge stone monuments or "tumuli" or "barrows"—that is, bowl shaped mounds or hills of earth. In the neighborhood of Stonehenge there are hundreds of these mounds. Coins, etc., found in them seem to date them back about three centuries before Christ.

It must have taken an immense amount of work to make them, and there must have been some profound and serious purpose behind them.—Pathfinder.

How Bookworms Are Tracked.

To guard the million books in the New York public library against the ravages of bookworms and other insects which feed upon the paper, the glue on the backs and the cloth and leather bindings, a constant care is exercised, and a keen watch kept for any evidence of their activities. One woman is assigned exclusively to this work. When treating the books she wears a huge apron which completely covers her gown. A cheesecloth veil protects her face against the germs which lurk in the dusty documents, and even the air she breathes is screened against contagion. Close touch is kept with the health department, and books which have been returned from infected areas are fumigated before being restored to circulation.—Exchange.

Art of Shopping.

"What are you down for?"
 "To buy myself a box of face powder. Will you help me select it?"
 "Certainly," assented the other lady.
 "Suppose we begin by looking at refrigerators and lace curtains."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
