Emil Alpanalp was seriously injured on Monday afternoon by falling off the water wagon used in the road work that is being done on the Oregon City road. Al Boland is the proudest man in town and the recipient of many congratulations—a new nine pound son having arrived at his home early Tuesday morning. Al says he is the first boy to venture into the Boland family for twenty years and the fact proves the prevalence of the influence of the war. No doubt he will be a general some day.

One of the most delightful little needle parties was given at the home of Mattie B. Train on South Main street on Tuesday afternoon. Those who attended the party were Miss Marion Dickey and her sister, the Misses Hamilton, Gray, Billings, Knight, Vaughn and Mesdames Billings, Barstrow, Dittner and Darnall. After an enjoyable social time dainty refreshments were served. Every one present felt indebted to the Misses Train for the pleasant time.

The social given by St. Peter's Church members last Wednesday evening was an exceptionally successful affair, largely due to the courtesy of the Gilberts Brass Band, both socially and financially. A large number were served with refreshments. Most of the program was conducted on the lawn which has been especially arranged and lighted for the occasion with electric lights and Japanese lanterns. Later in the evening the crowd followed the music to the hall where they enjoyed dancing for several hours.
