EARLY AUTUMN HAT.

One of the autumn hats with wide transparent brim and crown. Black silk net is used, and the dropped edge is trimmed with a narrow band of sable fur. Large white silk water lilies surround the crown.

CHIC TOPCOAT.

The topcoat of velvet is a smart affair this year, for it is in lines suitable for dressy or semidressy wear. Here it is featured in striped velvet with a suggestion of a waist line and full rippling bottom. Gray fox fur affords a smart collar effect and trims the bottom edge. Button boots and a trim velvet hat are noteworthy details.

EVENING GOWN.

An unusual evening gown from Callot. The colorings are rich and daring, combining green silk net with rose satin. The gown is fashioned in Turkish or Oriental style and the embroidery, very elaborate, brings into play shades of green, gold and rose. The effect is rich and exquisite and odd lace sleeves add to the unusual effect.
