If it is good eastern oil, see Walsh.

See Walsh when you want good gas at current prices.

The Portland Broom Co. is giving its building a coat of rusic this week.

Harris Willson has found work in a barber shop in Vancouver, Wash.

Members of the Harmony Society are planning a "watch night" for the close of the year.

Walsh carries a line of eastern oil and gas. See him when in need of a new supply.—9319 Foster Road.

J. F. Wing has been laid up sick the past week.

Roy Courtwright has gone to California and it is expected that he will find a permanent location there.

Miss Julia Spooner gave a small party to a number of her teacher friends one evening this week.

F. L. Lent returned this week from a visit to Frisco. Mr. Lent reports a fine trip and an interesting time at the fair.

The Beaver Male Quartette will give two selections at the Methodist church Sunday evening. The pastor's subject in the morning will be, "Put yourself in his place."

Miss Fisher of the city library, Lents' station, will address Lents' Parent Teacher Circle Friday, Dec. 17, at 2:30 p. m. Her subject will be "Books for Children." Little Ruth Lent of the first grade will give a piano solo.

Mrs. Geo. Dilley is expected home from Cottage Grove in a short time.

Walsh has the best motor oils in the market; try them when in need of oil.

Miss Ida Bunday entertained a number of her friends at a party last Friday.

Mrs. M. K. Hedge has been ill during the past week but is out again.

Dr. Fawcett was taken to one of the Portland hospitals Wednesday morning for treatment.

Plans are being developed for a big union evangelical meeting after the holidays.

Rev. J. M. Nelson of Lents was called to Kansas City on Wednesday morning by the news of the death of his father.

John Manz reports a big rush of business. He has several orders from the Portland Police department.

If your machine needs overhauling see Walsh. He will give you good work, reasonably.

Mrs. Fawcett is still numbered among the convalescent. Her illness is very stubborn and it may take several weeks to subdue it.

The rear part of the roof of the Odd-fellows building has been settling of late, probably due to the extra pressure now put upon it, and carpenters are busy putting in some columns to support it.

T. M. Walsh went to Martins Bluff, Wash, Tuesday, on business matters.

Claude Lent is preparing to build a new house to be located on Stella street.

Walter Lund will leave for Pittsburg, Penn., this week on a business trip.

Mrs. Lawrence Sager of Hutton, Canada, is spending the winter with Mrs. Elvina Sager.

Albert Romar is home from the lighthouse in Washington to spend the holidays with his family.

Mrs. Olive Ballou of Cosmopolis, Wash., is visiting Mrs. O. E. Sager, her niece. She has been sick the past week.

Congratulations are due Mr. J. Sanger Fox and wife who are parents of an 8 pound daughter, who came to their place Sunday evening. Both are doing fine and Mr. Fox has accepted his new responsibilities with determination that knows no failure.

Lents streets are being cleaned of a considerable part of their mud this week. The method of making macadam roads of crushed rock and dust as tried out last spring, has been proven something of a failure. The mud rises to the surface after an extended wet spell and leaves the road bed rough.

A. S. Pearce of Laurelwood has opened up a tinning shop on south Main street, which will be welcome news to Lents people, who have never had a real tinner located here. Mr. Pearce is a practical tinner of many years experience.

Union cottage prayer meetings will be held at the following homes Tuesday night, Dec. 21: R. Heyting, 82d street and 45th avenue; Mr. Fankhauser, off South Main street; Robert Hornings, 77th street and 63d avenue; Mr. Arthurs, between 99th and 100 street on 65th avenue; C. S. Bradford, 5425, 69th street S. E.

W. F. R. Smith, the third avenue blacksmith, returned the first of the week from Moscow, Idaho where he was called by the death of his brother, who was killed while loading a car of wheat. He fell backwards fifteen feet, causing concussion of the brain. He was in the best of health. He was born and raised near Salem, Oregon, and was about 55 years of age, and has lived in this state up to 1911. He left a wife and son, Emmitt, and four sisters and this brother, W. F. R. Smith, of Lents.

Many Children Have Worms
Worms are a common childhood ailment. They make children irritable, nervous and restless, besides robbing the body and mind of proper nourishment. Watch your child. Examine the stools and at first signs of worms give your child a treatment of Kickapoo Worm Killer. They kill the worms, act as a laxative and expel the worms and poisonous waste. Tone the system and help restore your child's health and happy disposition. Only 25c. at your Druggist.

Coughs and Colds Are Dangerous
Few of us realize the danger of Coughs and Colds. We consider them common and harmless ailments. However statistics tell us every third person dies of a lung ailment. Dangerous Bronchial and Lung diseases follow a neglected cold. As your body struggles against cold germs, no better aid can be had than Dr. King's New Discovery. Its merit has been tested by old and young. In use over 45 years. Get a bottle today. Avoid the risk of serious Lung ailments. Druggists.
