Wilmer Drake of Third avenue is seriously ill with pneumonia.

All my customers and the public in general are solicited to trade with me at what is known as the Bradley shop, at Foster Road and 93d street. My wife is much better and I will be at the shop from now on.—W. F. R. Smith.

Commencing with next Sunday, May 21, the young people's service of the Evangelical Church will begin one-half hour later, beginning at 6:45 p. m. instead of 6:15. The topic for the evening will be "What does Christ want us to do?" and will be led by James Duncan and George Jones. Come and enjoy the service with us.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cone gave a farewell birthday party for Miss Lona Crandall Wednesday evening at their home on 7028-30th Ave. S. E. Eighteen friends were invited and a good time reported by all. Miss Crandall is going east to spend a year with her grandmother.

Somebody is very busy in the Tremont district. Monday evening Mr. Exline of 60th Ave., left a hand cultivator leaning against his front porch and about nine o'clock in the evening it just naturally walked off. Other things are missing in the neighborhood.

Big Circus Coming

John Robinson's Ten Big Shows are billed to pitch their big tents in Portland on May 29 and 30, and give performances afternoon and night. The show travels by its own special trains, and carries an enormous amount of paraphernalia, hundreds of people, beautiful horses and rare-wild animals of every kind. A splendid street parade will be given, with four bands, many golden chariots, open dens, elephants, camels, knights in glittering armour, etc., etc.

The performances in the big tents comprises the world's best male and female riders, great herd of performing elephants, troupes of acrobats, aerialists, trapeze artists, athletes and tumblers, while twenty funny clowns will keep the audience in roars of laughter.

Among the special features are "White Cloud," the $25,000 Arabian stallion, most highly educated horse in the world. Major Littlefinger and wife, smallest living couple of human beings, A troupe of native Central American Marimba players, Shumatos Royal Japanese, and hundreds of other features, artists, curios and strange and rare specimens from the far ends of the earth.

No one should miss this opportunity of seeing this famous show, for the name of John Robinson has stood for the best in the line of tented exhibitions in Europe and America for nearly a hundred years.

Boy Writes Poetry

The following lines were composed by Arnold Barnhart, the eleven year old son of Mrs. Mina Smith of Lents, Oregon, and recited by him at the celebration of the twelfth anniversary of Shiloh Circle No. 19, L. of G. A. E., on May 6, 1916.

On the fourth of April, twelve years ago,
Shiloh Circle started slow,
Daughters and sisters of soldiers brave,
Who fought to free the honest slave,
And these soldiers are honored every year
By Shiloh Circle members here.
They sing the praise of those who fell,
And comfort the members that are not well.

And if a member should get sick and die,
Without a murmur, without a cry,

They lay fragrant flowers to honor the grave,
Just like they do the soldiers brave,
And whether in snow or rain or sleet,
Every other Saturday they meet;
But their thoughts are with those in the storm,
While they, in their hall, are dry and warm.

And on this anniversary day,
Twelve years after, so they say,
That upon counting up their host,
Sixty-eight is what they boast,
Many people have joined since then;
But they all think the same, as when,
On April fourth, twelve years ago,
Shiloh Circle started slow.
