Mr. George Carr went to Seattle this week on business.

FOR SALE—Practically new Fairbanks Morse double action force pump, cheap, with pipe. 71 Ave. 92 St. Mrs. McVeij.

R. J. McCullom returned home from Montana this week.

Mrs. Julia Scott, Mrs. Inez Richardson and Mrs. Kathryn Sommerfeld attended the county W. C. T. U. institute at St. Johns last week.

W. H. Lovett is recovering nicely from an accident received some time ago when he got his wrist broken. His horse started off too quick and threw him out of the wagon.

Harry Tamplin took a car load of men down to Sherwood last Sunday afternoon, to attend a men's meeting held at the Friends church there. Miss Terrell, the evangelist, who conducted meetings at the Sunnyside Friends church, is conducting the meetings at Sherwood.

Mrs. Miriam Butler was successful last week in raising funds for the improvements which have been made in the Seventh Day Adventist church building. The people of this church feel that their campaign for prohibition did much to bring about the decision against the liquor element. They also believe they brought about the defeat of the Sunday Law.

Mrs. Maude E. Blything entertained the Laffalot Club. The table was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. A most delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Roy B. Kelly was an invited guest. The annual Christmas meeting will be held at Mrs. Walter Sanders on 83d street, where there will be lots of good eats, as Mrs. Sanders is some cook.

A citizen of Lents wishes to call the attention of the community to the propensity for window breaking which is running rampant in this section. Cannot the Boy Scouts, who have been doing noble work in other lines, start a crusade that will arouse Lents to civic betterment? A wise patrol of each section in this district might awaken our junior citizenship to a sense of loyalty to their homes and neighborhood.

Mrs. Lucie Faxon Addison is being made to feel that people are glad to have her with them again. The Woman's Press Club gave a luncheon in her honor. Members of Mt. Scott Union spent an afternoon at her hotel and members of the county union gathered together at the Central Library on Wednesday of this week and marched to the Seward hotel, Tenth and Alder, and spent the afternoon with their old friend and co-laborer.

A reorganization of the Ladies Foreign and Home Missionary society of the Friends church was effected last week. Mrs. Mattie Williamson was elected president; Mrs. Susan Mann, vice-president; Minnie Mendenhall secretary; Mrs. Bessie Hunt, treasurer; Mrs. Nettie Riley, chairman of the missionary study class. All day meetings will be held every other Tuesday, an hour in the afternoon being spent in mission study from the text book "World Missions and World Peace." On next Tuesday, Nov. 28th, the society will meet with Mrs. Geo. Carr, 7829-62d avenue.

The membership of the Friends church in Lents expected to have a Thanksgiving dinner in their church this year. Each family was to prepare a dinner at home and bring it to the church. The proposition fell through because of the lack of a capable person with the strength and vitality to assemble those family dinners and dispense the collective viands into a church feast. The disappointment of these good Quakers suggests an occupation, which might, perhaps, be followed with profit. Where is the woman in Lents with the professional training to meet similar needs? A strong, capable woman with a masterful mind ought to arise and fill this business need.

A $78,443 contract has been let to a Portland firm for a new Court house at Grants Pass.

The Portland public employment bureau found jobs for 4408 in October.

PLEASANT VALLEY

J. A. Pike of Bellrose was a business caller in our midst on Monday.

The chicken supper given at the grange hall last Saturday evening proved a splendid success in every way. It was attended by one of the largest and most representative crowds that has been called together in this neighborhood in many months. The proceeds from the affair will be turned into the fund being raised to pay for the recently constructed play shed for the school.

KENDALL

The Ladies Aid met last Thursday at Mrs. Clark's and this week, Thursday, it met with Mrs. Adamson. It will meet each week, instead of every two weeks, for awhile to get ready for the holidays.

Mr. Thomson, the clerk, has been taking the school census. While new families have moved into the district they have not increased the school census as some of the children are above school age.

A new voter came to the district (or will be in 21 years) the day before election. A daughter to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pomeroy.

The school is progressing nicely under present instructors. The children are jubilant over the prospect of a Thanksgiving vacation.

THE MOUNT, ARLETA, KERN PARK

The Millard Avenue Presbyterian Sunday School has planned to hold a patriotic service at eleven o'clock at the close of the regular Sunday School hour next Sunday morning. The program will be in the nature of an introductory service preceding the Thanksgiving sermon by the pastor.

Miss Jessie Millard of the Portland Public Library Association will speak at the Arleta Library Saturday evening at 8 o'clock on "Parental Responsibility in Regard to Children's Reading," under the auspices of Hoffman and Arleta Parent-Teacher's Associations. Parents particularly are urged to be present.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church held an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Elton Shaw, 4402-79th St., S. E., on Wednesday. A pot luck lunch was served at noon and the ladies spent the day in completing articles to be sold at their annual bazaar to be held early in the month of December.

On Tuesday of this week Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rutherford and Mrs. Elton Shaw motored to Salem and returned. They report a very pleasant trip as the roads are in fine condition and the run to the capital was made without a stop. Mrs. Shaw visited a brother near Salem who lives on the old home place while Mr. Rutherford attended to business connected with his law practice in that city.

A pleasant surprise party was planned for Miss Grace Spaulding by her mother on Tuesday evening at the Spaulding home, 4418-75 St., S. E., when a number of friends gathered to celebrate Miss Grace's birthday. Games and contests were enjoyed until quite late when the best wishes of the guests were extended to Miss Spaulding. Mrs. Spaulding, assisted by the Misses Grace and Ella served refreshments. Those present were: Olive Reed, Robin Reed, N. M. Robertson, Lizzie Laird, Mrs. A. V. Tronson, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Shaw, Mrs. G. E. Reed, Lela Reed, John Everett Ramsey, W. H. Amos, James W. Reed, Evelyn Reed, Dorothea Neitzel, Mabel Cummings, Elsie Strang, Essie Strang, Edna Spaulding, Mrs. Edna Spaulding and Charles E. Tronson.

CHERRYVILLE

Old-timers say this has been a remarkable Fall for dry weather and bright days.

Lyceum will start this week on Friday night and continue through the winter.

John Odell, while hunting cattle one day last week above Brightridge, "jumped up" a bear and with the help of his dog treed him and ran to a neighbors for a gun and shot him. He proved to be an unusually fine fat two year old.

People here were greatly shocked last Friday to hear of the fatal injury received by Emil Franzette on the auto road above Brightridge. It appears in making a short turn his machine turned turtle, pinning him underneath and crushing his neck. When found he was breathing but he never regained consciousness and died about noon Saturday. He was an Italian, having been born in northern Italy and was about 35 years old. He was a very fine appearing man and had a very pleasing manner.

In the early days of history there were physical giants who went about in steel-clad armor and when they wanted anything possessed by another and a weaker man they deliberately knocked the owner over and took possession. Later in the Middle Ages these men of prodigious strength found their power so abridged by public action that they built castles on some lofty position and robbed travelers whom they could discern from their lofty homes. The physical giants were of such prodigious strength that a battle-axe once used by Richard the Lion Hearted and preserved in London is one of such weight that no man of recent times can swing it. In a pageant at London not long ago commemorated some event of the past a strong man was clad in the armor of old and he could not walk and had to be helped on his horse. More selfish than the physical giants and a thousand times more cunning and dangerous than the physical giants are the mental giants of today like Rockefeller, Carnegie, Morgan et al. These precious fellows, all claiming to be Christians are doomed for the scrap heap, the same as the physical giants who preceded them.
