Katsky Brothers are now open for business in their new store, 5716-1724 92nd St. S. E. They spent most of the week transferring their goods across the street, and are not yet straightened out. We expect to give a good deal of space to this store next week in order to acquaint our readers with this latest addition to progress in our community.

The Saturday night Club has resolved itself into a new organization to be known as "The Elite Stepping Club" which will meet every Saturday night from 7:30 until 12:00 o'clock. Splendid quarters have been secured in a new brick building on Foster Road, near 92nd Street. Only those who belong to the Club are privileged to attend these weekly functions, unless invited.

We call the attention of our readers to our "People's Forum" department and suggest that anyone who has anything on their mind which will be of general interest to the public to send in their contribution and assist in making this department newsy and spicy. Articles along all lines of community interest are desired—commercial, industrial, educational, political, social or religious, and if the people have any other interests they are included in what is desired for this column.

The owners of the Grange building are making final arrangements to open up a store of their own in the building vacated by Katskys. It will be a general merchandise store, and it is rumored that Clyde E. Sager will manage it for them. Some of those interested are Oscar E. Lent and Messrs. Furey, Campbell, Hersher and Krueger. It will probably be a week or more before arrangements are finally completed and the stock is out on the shelves; they are anxious, however, not to lose any time.

Tremont, Kern Park, Arleta.

Mr. B. M. Hartmus, of 7018 Millard avenue, died at a Salem sanatorium, Wednesday night, Jan. 24. Mr. Hartmus' decease at the age of 49 is the untimely result of complications which grew out of work as a miner. About a year ago Mr. Hartmus felled a large tree, the exertion in doing which so taxed his strength that an attack of pneumonia left him in an excessively enervated condition. Unable to work, worried by financial troubles, Mr. Hartmus, fighting gallantly and unselfishly for health, was obliged to go to a sanatorium in Salem as a last resort. Mrs. Hartmus was summoned to his bedside last Wednesday, but arrived too late.

The remains were taken to the Hartmus family burying place at Lyons, Ore., near where Mrs. Hartmus' people also reside.

The friends and neighbors extend sympathy to the wife and two young daughters who survive him.

Next Sunday at the five o'clock vespers at the Laurelwood Congregational church, the address will be given by Mrs. A. J. Sullens, wife of the Superintendent of Missions of the Congregational church.

Last Sunday at the Vesper service Dr. May Cardwell spoke on "State Wards," emphasizing especially the problems of the feeble minded. Music was furnished by the Junior choir.

The Missionary Society of the Laurelwood Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. Dana Morgan, 4038-73d street, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 24. The ladies perpetrated a surprise on Mrs. J. J. Handsaker in the shape of a little sleigh of belated Christmas gifts. Refreshments concluded the pleasant occasion. In the evening the ladies and some of the gentlemen of the church surprised Mr. C. W. Wells at his home at 6032-45th Ave., S. E., at which time they presented Mr. Wells with a purse.

Mr. Wells and Mrs. Handsaker are both connected with the pulp work of the Laurelwood Congregational church, and the members took these means of showing their appreciation of their services. Among those who participated in these pleasant affairs were Mesdames Handsaker, Snider, Morgan, Shorey, Carns, Briggs, Wells, Pratten, LeRoy, Robinson, Anderson, Chissolm, and Monnith; Messrs. Wells, Pratten, Snider, LeRoy, Briggs, and Morgan; and the Misses Maud and Kathryn Snider.

The Millard Ave., Presbyterian C. E., held a hard-times social in the Crum and Raebuck building, corner of 72nd street and Millard avenue, Monday evening, Jan. 29. All who wore "Sunday" clothes were fined in proportion to the enormity of the offense. Mr. Edwards was apprehended, tried, and fined, for stealing the pastor's chickens. The event went off in gales of laughter, and mutual enjoyment.

The money received during the evening completes a twenty-five dollar apportionment for the missionary work of the C. E.

Mr. Ray Shepherd of Millard avenue and 67th street underwent an operation for the removal of his eye, Saturday Jan. 27. The operation proved successful and the patient is convalescing satisfactorily.

Miss M. Elizabeth Betz entertained at her home at Anabel, Tuesday evening Jan. 30, in honor of her brother, Mr. Chris Betz of Cheney, Wash. The evening was spent in progressive "I Doubt it," a laughable modification of Fitch. The honor prize was won by Mrs. Robert Molar of Anabel. Most delectable refreshments concluded the pleasant evening. Among those present were Mesdames Betz and Molar; the Misses Hubbard, Hughes, Carlson, and Betz; and Messrs. Betz, Molar, and Murray.

At an adjourned Congregational session of the Millard avenue Presbyterian church held last Tuesday evening, at which Dr. Boyd of the First Presbyterian church acted as moderator, the Rev. Mr. W. H. Amos was re-elected, by an overwhelming majority, pastor for the ensuing year. The many friends of the pastor and the church will be glad that this public-spirited gentleman is to continue his work in this community.

Next Sunday morning the pulpit of this church will be filled by Dr. Wallace Lee, President of Albany College. He will speak on a topic relating to life-work as next Sunday is Vocation Day in this church.

In the evening the pastor will speak on "Treasures of the Snow." Come—you will receive a cordial welcome.

The Pollyanna Club met at the home of Mrs. W. J. Hollingworth at Nashville station, Friday afternoon, Jan. 26, for its regular monthly meeting. A flower-fund was started at this session which resulted in the sending of dainty cyclamens to the sick-rooms of Mrs. Rose Wilson, Mrs. Sexton, and Mrs. De Shields. Mrs. Wilson is convalescing from an acute attack of pneumonia, and Mrs. Sexton and Mrs. De Shields are recovering from more protracted illnesses.

The Arleta W. C. T. U. will hold a special Mothers' meeting, Tuesday February, 6th at Lucky Cottage. Mrs. Zehrung will lead the meeting. Light refreshments will be served by Mrs. Usher and Mrs. Pratten. The afternoon will be well spent, in a discussion of how to help the mothers of the community in various ways. Mrs. Lottie Murry and Mrs. Patience Woolworth will sing.

An all day Institute will be held by the Arleta Union on February 20th. A good program is being planned.

Mrs. M. Frances Swope spoke to the Parent-Teachers Circle of Milwaukee, and to the Sunnyside W. C. T. U. on the subject "The Cigarette a Menace to our Country," the past week.

Kern Park Christian, Senior Endeavorers are planning to give an evening's entertainment on February 18th. Stereopticon views of Damoh India will be shown and a short exercise by seven of the young people will be given.

Kern Park Junior society was surprised by the Superintendent, Sunday, with a large cake holding 33 candles, in honor of the 33rd year of Junior Endeavor. Each candle represented a missionary. Next Sunday each Junior will tell something about the missionary that was given him or her with the piece of cake.

No fluctuations, however, have been noted in the market quotations on postage stamps.
