Local and Personal

Mrs. L. McKinley is on the sick list this week.

The Portland Stove Works will erect a $30,000 plant.

The Saturday manual training classes of Portland are crowded.

E. W. Elrod, of 92nd street, left Friday evening for a trip into Gilliam county.

M. N. Sadler is recovering rapidly from the recent operation which he underwent for the removal of cataract.

W. I. Markle has purchased a stock of groceries and opened up a nifty little store at 88th st. and 65th ave.

Eggiman Bros., are installing an 8 x 10 refrigerating plant in their meat market. Geo. W. Dilley is doing the work.

Miller & McGrew are making some interior improvements at their place of business on 92nd street, papering, painting, etc.

Rev. B. C. Dewey is conducting a series of evangelistic services at Burlington, Wash. This is the third week of their progress.

Mrs. Hardy Adams, of Foster Road, was taken to Emanuel hospital Tuesday evening, where she will undergo a surgical operation.

All legal voters may now vote at school elections, except that only taxpayers may vote on school bond and school tax measures.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McSloy are the proud parents of a little daughter who arrived at their home Monday evening. The little lady will be known as Mary-bright.

Mrs. Mary C. Jefferies of 9503-89th avenue was very pleasantly surprised this morning by a visit from her daughter, Mrs. F. O. Baker of Spokane, Washington.

We call attention to the announcement in our church column of the silver tea to be given by the Baptist Ladies' Aid at the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon of next week.

Miss Gertha Clark and her brother Wilson, who have spent the past year in Lents, left Wednesday morning for their home in Medford. They have made many friends in this community during their stay who regret their departure.

Otto's barber shop has recently been moved from Foster Road to 5929-92nd street, next door to Becker's market. Everything is as neat as a new pin and by the time the building gets a coat of paint on the outside to match the improved appearance on the inside, the shop will prove very attractive.

The large auto truck stuck in the mud on Woodstock avenue and 85th street, on Monday evening presented a sorry appearance. It is safe to assume that any one of the dozen men wading around in the "soup" up to their knees endeavoring to extricate the machine will be ardent supporters of any road improvement movement that may be launched.

Mrs. Abtlanait of 10150 Foster Road, was taken to the hospital yesterday morning for the second time during her recent serious illness of ten weeks' duration. After spending five weeks at the hospital she was brought home the last of the week, but her return was necessitated as it was made apparent that an operation was necessary. Her friends are hoping for her speedy recovery.

Each week brings to light some additional advantage to residents of Lents shopping at home. A would-be purchaser discovered last week that the blankets on sale at the Stevens' Cash Store were three ounces heavier, two inches larger and fifteen cents cheaper than the blankets offered by the leading department stores of the city. His shirt waist bargains are attracting purchasers from the down town districts.

Bellrose-Gilbert.

The snow storm blocked the moving which was intended in this vicinity.

Tuesday evening the 27th inst., a surprise was given Mrs. N. Maybe and her daughter, Mrs. Irwin, for which Mrs. Smith was responsible, as she worked to gather up the friends, viz. Mrs. Fredrickson, Mrs. and Miss Hurtle, Miss V. Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. Every one was the better for the genial fellowship of the evening.

Mrs. C. Valentine has sold her house to Farnsworth Co., and will make her home in the city.

The Ladies Aid met on the 28th inst., with Mrs. A. A. Rindle as a farewell meeting with Mrs. Bateman, who says best regards to Bellrose March 1st.

Report says Mr. L. Bishop intends to see Alaska. The good will of all will be with him like sunshine. As a community we shall miss the boy and his clean, high, manly worth.

Mr. E. D. Hurlie is an artist of marked ability. Aside from their artistic merit his pictures have found purchasers, thus helping him to solve the problem of the high cost of living.

The Ninth Anniversary Sale and the Formal Opening of the New Store will be Held
