Cherryville.

Winter is lying in the lap of Spring. We hope St. Patrick's day will be "Wearing of the Green."

The sun crosses the line next week and Spring will be here officially at least.

Better weather is promised us by local weather prophets, who state as their reason for this claim that the change of the moon this week will occur near midnight.

Anyway we have not been knocked off the map as they were in Indiana and Ohio the first of the week.

J. J. Tuescher, of Portland, was out last week looking after his herd of cattle on the hills south of town under the charge of Mr. Webbs. He now has over 20 head and they have not had a mouthful of hay all winter. They feed a ration of shorts twice daily and browse on the tops of salal and other brush above the snow. They certainly look well.

James Odell sold five head of young heifers to J. J. Tuescher lately. They were all Durhams.

Bellrose-Gilbert.

The regular meeting of the Gilrose Parent-Teacher Association was held in the school auditorium on Friday afternoon of last week with an unusually large attendance.

Miss Maria Duback charmed the audience with a number of violin and piano selections, which were much appreciated.

A very interesting paper was read by Mrs. Lowe on "Courtesy in the Home and School." This was followed by a lively discussion from which many helpful ideas were gained.

Mrs. Rhoda Wallace read a paper on a similar topic which was much enjoyed.

A movement was initiated which met with unanimous approval, to install a play ground apparatus. This is a much needed adjunct and will meet with hearty support from the entire district.

The membership committee under the chairmanship of Miss Schuman has been most active. The following names were submitted and added to the list at this time: Mesdames Nettie Lowe, D. B. Trout, Kirkham, W. Davis, La Mear and W. C. Bates; and Messrs Dr. F. E. Ferris, Donald Furey and Wm. Gilbert.

One very gratifying feature of the situation is the interest the men are taking in the Parent-Teacher Association.

A dainty luncheon, which came as a pleasant surprise, was served by the High School students. This was heartily enjoyed by all.

be, "Organization of First Protestant Missionary Societies."

Methodist Church.

The regular services will be held on Sunday. Mr. Jasper will take for the subject of morning sermon, "Praying for the Kingdom." The evening topic will be, "Social Teachings of Jesus." Special musical features of the day will include selections by the Ladies' Quartette in the morning and solos by Mabel Nelson and Mrs. Jasper in the evening.

The subject of the Epworth League lesson will be "Regalizing Indifferent Members." Mrs. Hyde will lead.

Last Sunday was a day of special privilege for Lents Methodism. Rev. M. B. Paroungian, Sundry School missionary for the Oregon Conference was present all day, revitalizing the Sundry School forces by his magnetic influence during the morning service, and gripping all hearts by his impassioned account of the sufferings endured by his native people in the persecuted country of Armenia in the evening. His sermon in the morning was a plea for better home life, stating that at least two things were necessary to the rearing of the young to Christian manhood and womanhood. Obedience on the part of the children and a right example on the part of the parents. In the evening he told of the sufferings endured by the Armenians for centuries at the hands of the cruel Turks, for no other reason than that they are Christians. These atrocities outrival anything endured by any nation, not even excepting the Jews or the Belgians, one million of these people having been massacred in cold blood since the beginning of the present war. Other European countries have tolerated these conditions for fear of disturbing the fine balance of power of Europe should an attempt be made to call Turkey to account for her acts. A more terrible blot on the history of nations does not exist. One understands something of the love which is felt for America by such oppressed people after hearing Mr. Paroungian.

A special Missionary program is being prepared by the Sundry School for Easter.

The ladies of the Lents church will serve refreshments at the monthly meeting of the Deaconess Auxiliary, which will meet at the Deaconess Home on E. Flanders street Friday for an all-day session.

How the Name "Turncoat" Started.

The epithet "turncoat" took its rise from one of the first dukes of Savoy, whose dominions lying open to the incursions of the two contending houses of Spain and France he was obliged to temporize and fall in with that power that was most likely to distress him. So, being frequently obliged to change sides, he humorously got a coat made that was blue on one side and white on the other and might be worn either side out. While in the Spanish interest he wore the blue side out, and the white side was the badge for the French; hence he was called Emanuel, surnamed the Turncoat, by way of distinguishing him from other princes of the same name.

His Own Fault.

The old miser in the story who dropped a five dollar gold piece in the plate at church, mistaking it for a nickel, could get no great satisfaction out of the deacon, as will be recalled, but he was not the man to give up easily.

Accordingly he sought legal advice with a view of instituting a suit at law.

But the lawyer whom he consulted was one of those rare and gifted souls who would much rather be witty than rich—or almost anything else for that matter.

"Sir," said he at once, "you have no case. You were guilty of contributory negligence."—Exchange.

The next meeting of Mt. Scott Union will be held at the home of Mrs. John Donaldson, on the corner of 63th Ave. 91st St. The program will be given under the auspices of the Press Department. Mrs. Hyde of the "Herald," a new resident of Lents, will take part in the program, giving an opportunity for the people of Lents to get acquainted with the news editor. Mrs. R. W. Reynolds will sing a solo, which will be pleasing news to her many friends. Mrs. Additon will be present and speak. Mrs. F. M. Jasper will contribute one of her delightful solos and Master Chester Ferris will sing. A member of the city press has promised to be present. The public is invited to attend this meeting, Tuesday, March 20th at 2:30 p. m.

The people of the entire State are interested in the bazaar which is to be held at State W. C. T. U. headquarters, DeKum Bldg., corner Third and Washington, March 21-22-23. Useful and beautiful articles have been received from the different unions of the State. One article in particular is worthy of mention in as much as it was made by a man—an Oregon farmer. It is a bureau scarf of linen, embroidered in colors, with crocheted lace across the ends. It took a W. C. T. U. bazaar to develop the fact that Oregon has a William Morris and doubtless many people will go to the bazaar just to see this man-made article. A jitney lunch will be served each day.

The County Institute for this month is being held today with Peninsula Park Union.

Mt. Scott Union will be glad to collect old papers and clean rags if parties having them to donate will phone Tabor 3077.

Evangelical Church.

The Good Citizenship Committee of the Y. P. A. has secured a special speaker from the C. E. Union to lead the service next Sunday evening. Among other things of special interest he will present the "Peace Advocate" pledge, an item in the "Millions Campaign." You are urged to be present and enjoy the meeting around the fireplace in the young men's room at 6:15.

The increasing attendance shows the results of the "Go to Church" movement. The services on Sunday will be up to the usual standard of interest.

The Ladies' Aid are meeting today at the home of Mrs. Coffman on 92nd St., where a 10-cent tea is being served.

On Sunday evening, the 25th inst. the Mission Band children will give a program at the regular church service. The pleasing dialogue, "How Some Little Dollies Came to be Missionaries," will be repeated by request. Other special numbers will be given including a violin duet by the two little Uplyke boys, aged five and seven. A more complete announcement will be made next week.

The business meeting of the Y. P. U. was held at the Bradford home on Friday evening. Some amendments to the constitution were submitted and discussed. A social hour followed the business session. An Advertising Contest provided much merriment. Reuben Mortrend won the prize, but he is laboring under the impression that he was handed a "lemon."
