Gladstone is to have a new pavilion in readiness for the annual Chautauqua. The Gresham cannery have prospects of sharing in a $1,000,000 government contract.

Read the "Herald" for Lent's news. $1.00 a year; 50cts. for six months; 25cts. for three months.

The weather man has given his word that the cool unseasonable weather is at an end. Here's hoping.

D. O. Lane, of 85th St., is driving a new Chevrolet, purchased during the past week.

The Peninsula Shipbuilding Co., of Portland, have received orders for two wooden steamers of about 3,500 tons capacity.

A factory to make starch from cull potatoes is to be built in Portland, to be completed in time to care for this season's crop.

Mrs. C. M. Harvey of 90th St., left the last of the week for Buell, Ore., where she will spend some time with her daughter, Miss Laura, who is teaching school at that place.

Mrs. O. A. Hess entertained the Embroidery Club at her home on Friday afternoon last. A pleasant afternoon was spent and refreshments were served.

If you are not getting your "Herald" since the inauguration of free mail delivery in the Lents district come into the office or phone in your street address.

The report that has been recently circulated to the effect that the Damascus German Hall had been closed until after the war is said to be without foundation. It is open and will continue to be whenever occasion requires its use.

Mr. A. F. Miller, of Sellwood, for many years a subscriber to the "Herald," called at the office Saturday and left a year's subscription. He said he and his family could not get along without the Lents paper.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Goodenough arrived in Lents this morning and will make their home with their daughter, Mrs. Minnie Hyde, of the "Herald." They spent the winter here, but for the past six weeks have been down in Columbia County at Clatskanie, where business interests have prevented their return until now.

One of our Lents citizens is authority for the statement that there are 100,000 Chins Pheasants in the Willamette Valley, and that each Pheasant will eat and destroy one bushel of grain per year. This means the loss of 100,000 bushels of grain by these birds. In this time of food scarcity, is not the preservation of these fowls a luxury?

A little black dog of unknown ownership has solved the h. c. of I. problem. He made his initial attempt at carrying out his plan last evening by slipping into the Becker Market just before Mr. Vail locked up for the night. He succeeded in making himself invisible until he was alone, but here his courage deserted him and he wrecked the display windows, mixing himself up promiscuously with strawberries, eggs, asparagus, tomato and cabbage plants, in his frantic efforts to break out. His publicity methods were successful and he was soon released.

A couple of intelligent men from Portland were in town last week, and while here stated that many small dealers in that city, as well as many lawyers and real estate men can't pay their rent and are on the rocks all right.

Hoover, the Food Director, says that prices are from 40 to 50 per cent higher than there is any reason for their being. Earl Vrooman, Asst. Sec. of Agriculture, says "many of these speculators who are robbing the poor ought to be wearing prison stripes."

Joe Leiter recently made $2,000,000 boosting the price of wheat. Joe never did a tap of work in his life, nor raised a kernel of wheat, nor did any useful service for mankind. He is an enemy to the human race and a menace to society.

The railroad companies of the State want to raise the price of tariff on lumber 15 per cent. This, too, in face of the fact that they were never so prosperous. In the meantime they are not willing to pay but $9.00 a thousand for railroad ties, when the high price of labor and living makes it impossible to make them at a profit at this price. They should pay at least $12.00 a thousand. The lumber business is the great industry of the State. The railroads are at their old tricks, charging all the traffic will bear and all the people will stand. These fellows need regulating. The people must take over the railroads and run them in the interests of all the people.

U. V. "Buz" Thomas said in a speech here last Fall that four would go to $30.00 before another harvest. It is now $18.00 and going higher, so he did not make such a wild shot after all.

Woodmere.

The men of the Woodmere Old People's Home have been very industrious this Spring. They have just completed some additional comforts for the inmates. Three large rooms in the basement have been finished and will be used as a kitchen, dining room and parlor. They have been furnished and are now ready for use. A large porch is now in process of construction and is fast nearing completion.

Mrs. Lawrence has succeeded in securing sufficient ground for the cultivation of a large garden; she has also secured the use of two acres for beans and several lots for potatoes, besides smaller tracts for other vegetables and garden truck. By assisting in the cultivation of these garden tracts, the inmates of the Home feel that they are able to manifest their patriotism.

Church Notes

Baptist Church.

Next Sunday the Baptist Church will celebrate the tenth anniversary of the local organization. A very interesting program has been arranged as follows:

MORNING SERVICE. 11:00 a. m.—Address by Rev. Thos. Stephenson, D. D. Solo, "Not Ashamed of Christ," by D. G. Anderson.

AFTERNOON SERVICE. 3:00 p. m.—Hymn, "We Praise Thee, O God," Congregation. Prayer, J. M. Nelson. Chorus, "O Praise the Lord,"

Address, "Organization and First Church Home," Mrs. W. P. Kneeland. Chorus, "We Come Unto Our Father's God."

Address, "The Fire and New Church Home," Dr. C. E. Moreland. Chorus, "Wake the Song of Jubilee."

Address, "The Sunday School Past and Present," Mrs. A. M. Randolph. Solo, "Crossing the Bar," J. O. Leake.

Address, "The Women's Societies," Mrs. J. M. Nelson. Address, "Early Oregon Baptist History," Rev. E. A. Leonard.

Chorus, "Unfold, Ye Portals," from "The Redemption." EVENING SERVICE.

7:00 p. m.—B. Y. P. U., Devotional service conducted by Harley Hallgren. Pres. of Willamette B. Y. P. A.

8:00 p. m.—Evangelistic service in charge of Rev. Thos. Brookfield. Chorus, "There is a Land Beyond the Setting Sun."

Solo, "Jesus, Redeemer," J. O. Leake. To these services every one is invited, where it does not conflict with the worship of their own church. Attractive musical features, as well as an interesting program is promised.

Bennett Chapel.

Services are held at Bennett Chapel each Sunday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Jasper. On Sunday last the topic was appropriate to "Parents' Day." The thought emphasized that the home was the greatest institution which we have, taking precedence over the church or the school, and home life should be cultivated and made the chief aim in life.

The prayer meeting is held each Wednesday evening and for the present is being held around in the homes of the neighborhood. The attendance is especially good. The pastor is in charge and the interest is good.

Methodist Church.

Mr. Jasper will take for the topic of his sermon on Sunday morning next, "The Christian College—The Isolation of Modern Thought to Christian Faith." The evening topic will be, "Conscience and the Voice of God." Mrs. Sells and Mrs. Jasper will contribute a duet to the morning musical program. A solo will be given by Fred Frost in the evening.

The Epworth League has encountered all kinds of "snags" in their efforts to arrange for an entertainment, not the least of which has been that they have been obliged to change the date twice now because of conflicting meetings. This week the District Epworth League Convention to be held in Centenary Church beginning Friday evening and continuing over Sunday, has made it necessary to postpone this important local event. The committee has very graciously yielded this second time, but now announce that they have secured Friday of next week, the 21st inst., and hereby give warning that they have gone the limit and the entertainment will positively be given at the church at that time. An interesting program has been arranged which will include a little play entitled "Young Dr. Devine," the scene being a young ladies' seminary. An epidemic of small pox breaks out in the village and the young ladies are told that they must all be vaccinated. They welcome any change to the monotony of school life and amid much excitement prepare for the ordeal, but to their disappointment the young doctor who has been summoned to perform this task turns out to be a "female practitioner." It is a simple, little girlish comedy and is presented in two scenes. There will also be readings and musical selections. A social time will follow the presentation of the program and refreshments will be served. No admission will be charged, but a silver offering will be taken. The proceeds are to be devoted to the Church Improvement Fund.

Kern Park Christian Church.

The pastor, Rev. G. K. Berry, will take for the topic of his morning sermon, "The Commission." In the evening a representative of the Anti-Saloon League will be present and speak in the interests of the temperance cause.

Prayer meeting is held each Thursday evening. Interesting subjects are discussed at these meetings and the public is invited to attend them.

The Junior C. E. are planning to attend the City Rally on Saturday afternoon of this week.

On Friday evening the C. E. will have a meeting of unusual interest. They have just concluded a contest and the losing side will banquet the winners on this occasion. They are arranging to take a hike out to Johnson Creek and have a weiner roast.

This church is situated on the corner of 45th avenue and 69th street and an invitation is extended to those residing in that vicinity to attend all the regular services.

No one can afford to miss either of the two great sermons on "Christian Science" to be given by the Rev. G. K. Berry at the Kern Park Christian Church, corner 45th avenue and 69th street S. E. On Sunday evening, May 27 he will give the first sermon on "Is Christian Science, Christian?" On the following Sunday, June 3, he will give the second one on "Is Christian Science Scientific?" Everybody welcome. Come!

Anabel Presbyterian Church.

Last Friday evening the members of the orchestra of the Anabel Presbyterian Sunday school were entertained at the home of Superintendent C. C. Tripp. Following the musical rehearsal all present went into the basement of the Tripp home which has been very suitably furnished for such occasions, and enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Tripp.

Mr. Joy Simmons and Mr. Floyd Duffield captained the two teams in a bowling match. There were star performers on both sides, but Mr. Simmons and his supporters were defeated by a very small margin.

In an apple eating contest, in which the blindfolded led the blindfolded, Mr. Shaw defeated Mr. Taylor.

Other games and contests were enjoyed until a late hour, when the hostess served refreshments. The national colors comprised the decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Tripp were voted the most hospitable entertainers and each one departed wishing that the invitation might be extended again.

Those present were: F. N. Taylor, Mrs. L. M. Lasley, Noble Taylor, Joy Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Tripp, Garnet Johnston, Ruth Johnston, Elton Shaw, Floyd Duffield, Dorothea Neitzel, Paulus Shaw, Mildred Deaver and Horace Simmons.

Mrs. James Nelson, Graham, Johnson, Garside, Taylor, Livingston, Shaw, Christopher, Ferris Sr., Ferris Jr., of the Anabel church, attended the meeting of the Presbyterian Society of Portland Presbyterian, which was held in the First Presbyterian Church on Tuesday.

Rev. J. E. Nelson, Miss C. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Shaw, Mr. Joy Simmons and Mrs. B. A. O'Mealy are attending the State Sunday school Convention at Newberg this week.

Friends Church.

At the Friends Church Myra E. Smith will speak at the morning service on Sunday. J. Sanger Fox will speak in the evening.

The prayer meeting on Thursday evening of next week will be in charge of the Christian Endeavor Society.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society was held on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Mann, on 92nd St. The ladies met for work in the morning and enjoyed dinner together at noon. "Heroes in the Christian Conquest," was the subject discussed at the Mission Study class in the afternoon. Mrs. Tamplin was the leader.

Free Methodist Church.

At the annual Conference of the Free Methodist Church, just concluded at Hillsboro, the Lents church was placed in charge of the pastor of First Church, Rev. A. Beers, with Mrs. Beers and Mr. Dawson as assistants. Preaching service will be held hereafter at 8:00 o'clock each Sunday afternoon. On Sunday next Rev. Beers will conduct the service at that hour.

Millard Ave., Presbyterian Church.

On Friday evening of last week the Christian Endeavor Society of Millard Avenue Presbyterian Church held their monthly business meeting and social at the home of Miss Grace Spalding, 4420 75th St. At the conclusion of the business session a social time was enjoyed. Games and music were enjoyed, many of the games being of an educational nature, instructive as well as interesting. Prizes were offered in a story writing contest, Neil Robertson winning the boy's and Olive Reed, the girl's. The game of "Conversation" also provided much amusement and was played progressively with a publicity feature at

STAND BY THE FIREMEN

For years the firemen of Portland have been discriminated against in working conditions and hours. Now is a good time to make a change, and the residents of the Mt. Scott District can help wonderfully. Give the firemen a work day of 12 hours and a chance to enjoy home life and do their bit in the food drive which is facing the country like an oncoming army.

The two-platoon measure is meeting with hearty support all over the city. Get in line and help, today, tomorrow and every day until June 4.

Then vote, and have your friends vote, like good citizens.
