GRAYS CROSSING BUSINESS SURVEY

Thriving Business Carried On At Woodmere Station By B. F. Volts—Reads The Herald.

ELECTRIC CONVENIENCES

Jos. Gething, Electrician—All Kinds Of Electrical Supplies—Installs Meters In Any Part Of City.

Attempting to make good on our promise of last week to present to the public other business interests in the vicinity of Grays Crossing, we begin with the enterprising

W. S. Sanders Meat Market

Mr. Sanders has been selling meats at this stand for the past five years, and from the way he explained how various cuts are obtained, and their relative values, it seems that he thoroughly understands the trade.

He showed how far astray many writers and speakers on dietetics go when they attempt to tell the public to eat flank and circle steaks at 18 cents a pound when there are only two such steaks in each beef and these are now worth 18 cents a pound wholesale.

Mr. Sanders makes a specialty of unadulterated hamburger. He has a fine assortment of Heinz famous 57 brand goods. You can get dill pickles, olives and fine sauces of all kinds at this market. When you want anything in these lines just call at 6008 82nd street.

Gething's Electrical Shop

Mr. Jos. Gething has also been in business at his present stand, 8311 Woodstock Ave., for five years and has been living in Lents for nine years. He is one of the young business men of the Mt. Scott district and is at your service for installing electrical fixtures, motors, rectifying motor troubles, furnishing bulbs, door bells, flash lights, etc. Here you can get a good aluminum electric toaster, electric irons, and anything of the kind you want. When you call if Mr. Gething is not in, Mrs. G. will sell you what you want or take your order for any work which you may want done.

Why buy away from home when you can get what you want here?

The Woodmere Store

At the corner of 77th street and Woodstock avenue B. F. Volts is conducting an up-to-date grocery store with side lines of stationery, pins, thread, work gloves and garden tools. His assortment of cured meats looked attractive. We noticed a nutritious and inexpensive article in these days of speculators' prices, viz, nuts. Oregon honey has a reputation for its good quality. This you can have at right prices at the Woodmere store. An assortment of dried fruits was on display just inside the front door. The goods on the shelves appeared fresh and clean and the carefully inclosed bakery and confectionery goods were attractive.

Mr. Volts is a modest man. He has been in control of this store two years and succeeds Mr. Hobson as proprietor. Any one who has local items for the Herald can leave them with Mr. Volts and they will receive proper attention. Don't forget to patronize your local merchant.

GRAYS CROSSING BUILDS 40-FT. DEEP SEA BOAT.

This community is certainly progressive, and even if it can't have water front it seems determined to go into the ship-building business. Four years ago a boat was built out here and hauled into town and at the present time G. McCord, of 5423 82nd St. is building another one. This is to be a deep sea boat and will be 40 ft. long by 8 ft. beam. At present only the skeleton is to be seen. The ribs are made of heavy Siberian Oak. Mr. McCord has been in the boat building business for years and finds it convenient to carry it on right at home. He expects to start a yard down on the river a little later. The boat he is now building is designed for a distillate engine.

Parents encourage your boys and girls to avail themselves of our 40 per cent commission offer. Until June 15 we will give any boy or girl 40 cts. on the dollar for all new subscriptions to the "Herald," for three months or more.

THE WOODMERE HOME FOR OLD AND INFIRM

A Worthy Institution Filling A Great Need—Co-operation Of Community Would Be Appreciated.

The Woodmere Old People's Home is located in a shady grove on 64th avenue, between 74th and 77th avenues, and is under the general direction of Mrs. Hattie B. Lawrence. The building faces the south, is two stories high and has a wide veranda on two sides of the first story. The number of inmates averages 25, some of whom are very infirm. One lady is entirely blind and requires the attendance of a nurse most of the time. Such members of the home as this are a great tax upon the few in charge since the income does not justify the employment of professional attendants.

Religious services are held each morning after breakfast and Sundays at 2:30 p. m. These services are much appreciated, as well as the other privileges of the Home, and are conducted by some minister who is willing to render his assistance.

Mr. Joseph Hayden, the superintendent in charge, stated to our reporter that gifts of food of all kinds are much needed. The Home needs wood, potatoes, rice, sugar, pillow slips and sheets. Those who have a mind to give can not do better than to remember this institution which is trying to minister to the homeless and oftentimes friendless members of society. The people of the Mt. Scott district know of Mrs. Lawrence and her work. Her name is sufficient guarantee of the wise use of any contributions sent to the Home. Let us all help, for the days are strenuous.

FIFTY DOLLARS GIVEN IN PRIZES

Several weeks ago an announcement was made concerning the annual public school essay contest of the Sons of the American Revolution. One hundred and sixty essays were received by the committee, coming from pupils in all parts of the state. The three prizes and honorable mention have been awarded as follows:

First prize, $25—Hazel Pearcy, Lincoln High School, Portland, Ore. "Benjamin Franklin's Influence on the American Revolution."

Second prize, $15—Arthur Johnson, High School of Commerce, Portland, Ore. "The Siege of Yorktown."

Third prize, $10—Albert Mott, High School, Forest Grove, Ore. "Privateers and Their Work in the Revolution."

Honorable mention: M. Marcell Carlock, Lincoln High School, Portland, Ore. "The Siege of Yorktown."

Joyce Savage, Lincoln High School, Portland, Ore. "The Influence of Benjamin Franklin upon the American Revolution."

Helen Ross, Jefferson High School, Portland, Ore. "The Part Played by Massachusetts in the Revolution."

Ellen Frances Shea, first year of High School, Astoria, Ore. "The siege of Yorktown."

U. S. WANTS MECHANICS

Engineers Company Of Oregon National Guard Issue Last Call For Volunteers.

The engineer company of the Oregon National Guards has issued a call for all classes of carpenters and mechanics. Single men only, between the ages of 18 and 45, are eligible for enlistment, and such are called into service July 25. This will be the last opportunity to volunteer before conscription begins. The recruiting office is at 106 Fifth street.

Four Brothers In Ministry.

Rev. T. R. Hornschuch, pastor of the Evangelical Church of Lents, was one of five brothers, all of whom were in attendance at the annual conference just held at Monmouth. E. D. Hornschuch is pastor of one of the Portland churches; E. G. Hornschuch resides at Jefferson, where he is pastor of the Evangelical Church of that place; Rev. H. E. Hornschuch is pastor of the church of Nebo, Ore., while T. R. Hornschuch is pastor of the Lents church.

PRESIDENT SETS DAY FOR WAR CENSUS

Every Man Between the Ages of Twenty-One and Thirty Must Register.

War Census Day—Tuesday, June 5, as named by President Wilson in his official proclamation.

Who Must Register—Every male resident between the ages of 21 and 30 years, inclusive. This includes aliens as well as Americans. Japanese, Chinese, Italians, Germans, English, Americans, and men of any other nationality who are of the designated ages, must register. Aliens will not be drafted for war duty, of course, but a complete record of them is desired.

Who Is Exempt—No male resident between the ages of 21 and 30 years, inclusive, is exempt from registering. Those to be exempted from military service will be determined later, but first all must register.

Where To Register—Booths at regular voting places in each precinct will be open on War Census Day from 7 o'clock a. m. to 9 o'clock p. m. Don't wait until the last moment. Register early.

Registration Of Absentees—If you find you will be unavoidably absent from your home precinct on War Census Day, you should apply at the earliest date to the county clerk of the county in which you may be at the time, whether in Oregon or elsewhere, who will fill out your registration card. He will then give you the card, which you must mail to the registrar of your precinct, in care of the sheriff of your home county, in time to reach the registrar by War Census Day. If you live in Portland, or a city of over 30,000 population in another state, mail the card to the registrar in care of the mayor.

But remember, the burden of having your card reach the registrar of your home precinct by War Census Day is on you.

Registration Of The Sick—Men of military age who are too ill to go to the voting booth to register must send a competent person before War Census Day to the county clerk to explain the circumstances, and secure instructions from the Federal regulations which these officials will receive from the Government.

Penalties—The penalty for failing to register, or for giving false, misleading or incorrect answers, is imprisonment. There is no alternate of a fine.

MRS. S. M. GHORMLEY PASSES AWAY.

At 9:10 p. m., on May 17 Mrs. Sarah M. Ghormley passed into rest. The deceased had not been well for two years or more. She bore uncomplainingly her sickness, desiring only that she might go home. She was born December 22, 1846 at Marysville, Tenn. For 34 years her home has been in or near Portland. Death came to her at 9038 Sixty-second avenue S. E., where she has resided for the past eleven years. At about the age of 17 she made profession of religion and united with the Baptist church. Whenever she was able she attended the services of the Lents Baptist Church. The pastor of this church, J. M. Nelson, preached the funeral sermon in the Kenworthy Undertaking chapel. The interment was in Multnomah cemetery. Of her immediate family two sons departed this life some years ago. Two daughters remain to mourn the loss of a mother, Mrs. Mary Gifford and Mrs. May Gray, both of Portland.

Six or seven dollars of theft in the wholesale price of 196 pounds of flour is sufficient reason for Federal control of the price of this staple.—Sunnyside Gazette.

CANDIDATE FOR COM. PAYS VISIT TO LENTS.

L. M. Davis, candidate for City Commissioner, paid a visit to the Lents district the first of the week.

The "Oregon Voter" is authority for the following regarding the early life and fraternal relations of Mr. Davis: He was a "farm boy in Michigan; had a common school education; worked his way through medical and dental colleges. He is a charter member Oregon Lodge 101, A. F. & A. M. Passed through all the chairs, including master. Is now a life member of the Lodge, 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason. Camelia Chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Past Patron Camelia Chapter. Grand Patron O. E. S. for Oregon. White Shrine of Jerusalem. Holds office of King, Knights and Ladies of Security."

Mr. Davis served two years on the City Council, his record being such that he feels he can point to it at this time as sufficient reason for expecting the support of the people whom he formerly endeavored to serve.

A news item says small investors will be able to buy war bonds. Not us! We have to buy spuds and beans.

TO CHILDREN OF SUBSCRIBERS.

You will notice that our paper has a different appearance this week. Get last week's paper and see. Examine this paper and find what causes the difference.

We will extend the subscription of the Herald three months to the home of the first six of you who come to the office of the Herald and tell us the true cause of the change of appearance.

CANTATA PRESENTED BY MILLARD AVENUE S. S.

Carnival Of Flowers Given To Crowded House—To Be Repeated By Request.

The cantata given by the Millard Ave. Presbyterian Sunday School on Friday evening last, entitled "The Carnival of Flowers," was presented before a capacity house, even the vestibule being crowded with people who were unable to get in further. It was a most delightful production. Thirty fresh, young voices, carefully trained, rendered the music in a most pleasing manner, while their costumes in harmony with the flowers they represented, made the stage appear what it was in reality—a garden of living flowers. The boys interspersed through the group were dressed in green and put the finishing touches to a most beautiful scene. The queen of the fairies occupied the center of the group, surrounded by her maids of honor, who were dressed in white.

The platform, from floor to ceiling, was banked with dogwood against a background of green, gorgeous bouquets of roses and other flowers completing the decorations.

Much credit is due the young artists for the cleverness of their performance; also to the untiring efforts of those who trained the chorus.

By request the cantata will be repeated at the church tomorrow (Friday) evening. The admission to this second performance will be 15 cents. A few additional musical numbers will be given upon this occasion.

CHURCH CELEBRATES TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

Lents Baptists Celebrate Event—Indebtedness Covered by Voluntary Contributions.

On last Sunday this church celebrated its tenth anniversary. The church was organized May 19, 1907 in the home of W. P. Kneeland on Ninth avenue—as it was then called—near the carline. Nineteen entered the organization as charter members, seven of whom are still on the church roll. The church laid plans very shortly after organizing to secure a church home. This was located on Ninety-first street between Foster Road and Woodstock avenue. This building was enlarged by the addition of a room for the primary department. March 13, 1912 this structure was completely destroyed by fire. In three weeks time a new location had been secured, architects plans approved, and a start made on the excavation for the present church building. Dedication services were held on June 23 following. The building enterprise came at a time when it was especially hard to finance the new undertaking. Most of the heads of families were without employment. Yet in faith and courage they gave themselves to the task. Up until some months ago a debt of something over a thousand dollars was being carried. By voluntary offering at the service on last Sunday afternoon all but fifty dollars was raised, and this will doubtless soon be provided for. The present property of the church is worth about $7500.00. The building is commodious and well-arranged for all church purposes.

There has been expended for all purposes during these ten years the total of $18,859.40. Of this amount $1336.27 was contributed for missionary and benevolent purposes. 237 have united with the church in various ways. 89 have come in by baptism, 33 by experience or restoration, and 115 by letter.

Two pastors have served the church during this time, J. F. Heacock, and J. M. Nelson, the latter of whom lays down the work July 1, after something more than seven years of service here.

A goodly number of the non-resident and former members at the exercises of last Sunday added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Our perfectly good American hog is up in arms. He resents being mentioned in the same class with food speculators.

ASK CANDIDATES FOR PAID DEPT.

Well Attended Interesting Session Of Lents Improvement Club—Street Car To Stop On Near Side.

ASK FOR FOSTER PAVING

Two-Platoon And Baker Speakers Heard—Special Meetings To Hear Candidates June 2.

At the meeting of the Lents Improvement Club last night, the Executive Committee were instructed to engage E. P. Tobin to circulate the petitions and get at least 40 per cent of the property owners to sign for the improvement of Foster Road from the city limits to Firland by having an 18 ft. concrete strip put down the center of the road.

A letter was read from the P. R. L. & P. Co., with reference to stopping the street car on the near side each direction on 92nd St., and the statement was made that the Public Service Commission had agreed to this change.

A committee was appointed to wait on the P. R. L. & P. Co. and try and secure better running time in the street car service between Lents and Portland.

A committee was also appointed to wait on the various candidates with a view to immediately get a paid fire department at Lents, as it was felt that the time was ripe to strike and to strike hard for this improvement as we had been patient so long. The Secretary was instructed to write the Public Service Commission with reference to a dangerous bill board at 92nd and Powell Valley Road.

G. L. Rauch delivered from his system a highly flowery and exceedingly lengthy five minute speech eulogizing Geo. L. Baker.

The chief attraction of the evening was an address by Captain Grenfell of the Portland Fire Department in favor of the Two Platoon system, in which he presented very kindly and conservatively the firemen's viewpoint.

The Herald is anxious for its readers to have every possible information upon this and all other questions to be voted upon, and will have a detailed report of Captain Grenfell's speech in next Thursday's paper. We regret that it has been crowded out for lack of time in this issue. To aid in this the Club will hold a special meeting to which all candidates are invited, details of which will appear next week.

FORMER LENTS RESIDENT SUGGUMBS TO DISEASE

The funeral of Wilbur James Coe was held at Kenworthy's Undertaking Parlors Monday morning, the 21st inst., death occurring on the 17th inst. as a result of an attack of typhoid pneumonia.

Mr. Coe was formerly a resident of Lents, leaving about two and one-half years ago, since which time he has resided in the Piedmont district. He was born in Illinois March 4, 1870, being 47 years, 2 months and 13 days of age at the time of his death. He was converted at the age of 18 years and has been a member of the Friends Church for the past 19 years. His father was a Methodist minister. On October 26, 1898, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Berry, who survives to mourn his loss, together with seven children, who are bereft of a father's care. Three sisters also survive.

Myra B. Smith officiated at the funeral service. Interment in Mt. Scott Cemetery.

EPWORTH LEAGUE ENTERTAINMENT.

Be sure and remember the entertainment to be given by the Epworth League at the church tomorrow (Friday) evening. The program will include a short play, readings, and musical selections. A social time will be enjoyed at the conclusion of the program. Admission free; a silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the Church Improvement fund. Refreshments will be served.

Secretary Redfield says there is no ground for alarm about the food question. There will be though, if the ground is not worked.
