YOUR PART—AND MINE

When we took over The Herald five months ago, our friends lamented with us and told us there was no money in the printing business. We believed, however, that there was a place in the world to be filled with credit, honor and usefulness, and felt that if the task were fulfilled honestly, loyally and with intelligence that the financial response would be sufficient for a modest living for the new owners.

We think we were right, and are encouraged at the breadth of vision, the cordial co-operation, and unselfish public spirit of those merchants, particularly (and some private citizens) who, while perhaps not agreeing with our policies in every particular, yet realize the value of The Herald to the community. Great as has been the loyalty of the few we are forced to acknowledge that their support has not been sufficient, and that the point has not yet been reached where the plant is paying expenses, to say nothing at all of a living for the proprietors.

We make this frank statement believing that it will be all that is necessary to rally to our aid all public spirited citizens. Our time, money, energy and such brains as we possess is devoted entirely to the up-building of our district, and we pay expenses by the sale of three necessary and important commodities. If you are not in the market for them we do not want you to buy, but we claim as our right that all who have a need for them should purchase them from us, our prices and service being equal. We have for sale advertising space in our columns, subscriptions to our paper, and printing.

A local merchant who uses our columns steadily and intelligently told us recently that although he does no other advertising, he did the biggest cash business in April that he has ever done, and gives our columns the credit. Others are equally complimentary. We have the necessary circulation, and can give service at least commensurate with our rates. There is not a doubt that we shall soon have to raise our present subscription price of $1 a year in common with other publications, for not only has the price of the raw materials doubled and trebled in common with other staples, but the Federal Government has now increased our mailing rates. For this modest sum we give service in local news and organized community service which cannot be bought elsewhere at any price. In our job printing department we have just completed a price list which has taken months to prepare, which, in harmony with Mt. Scott prices, is considerably lower than Portland price lists.

To sum up in a word, the requirements to keep a live, energetic newspaper in the field, it is necessary for advertisers to redouble their efforts; to double their space rather than reduce it; to make more intelligent and optimistic use of the space used. It will be necessary for those who are not subscribers to become so without further delay, while delinquent subscribers should pay up; let's have a "Pay-Up" week. All the job printing in the district should be turned over—providing we can satisfy you as to service, promptness and prices. As much as possible the local paper should be the medium used to advertise, not other institutions who do little or nothing to benefit the community.

On our part, we'll guarantee to give at least as good service as we have been giving, and we aim to double the size of the paper and of the amount of local news therein contained, and we solemnly promise not to "get-rich-quick" at the expense of the community! J. S. F.

The cost of living is becoming intolerable. Upon even the flimsiest excuse prices of foodstuffs are raised, and if no excuse exists they are boosted on general principles. Millions of people who are dependent upon their daily labor find it almost impossible to keep soul and body together. In hundreds of thousands of cases their vitality is slipping away from pure lack of sufficient nourishment. Yet in the very face of this the insatiable food speculators and profit grabbers are turning the screws tighter every day. There appears to be but one way in which this sucking of the blood of humanity can be stopped, and that is for the government to take prompt action and fix a maximum price at which every article of food is to be sold, and in fixing the maximum the price should be first scheduled down to normal. The fact that a scarcity in foodstuffs exists should not be accepted as an excuse for allowing prices to remain at their present outrageous figures.

Herald Renews Offer.

One boy went to work last Saturday on our subscription offer and brought in two new subscribers in one hour. He got 50 cents on the dollar for his work. We will give you the same. Or we will give you 40% commission and a dollar watch when you bring us 10 new subscribers; a $2.50 fountain pen for 25 new subscribers; a $5 watch for 50 new subscribers.

Remember 40% commission and the premium, or 50% commission without the premium for all new subscribers.

Any Sunday School class or young people's society that desires to make a little money would do well to set some of their members to work securing subscribers. Since the Herald contains much church news all of your friends need the paper. Go after your friends and that 50 cents on the dollar commission.

In that way you can fill your treasury and help to employ labor in Lents, too. Remember we are offering the biggest commission the postoffice rules permit for the extension of the newest paper ever published in Lents.

CHURCH NOTES

Anabel Presbyterian Church.

Last Sunday evening the time of the regular church service at the Anabel Presbyterian Church was devoted to reports of the returning delegates who attended the State Sunday school Convention at Newberg. The church choir and the orchestra of the Sunday school rendered special music and joined with the audience for the song service in which the convention songs were used.

Mr. B. A. O'Mealy attended the State Sunday School Convention and visited friends in the Quaker City Saturday, dropping down to Sherwood and spending Sunday at the farm of Mr. Emory Gilmore, a former Portlander, returning to this city in the evening. Miss Gladys Presnell, a cousin of Mrs. O'Mealy, visited at their home over the week end, returning to her home in Newberg Monday.

A new Missionary baby has just arrived in the Anabel Sunday school. It has not been decided yet what shall be his field of action, but his father told the school Sunday morning that he would be pleased to have him go to the foreign field. The proud parents of the 8½ lb. baby boy which arrived Wednesday morning are Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Town, of 3023 50th St. S. E. Mother and son are doing nicely; Mr. Town's chest measure has, we notice, increased quite perceptibly in the last few days.

The Gleaners, the ladies' organization of the Anabel church, met at the home of Mrs. Elton Shaw, 4402 79th St. S. E. on Wednesday afternoon for their regular missionary meeting. Mrs. J. F. Fulton was the leader and had planned an interesting program which was enjoyed by all present. Response to roll call was made by each one present giving a current event of interest to missionary workers. The topic for discussion was "Latin America. Following the discussion a social hour was enjoyed at which the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Newlands.

Bennett Chapel.

The service last Sunday was one of the finest we have had in six months. Rev. Jasper gave a good sermon on "Christian Education." Major Repp, of the Lents Church, gave two tenor solos which were splendidly given and greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Repp accompanied him, also acting as organist for the service. The attendance is better than it has been for some time. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. B. T. Davis.

The Ladies' Aid meets on Thursday, the 21st inst. at the home of Mrs. La Mear, on Foster Road.

Evangelical Church.

Word came to Lents last Sunday afternoon that Rev. T. R. Hornschuch had been transferred to Salem for the ensuing conference year. This came as a great shock to a majority of the members of the Evangelical Church here and at Happy Valley, as well as the host of warm friends of the good pastor and his highly esteemed family.

During their three years' ministrations these churches have made substantial growth. The musical talent, both instrumental and vocal, of the church and adherents have been developed and used in the service of the King. An orchestra of 12 pieces has come into existence, due to the encouragement of this pastor, who appreciates the value of music in church services.

The Young Men's Class, under his leadership, finished a large room in the basement of the church, putting in a fireplace, securing a library of worth-while books, and, with the aid of the business men of Lents, have placed a piano in the room. If Rev. Hornschuch is stronger in one point than in another, it is in his ability to win young people for the church.

His many ministrations in time of sorrow, as well as of joy, have endeared him to the hearts of the whole community.

To Mrs. Hornschuch belongs the credit due the wife of a minister, to whom he can turn for council and encouragement under all circumstances; and who shares his interest in all departments of the church.

work. Their daughters, Fey and Joy, will be greatly missed in the young folks' circle, where they were ever active and helpful, and Ted will be missed by the boys.

The prayers of their many friends in Lents and Happy Valley will be offered in their behalf, that God will go with them wherever they go, and continue to make them a blessing.

Rev. G. W. Plummer, pastor of the Salem Church during the past year, will come to Lents. Rev. Plummer was formerly pastor of one of the Portland churches.

Friends Church.

The regular services will be held in the Friend's Church on Sunday next. Rev. E. E. Taylor, of Newberg, formerly State Secretary of the Prohibition Party in Oregon, will preach at the morning service.

The Christian Endeavor service at 6:25 p. M. will be in charge of the Missionary Committee. The topic will be "Missionary Heroism." There will be special music.

Friends or Quakers all over the world have set aside one special day called "Peace Day," to advocate settlement of disputes between nations by arbitration. The evening service on Sunday will be devoted to this topic. A program has been arranged by Maggie Carr, chairman of the Peace Committee, as follows:

Song, audience.
Scripture by Mrs. Carr.
Solo, by Kenneth Tamplin.
Y. M. C. A. Work of War, E. Swanson.
Recitation, "Two Wrongs Never Make One Right."
Friends' Work in War, Mrs. Tamplin.
Solo, by J. Sanger Fox.
Exercise, Six Spirits of the War, by six young men.
Closing Song by Congregation.

Free Methodist Church.

Hereafter the services at the Free Methodist Church will be held in the afternoon each Sunday. Sunday school will be held at 2 o'clock, followed by the regular church service at 3 o'clock.

Rev. A. Beers, the pastor, will be present and conduct the service on Sunday next. Some of the young folks of First Church will come out and assist in the service.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening was led by Mr. Herbert Hanson of First Church. Some one will be delegated to conduct the prayer service each week.

Kern Park Christian Church.

At the Kern Park Christian Church on Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. G. K. Berry will take for his subject, "The New Creation." The topic for the evening will be, "Is Christian Science Christian?"

Sunday School will be held at 10 o'clock a. m.; Christian Endeavor at 7 p. m.

The Senior Endeavor enjoyed a hike on Friday evening of last week. It proved to be a great success, 45 participating.

Clyde Beckleheimer has promised the Junior Endeavorers a hike in the near future, which is eagerly anticipated.

The Loyal Women have a fine crop of potatoes growing on the church lots.

On Sunday evening, June 3, Rev. Berry will preach the second of this series of sermons, taking for his topic, "Is Christian Science Scientific?"

The general public is invited to all the services of this church.

Methodist Church.

A patriotic service will be held at the Methodist Church on Sunday morning next, the 27th inst. Members of the G. A. R. and the Relief Corps will attend in a body. The boys in gray will also be welcome should there be any residing in this vicinity. The pastor will take for his topic upon this occasion "The Mobilization of God." Special music will be rendered by the male quartette. The topic of the evening sermon will be "Not Far From the Kingdom." Mrs. Jasper will render a solo at the evening service.

The Adult Bible class will hold
