"Watchful waiting" for sunshine. The gentle rains are a continuous performance.

The "moonmen" say that every change of the moon is a wet one until the middle of July.

Word was received here last week of the marriage of Goldie Williams and Fay Shank, which occurred at Vancouver a week ago last Saturday. They are both well known here and best wishes are expressed by their friends for their future happiness.

The farmers have health and now they are fast gaining wealth, as good prices are assured for all manner of foodstuffs for some time to come. Who are better entitled to prosperity and who perform such a useful service to mankind? The farmers are coming to the front and in the future they will become more and more influential in our political and legislative life, as they most assuredly should be in every particular.

Breadstuffs are falling, and this is one of the times when we rejoice at the fall of a friend. Bread is the staff of life and any one who conspires against this prime essential ought to be severely handled, as they undoubtedly will be, by the government now moving in this matter.

The last number of the Metropolitan contains an illuminating article by Sir Oliver Lodge, a fellow of the Royal Society of England, one of the most eminent scientists of the day, on the question of "Survival of Life After Death." After many years of patient and thorough investigation this learned and able man has arrived at the conclusion, which is abundantly satisfactory to himself, as well as to every intelligent person, that this life is but the beginning of an existence that will reach beyond this bank and shoal of time.

There will be appropriate exercises at the cemetery here on Decoration Day. The program will consist of songs, recitations, devotional exercises, and remarks by the writer and others.

Mrs. Miller, at the hotel, has a Christmas pullet that began laying when four months old. Can you beat that?

John Sneed and friends, from Portland, were out here fishing last week, but the weather was too cool and rainy most of the time for much luck.

Bellrose-Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Anderson are preparing to return to their former home in Portland, much to the regret of their many friends in this vicinity. After this week they will be found at 3744, 41st St. S. E. They have promised to attend future meetings of the "Unexpected" Club however, which somewhat modifies the regret which otherwise would be great. We might suggest that if, at any time, they find it impossible to attend these gatherings Mr. Anderson might see to it that he sent his "ghost" out it would be greatly appreciated.

BELLROSE SCHOOL.

The Gilrose school, District No. 45, closed the school year last Thursday, the 24th inst. A program was rendered, which included two songs by pupils of Miss Heden's room; a clown act, entitled "The Seven Jumps," by the boys of Miss Heden's and Miss Brackett's rooms; and a two-act comedy by the High School, entitled "Presy's Proxy." Little Miss Margaret McCullough gave the Highland dance, which she does so gracefully. After the program ice cream was served by the pupils. An admission charge of 10 cents was asked, the proceeds to be used in the purchase of prizes for the boys' and girls' industrial club.

The community is thrilled with pride over the fact that the boys of Gilrose school brought home the silver cup from the field meet at Gresham. They have improved very materially in athletics during Mr. Ager's principalship, as well as in the regular school work.

Miss Verna Stark, an eleven-year old girl of Miss Heden's room, won the gold wrist watch given by Staples, the Jeweler, to the best speller in the County. The contest was held in the Central Library, Portland. Four girls tied and in writing the 25 misspelled words Verna Stark won.

Prof. Ager has shown himself to be a thoroughly efficient man as principal, not only in the results of the school room, but also in winning the respect and affection of the students and the esteem of the entire community.

Miss Dorcas Hedin has had the 7th and 8th grades, her work having been strong, clear and effective, as shown by the splendid reports of the pupils of her room.

Miss Lucile Brackett, teacher of the 5th and 6th grades, has been very popular with her pupils and general regret is felt over her resignation.

Miss Myrtle McNeil, of the 4th grade, has endeared herself to her pupils.

Miss Minnie Davis and Mrs. Rhoda Wallace, teachers of the primary grades, have proven themselves splendidly efficient.

The faculty have requested a 10 percent increase in the salary another year, owing to the increased cost of living.

(Too late for last issue.)

The Ladies' Aid will meet on Friday of this week at the home of Mrs. Ham.

The Parent-Teacher Association will hold a meeting on Friday evening, which will be their final meeting until the beginning of another school year.

Everybody is busy, working overtime making garden. Although the season is so late such gardens as are up are looking fine.

Miss Norrow is having all of the two-acre tract belonging to the oldest home in "Oregon Home Acres," including most of the lawn, put into potatoes.

Mr. Clark is having difficulty in getting glasses for his jellies and jams. The 8-oz. glass was formerly used, then the 7-oz. and afterward the 6-oz. and this season it has jumped back to the 9-oz. The cost of everything is advancing, yet it is hard to advance the price of a glass of jelly without increasing the size.

MOUNTAIN VIEW REBEKAHS

Election of officers occurred at Mountain View Rebekah lodge on Saturday evening with the following result:—Noble Grand, Mrs. Alford; vice-grand, Mrs. Gollings; secretary, Mrs. Peters; treasurer, Mrs. Organ.

Mrs. Fulmer and Mrs. Oder, who had represented the lodge at the Rebekah Assembly at Eugene submitted their reports, which were very interesting. Mrs. Mary Lankaster, of Astoria, was elected President of the State Assembly for the coming year. A very interesting feature of the annual meeting was the presentation by Henry Westbrook, Grand Master, to Mrs. Wattenberg, retiring State President, of a gavel made of wood taken from a window sill of the house in which she was born.

Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Chadamaugh also attended the state assembly.

Mrs. Alvord, the newly elected Noble Grand, is at the Portland Medical Hospital, where she is quite seriously ill.

No country, whether at peace or at war, can grow and prosper without successful industries. We all live by the work of each other. Fight for policies which encourage the payroll creator.

The people of Portland will worry along, somehow, no matter who is elected mayor. It is astonishing what a free people can stand!

DON'T VOTE AWAY YOUR FREEDOM

Those who are asking working people to vote for the Anti-Conspiracy law at the June election are misrepresenting what the law really means.

They are not friends of working people. They are not friends of Portland.

They think more of making dollars than they do of men making a living.

They would pass this law to help them in their fight to cut down wages and make men work longer hours.

The law would also punish many other lodges, working men's clubs, and societies for doing things not now against any law.

Do not be deceived into voting away your rights as American citizens.

If you understand what this law means you will vote against it. If you do not understand what it means the only safe thing to do is to vote against it.

VOTE III X NO

Trade Conspiracy Ordinance

This ordinance provides a means of dealing with the causes of unfair attacks upon business concerns, without curbing the legitimate rights of individuals to express themselves as they may see fit.

Makes it possible for the general public to be protected from the humiliation and irritation of being used as a tool of a small group, in a campaign to wreck an industry.

It is hostile to nothing legitimate, and it is extremely friendly to the rights of all men, regardless of their industrial affiliations, and to the general peace of the community.
